

CRESCENTS WON THE GAME

Defeated Williamstown Team 6 to 3

AT THE TROTTING PARK.

The Williamstown Boys Put Up a Good Game, Having Only Two Errors— Twelve Hits Off Each Pitcher.

At the trotting park Saturday afternoon, the Crescents defeated Williamstown in a close and well-played game by a score of 6 to 3. Both teams played fine ball, Williamstown having two errors and the Crescents one. In order to strengthen their team and give them a better chance of victory, the Williamstown boys sent to Montpelier for Thomas, the Montpelier seminary pitcher of Jeffersonville fame, who came with supreme confidence in his own invincibility and returned to Montpelier with ten lumps. Thomas pitched good ball, however, striking out twelve men, while Fisher struck out the same number and gave five hits, three of which came in one inning.

The scoring started in the third inning, when Williamstown was hit by the pitcher, Clark followed with a base on balls, Little singled, filling the bases, Godfrey followed with a single between first and second, scoring Whitney and Clark. Symonds then got a scratch hit over by first, scoring Little. Three runs.

In the fourth the Crescents tallied once. Nute singled, took second on a balk and third on Stewart's single. Smith tied to deep center and Nute scored on the throw-in. One run.

The rest of the game was a shut-out for Williamstown. In the seventh the Crescents won the game, Jacobs starting off with a double over center. Smith was hit by the pitcher and Garritty fled out to second. Thomas got a little nervous and hit Wright. Fisher struck out. Duncan bunted to short, scoring Jacobs, and Bishop threw low to first, who let the ball by, and Smith scored. Reid repped out a two-bagger, scoring Wright and Duncan. Four runs.

Again in the eighth, the Crescents scored. Smith bunted and beat out the throw. Godfrey and Wright singled, scoring Smith. One run.

ONLY ONE GAME IN INTERCITY LEAGUE

Hibernians Play Ten Innings With the Result a Tie at the End—Score Was 5 to 5.

Only one game in the Intercity league was played Saturday afternoon, that being between the Hibernians of this city and the Capitols, and the score resulted in a tie, 5 to 5, after ten innings had been played. The game had to be called on account of darkness. By bunting four hits in the ninth inning for two runs, the Hibernians saved a defeat and tied the score.

Hill pitched a great game for the Capitols, striking out 19 men, and with the exception of the ninth inning, kept the nine hits made off him well scattered. Keefe was in the box for the Hibernians and also pitched good ball, and had it not been for the eight errors made behind him would easily have won the game.

Each man was about 30 years of age.

A True Substitute for Travel.

To travel to foreign lands at a trifling cost; to see the strange cities and countries you have most longed to see; to see some of the pleasures invariably derived from Lyman H. Howe's moving pictures, to be seen in Barre, Thursday, Sept. 12.

Nothing short of actual and expensive travel, of which Mr. Howe's exhibition is the only true substitute, could be more fascinating or instructive. The new programme informs everyone in the fullest degree of our great yesterday and greater today at home and abroad. At the same time it affords much wholesome amusement and interprets current history. No other exhibition puts the world before you as this does, for none compares with it in any detail. Grave and gay, light and serious, the entire programme is as varied as human character. Every picture accompanied by natural sounds, tells its own story so well and clearly that a "lecture" is entirely unnecessary. In this respect Mr. Howe's exhibition surpasses all others. Vocal and mechanical imitations combined with the scene of skill, ingenuity and science makes the whole programme eminently unique. Not only is it unsurpassed, but it is unequalled. It is the personal note—a certain indefinable something which characterizes Mr. Howe's exhibition above all others. It has had legions of imitators, who like imitations of anything else have failed in duplicating the subtle and refreshing charm of the original.

A PLEA FOR JESSE POMEROY.

Protest Against Keeping the Murderer Longer in Solitary Confinement.

Boston, Sept. 9.—A protest against the keeping of Jesse Pomeroy, the murderer, in solitary confinement at the Charlestown state prison was filed with Gov. Guild Saturday by Fred H. Gale, secretary of the American society for the promotion of criminal anthropology. The petition recites that Pomeroy has served a sentence in solitary confinement of 33 years, and the society brings forward a number of reasons why the government should mitigate the harshness of the punishment. Pomeroy has been in jail since he was 16 years old and has never been allowed out of his cell to stroll with other prisoners, work with them at the benches nor even to attend divine service.

CHICAGO WOMAN MURDERED.

Chicago, Sept. 9.—Mrs. Fred M. Fish, wife of a wealthy retired broker, was found murdered in her home in Evanston early Saturday. Her husband, with his throat cut, was found unconscious on the floor of the bedroom in which lay the body of Mrs. Fish. The police think that Fish murdered his wife and then attempted to commit suicide. It is doubtful whether he revives sufficiently to make a statement. Mr. and Mrs. Fish were heard in a violent quarrel late Friday night.

BURTON NOMINATED FOR MAYOR.

Seeing the Eighties.

Even in these days of liberal education the young women sometimes show how confused are the ideas shut up in their heads. Illustrative of this is the native blunder which Edmond de Amiels recounts in his story of a voyage from Genoa to Buenos Ayres: The captain of the steamer which numbered the charming young blunderer among its passengers met her one morning and said: "Signorina, we cross the tropic of cancer today."

CAMERA FIEND COST A LIFE.

Woman's Snap Shot of Drowning Man Caused Fatal Delay.

Cincinnati, Sept. 9.—It developed before sunrise Saturday that the two persons attempting to rescue William Breiberman from Miami river on Sunday had been permitted a woman to snap shot him in the act of drowning. Louis Vogel was a member of the camp with the drowned man. His testimony was that Breiberman had a wage with a fellow camper on swimming the river. His watch stopped and started back. Half way over he began to drift down stream. Vogel called attention to this, and called to his companions something was wrong. When they went down to see about him a woman and boy were taking pictures. Vogel called to them: "Yes, that is a floater near you." "Yes, I think it is. May I take a picture of him?" "She was told, Vogel said she might as well. The woman made a picture, and the body floated on. When Breiberman was taken from the water it was too late to save him.

WILLING IF WANTED

Congressman Haskins to Run Again

FOR PLACE IN CONGRESS

Will have Hon. Frank Plumley and Ex-Governor Charles J. Bell for His Opponents, It Is Expected.

Brattleboro, Sept. 9.—The Brattleboro correspondent for the Springfield Republican has the following in Sunday's issue: "Politics in the 2nd congressional district have not warmed up much yet, but judging from what little has been said it is apparent that the campaign which will be waged between now and the time of the district convention in June will not be devoid of interest. Some of the aspirants for a seat in the national House, and some of their friends have presumed that Col. Kittredge Haskins of this town, the present incumbent, would not be a candidate for re-nomination. It was stated in some sections during the last campaign that Col. Haskins probably would retire at the close of the term for which he was then elected. What the basis of the presumption was it is hard to say. Possibly the wish was father to the thought as Col. Haskins vows he never said he would retire with the present term and never gave anybody any reason for thinking that he would. On the contrary, Col. Haskins intends to be a candidate in the coming campaign. He does not say so in so many words, but when asked on that point this week he said that if the people of the district wanted his services longer they could have them. And he said it with an accent that led to the conclusion that his services would be available for as many terms as the people of the district saw fit to elect him.

PASSENGERS SHAKEN UP.

Enosburg Falls, Sept. 9.—A heavily loaded excursion train returning from the Sheldon fair on the Mississippi division of the Central Vermont Friday evening struck a spread rail on the curve just east of the station at East Berkshire, throwing one coach from the track and giving the passengers a bad shaking up. No one was hurt although the passengers in the derailed coach landed in heaps in the aisle of the car, and the jar shattered windows and tore up the track for 30 feet until the coach finally landed directly across the track.

Boston, Sept. 9.—The most important indictment returned by the September grand jury made public Saturday charged former Building Inspector John P. Clark of that city with requesting and accepting a gratuity. Clark was arrested five weeks ago on a charge of soliciting $50 from a builder in return for giving his (Clark's) approval to a building in the South end. Later he was discharged from the employ of the city. The grand jury also returned a number of secret indictments which will not be made public until arrests are made under them.

President's Youthful Tooth.

New York, Sept. 9.—In the window of a little shop at Lexington avenue and sixteenth street is a gold ring with a setting that includes two small diamonds and a human tooth. A sign announces that it is the "tooth of the 25th president of the United States." The proprietor of the store says he bought it at an administrator's sale of the effects of Mrs. Julia B. The tooth is said to be one that resided in the president's face when he was a boy, and which he many years ago gave to his eccentric woman admirer.

All England tonight are confident she will win back for the Cunard line the laurels wrested from them 10 years ago by the North German Lloyd.

How Much Could You Get For Your Farm?

You are a farmer. You live near this town. You own land. Let us say that you own more than you need and would like to sell a hundred acres. How much could you get per acre? Land values have risen lately. But has the value of your land risen as you think it should? Your land is good land. You think it is worth considerably more than anybody has offered you. Well, let us see. A man buying farm land naturally prefers to locate near a thriving up to date town. He wants good home markets for his crops. He wants good schools. Let us say your land is three miles from town. A farm that looks very much like yours is three miles from a town twice as big and twice as prosperous as this town. If you were going to buy a farm for your own occupancy, wouldn't you pay a whole lot more for land near the town that is twice as large and twice as lively? Of course you would. It would be good business. Now, what makes a town big and bustling? Money. Money in circulation. Not in circulation in Chicago, for instance, but right in the town that wants to grow. How much money have you sent to the big Mail Order houses in the city the past ten years? How much have your neighbors sent? How much have all of you together put out of circulation here at home? It is probably beyond calculation. If all that money had been spent in your own home town, isn't it reasonable to assume that the town would have grown more than it has grown?

Wouldn't this town be a bigger and better town? Wouldn't it have more stores to buy your produce? Wouldn't it have more public improvements to make it more attractive to outsiders who might come here to live, to go into business, or buy your surplus land at a good figure? TO TRADE AT HOME MEANS TO HELP THE TOWN AND THE NEIGHBORHOOD, TO HELP THE TOWN AND THE NEIGHBORHOOD MEANS TO HELP YOURSELF.
