SEVEN ESCAPE FROM JAIL.

Their Leader Shot in the Leg and Five Men Recaptured.

Binghamton, N. Y., Sept. 19.—After leading six other men in escaping from the Broomie county jail last evening, Charles Carter, said to be one of the worst criminals in the country, was shot in the leg at Apalachin late last night, and recaptured. Four of the other six men were recaptured, leaving two still at large.

Carter is supposed to have sawed the bars of one of the cells, letting out with him six other prisoners. They then tried the bars of a window apart with a piece of pipe which they sawed from the jail plumbing, and all of them jumped to the ground through the hole thus made.

The men who escaped were all being held for the grand jury or under indictment. Their names and the charges on which they are held are:

Charles Carter, under indictment for burglary and grand larceny. Carter in June escaped from a Detroit, Mich., sheriff, who was taking him to the penitentiary at Jackson, after he had been convicted of house stealing; Peter Burke, petit larceny; Charles Massett, larceny; Harry Ferguson, James Burke and Chas. Simmons, burglary; and Irving Case, grand larceny.

The two Burke boys are still at large. Case gave himself up early in the evening and returned to jail. Simmons and Ferguson were captured at nine o'clock, two hours after the escape, in the eastern part of the city.

Shortly after midnight, a Tioga county deputy saw Carter and Massett on a freight train at Apalachin 15 miles west of this city.

They attempted to escape and the deputy shot Carter through the leg and captured both men.

All of the bodies have now left Concord, and the closing of the frightful catastrophe is at hand.

FRED LACROIX PAID HEAVILY TO SEE FAIR

Was Relieved of Wad of $150 Which He Carried in His Pocket to Northfield Yesterday. Fred LaCroix, tax collector and assessor of the town of Berlin, went to the fair at Northfield yesterday. Today he wishes he hadn't. Fred carried a wallet in his right hand trousers pocket and in it was $150 in the long green. This he carried to the fair, but he did not bring it home. Someone relieved him of it while at the fair, though he may possibly have lost it. Today he is trying to find it, though an advertisement in the Montpelier papers. Mr. LaCroix mingled freely with the crowd at the fair, but he says he hasn't the slightest remembrance of being "touched."

FIRE AT FAIR WAS EXTRA.

Money's Worth for 12,000 at St. Johnsbury Without It. St. Johnsbury, Sept. 19.—The weather clerk smiled on the second day of the Caledonia county fair, and over 12,000 people were on the grounds, the largest crowd for many years. An event not on the programme was a fire at noon in Floral Hall, which started from a gasolene stove. The flames were quickly extinguished, though for a few moments it looked serious. All the races were scheduled for the afternoon, but the 2:27 trot and pace was unfinished. The summaries:

Table with race results: 2:40 Stake Race, Purse $500. Deba, b. m., Pierce 1:11; Roxie Benton, b. m., Smith 4:32; Joe Dillon, ch. s., Tyler 4:23; Bloufvelt, b. h., Churchill 3:24. Time, 2:27 1/2, 2:26 1/2, 2:26 1/2.

VALLEY FAIR PROSPECTS FINE.

Brattleboro, Sept. 19.—The prospects for the Valley fair, September 24, 25 and 26 are exceedingly bright and indications point to the biggest show ever held. "Every department is well filled," said Secretary Benson yesterday. "The cattle exhibit now numbers over 350 and we are perplexed to know what to do with them," he continued. Probably a large tent will be erected near the cattle sheds to accommodate the increased number entered. Over $12,000 will be given in prizes this year, and it is confidently expected that the 30,000 mark in attendance will be reached.

ATTEMPT AT SUICIDE

Mrs. George Belville of So. Barre Hangs Herself

BUT IS CUT DOWN IN TIME

To Save Her Life—Alleged Cause Is That Young Man Failed to Take Her to the Northfield Fair Yesterday.

Mrs. George Belville, a young woman of about 23 years of age, attempted to commit suicide by hanging at the home of Grant Sargent, about a mile above South Barre, yesterday morning. She was discovered and cut down by Charles Cheney a neighbor. Dr. Chandler was called and he was obliged to work some time before there were any signs of returning consciousness. The case was then turned over to Dr. Bailey, the town health officer. Last evening she remained full consciousness and talked some, but would not discuss her rash act or give any reason for it.

Various reasons are assigned for the attempt. Mrs. Belville made on her own life. Some time ago she left her husband, George Belville, and went to live with the Sargents. A few weeks ago Belville drove up to the Sargent house one evening and after some ruse by which Mrs. Belville was gotten out of the way for a few minutes, Belville ran into the house, snatched up their few months old baby, ran out, jumped into a team waiting for him, and drove off. Brooding over the loss of her child is ascribed as one reason for the woman's act.
