It will pay Barre people to hear Miss Jean Wilson at the opera house this (Friday) evening, as will be noted by the following from a Pennsylvania contemporary: "Those who failed to hear Miss Jean Wilson Thursday night at the Bedford Springs hotel, missed a genuine feast of entertainment. Her repertoire is quite extensive, but the humorous seemed to fit the audience best, and from this she took her cue, not using any pre-arranged programme. After an exhibition of her wonderful talent as a reader, no one can doubt the genuineness of her testimonials, nor that she is an artist in her profession. She gives 'My Lady Peggy Goes to Town' on Saturday night, and those who failed to hear her Thursday should not miss this second chance. Miss Wilson has the sole right of 'My Lady Peggy' from the author. It is a winsome story and a frolic from beginning to end."

FUR-LINED OVERCOATS!

There was a time, and not so long ago either, that a Fur Lined Overcoat was a good deal like an auto or a yacht. They could not conveniently be purchased by a man of moderate means. The situation has changed, we now have handsome and luxurious Fur Lined Overcoats for such reasonable prices as $30.00, $45.00, $50.00 to $150.00. The fabrics are fine broadcloth and very choice light weight kerseys. The linings are a variety of furs, according to price. The collars are Persian lamb, seal, otter, mink, etc. Fur Lined Coats will be in great favor again this year, and now is the best time to make selections. Fur Coats to Rent.
