4,550

copies, the largest paid circulation of any daily paper in this section.

Another danger from the yellow peril! A Chinese base ball team has beaten a nine from the American navy.

Walter Scott, the printing press manufacturer, is dead. Mr. Scott, who was a Scotchman by birth, was one of the greatest inventors of the country. He took out over 2,000 patents in 26 years.

Hetty Green says the country's finances are "going to the devil." She further says: "Can't you see the poor people suffering all around you? Can't you see the watered stock in everything? It's ruinous. . . . There was a time when guilty oppressors of the innocent went to jail. Well, perhaps they'll go again." Hetty must be loaded up with some of the water she is so loud against.

The Burlington Free Press publishes a despatch dated at Barre which says: "According to a prominent politician, it is generally accepted among Democratic leaders throughout the state that G. Herbert Pape of Barre will head the delegation to the next Democratic national convention."

Mr. Pape would make an excellent man for this position, and The Times hopes the report in The Free Press may come true.

The Boston Transcript says: "To every reader of the official version of the horrible accident at Canaan on Sunday morning, the large part in railroad demoralization played by belatedness of trains must be strikingly apparent." In other words, if the train over the Central Vermont had left White River on time, there would have been no accident. The Transcript says "the Boston & Maine, especially on its branch lines and connections, continues to offend seriously in this particular." But was the Boston & Maine the guilty party in this particular case? True, the Montreal express was over an hour late out of White River Junction, but was the train there to leave on time?

The proposed arbitration arrangement by which all differences between employers and employees in the granite business shall be settled without cessation of work has been approved by the granite cutters' unions of the country and it is now the settled policy of that union.

The Times considers this one of the greatest advances ever made by any union. The Granite Cutters' union has always been a strong organization because of its conservative management, and under the leadership of James Duncan it has come to be recognized as one of the model union organizations of the country.

JINGLES AND JESTS

Her Dream. "You must have been dreaming of some one proposing to you last night, Laura." "How is that?" "Why, I heard you for a whole quarter of an hour crying out, "Yes,"—Fliegende Blaetter. Careless Speech. Missionary—Sire, my daughter. King of all the Cannibals—Pleased to meet you—Life. The Emergency Pocket. They had planned to elope all along these two—The groom a Baboon, and a bride Kangaroo. And so they were both clandestinely wed, when the groom of a sudden bethought him, and said: "My purse I've forgot. A plague on the marriage! Can't help it, my dear, you must furnish the carriage." So the groom stepped in, and they galloped away, singing "High and a Ho" on their bright wedding day.—Harper's Weekly. A Dark Secret. The bleached blond's method of keeping her hair light is a dark secret.—Chicago News. THE RISING TIDE. I have a motor-runsabout, And I have often wondered How I could ever do without My car, which cost . . . 800.00 It plays me many a little joke; I well recall my fix When my left steering-spindle broke— That cost exactly . . . 6.00 The other day I broke my chain, It gave me trouble plenty; But still I oughtn't to complain, It only cost . . . 4.50 My carbureter wouldn't work— I tried till I was blue; An expert gave it just one jerk And charged . . . 3.22 She went so fast, when this was done, She seemed to be alive! And then—my pump refused to run! A new one cost me . . . 5.00 I thought that I had known the worst, And dared to laugh at fate; When suddenly my tire was burst; New shoe cost . . . 38.00 And then my radiator went; A new one . . . 27.00 Repairs to brake, a lever bent, A dust-cap . . . 2.11 And now I was vexed; My lamps went back on me! It was my generator next; They stuck me . . . 13.03 This tinkering with my machine Was not because I blundered; With garage, oil and gasoline, I spent another . . . 100.00 Total. But still I've had a month of fun. Despite repair shop rows, and After it all is said and done, I've only spent . . . 1000.00—Gelett Burgess in Smart Set. Nash Discharged in Kane Case. Holyoke, Sept. 17.—George W. Nash, who was arraigned on Saturday on a charge of vagrancy pending an investigation by the police of his whereabouts at the time of the murder of Hugh Kane, the mis-mann, four weeks ago, was discharged in the local court yesterday, as nothing could be found against him. He was re-arrested, however, for breaking and entering a railroad station near Pittsfield and taken to that city by detectives for arraignment today. Nature Alone. He—You admire the view? Then marry me and it is yours. She—Thanks! I prefer my landscape without figures.—Judge.

MONTPELIER

Annual Bar Meeting October 1st—New Lumber Company. Edward Preslow was called yesterday before the city officials to answer to the charge of not supporting his wife. He promised to do the right thing in future, and was given another chance. Delegates from this city and Barre were in Waterbury last evening to assist in instituting a lodge there of the New England Order of Protection. The degree team from Stannard lodge of this city did a portion of the work. The Hancock Lumber company is the second one. The company is formed for purchasing and selling of lands, manufacture of lumber, leasing property and selling stumps in Hancock. The capital stock is $15,000, sold at $100 per share. The stockholders are L. J. Robinson, A. J. Robinson, L. Grace Robinson and Josephine Robinson of Northfield, and M. M. Wilson of Randolph. Wayne Burnham and Joseph Hickok, employees of the New England Telephone company, left yesterday morning for Newport to testify in the $30,000 joint damage suit brought against the New England company and the Consolidated Lighting company by a telephone line named Drown, who was injured at Graniteville in May, 1905, by coming in contact, it is alleged, with a Consolidated wire while working for the telephone company. Col. A. C. Brown, department commander, returned Sunday morning from Saratoga, making the return trip in his new automobile, covering the 135 miles from Glens Falls, N. Y., to Watfield by daylight Saturday. Commander Brown was kept busy yesterday showing the solid gold badge, set with diamonds, that was presented to him by his comrades of the 18th Vermont regiment, of which mention has been made in these columns. The 26th annual meeting of the Vermont Bar association will be held in this city on Tuesday, October 1. The first session is to be held in the grand jury room of the Washington county court house at 3 p. m. The annual banquet will occur in the evening. The judges of the superior courts having September terms still in session have kindly arranged to take a short recess of the respective courts, if possible, that attorneys may attend Supreme court opening and this meeting. A meeting of the Washington County Bar association was held in the court house yesterday noon to take action on the accidental death of J. W. Gregory of Watfield. S. C. Moody of Waterbury and Benjamin Gates of Montpelier were appointed a committee to have general charge of the arrangements for the funeral this afternoon. L. C. Moody was empowered to procure a floral offering from the association, and George W. Wing, E. L. Laird and E. P. Carleton were appointed to draft resolutions to be presented at a later meeting of the association and a delegation from the bar will drive this morning to Watfield to attend the funeral, which will be held at two o'clock this afternoon at the late home of Mr. Gregory. Miss Sara Dwyer and James Henry Kelliher were quietly married in Burlington yesterday morning, and the wedding came as a complete surprise to most of their many friends in town. The ceremony was at nine o'clock yesterday morning at St. Anthony's church, Rev. W. A. Plamondon officiating. After the ceremony a nuptial mass was pronounced and the wedding party went to the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Patrick J. Donovan, at "The Nestle," near Queen City park. They left yesterday for Atlantic City, where they will spend their honeymoon and upon their return they will reside at 11 Liberty street in this city. Both are very popular and have hosts of friends in town. Mr. Kelliher is a graduate of the Montpelier high school, is a member of the school board, and for several years has been assistant cashier at the First National bank. Miss Dwyer has been staying at the Riverside and for some time has been employed in the office of Harlan Kemp in the Union Mutual as a stenographer.

FRUITS

Reach out and pluck your favorite. Examine it critically and let us know what you think of it. Criticism is a big bear to us when we're selling the High-Grade Fruit that's always obtainable at this market. Because our Fruit is always fresh and ripe doesn't imply high prices, by no means. Our prices are always reasonable. Moral: Buy Fruit here. Fresh Fruit Cakes.

WHY NOT TRADE WITH US?

We have the best lines of Western Beef, Native Pig Pork, Lambs, Veal, Chickens, etc. that money can buy. Besides, we carry a full stock of fresh, up-to-date Groceries, Teas, Coffees, Tobaccos, Fruit, Vegetables, Butter, Cheese and Eggs. We have a large supply of Fancy Cookies; also the City Bakery Bread, Cakes and Doughnuts. We guarantee prices and cater for cash trade. Besides, we give Red Stamps. These Stamps represent a discount of from five to eight per cent. Telephone orders promptly attended to. Again, ours is the only store this side of the postoffice where one can get everything they need for a good, square meal. It is also nearer to trade with us for the whole south end of the city, including Hill, Perry, French, Richardson, Orange, Patterson and Washington streets, than at any other place. We like to have parents feel they can send their children here and get just what they want, and right change back. We are at your service.
