INCREASE OF CANCER.

State Health Commissioner Calls Disease Menacing.

Albany, Nov. 6.—Eugene H. Porter, state commissioner of health says in his monthly report just issued: "The cancer problem is assuming more and more menacing proportions, there being reported 373 deaths from this disease in September, 1907, as against 326 in the same month last year, and an average for five years of 456. Thus, while deaths from tuberculosis are being practically stationary, we are holding nothing but hold cancer in check as a cause of mortality."

One Aim in Pressing Financial Legislation

CONSERVATIVES NOW SHY

About Hitting Corporations—Long Debate Is Expected Over Currency—President However Being Urged to Stand for Principles.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 6.—Already President Roosevelt has been strongly urged not to let up in his fight for additional legislation placing in the hands of the federal government adequate control of corporations and railroads. Recently he has been advised to couple this demand in his next message to Congress with an equally insistent request for currency legislation.

Now that the proposition to call Congress in extra session has been turned down, it is generally believed that there will be protracted consideration in both houses of what should be done to make our currency system elastic. Financial conditions may be in such a state when Congress convenes that the urgency of the situation will require the rushing through of a currency bill.

Prolonged hearing in committee and even long-drawn debates in both houses is a more likely accompaniment of any currency reform legislation at the coming session. Under such conditions it might not be very difficult for the leaders opposed to the president's program for federal control legislation to keep the currency discussion so well to the front that time will be left for little else save the rushing through of the regular supply bills.

PREDICTS A NEW RACE.

Chicago, Nov. 6.—A new race of men, with Chicago as its place of origin, is to be the next stage in the development of humanity, according to a statement made yesterday before an audience of club women by Dr. Alfred E. Cole, medical director of the G. A. R. in Illinois. "The human race," said Dr. Cole, "is now functioning in the fifth subrace of the root races. Sex came in with the second. And it is pretty well established—as well as anything can be established—that Chicago will be the nucleus of the sixth subrace, the marrying and intermarrying of all the races of the world going on here is going on to form a subrace that will be better than ours in every way."

Danville, Ill., Nov. 6.—Six thousand miners at Kellyville, Steaton and Westville have quit work because of the announcement that wages would be paid in checks instead of cash until the money stringency is over. Last Thursday night the miners were notified. On Friday only a portion of the men were at work, and Saturday none showed up, and in mass meeting the men decided not to work until paid in cash.

Mr. Sims announced Monday night that there would be no further arrests.

GOT $800,000 ON SECURITIES OF NO VALUE

Another Financial Deal of Mrs. Chadwick Revealed in Pittsburgh Court When Her Deposition Was Read.

Pittsburgh, Pa., Nov. 9.—That Mrs. Cassie Chadwick, the late "queen of finance," secured $800,000 in loans from James W. Friend of this city and F. N. Hoffstott of New York, on worthless securities, was brought out in the Supreme court yesterday. Other interesting disclosures of financial deals of Mrs. Chadwick, which started the world and caused her imprisonment and recent death in the Ohio penitentiary, were revealed.

The Chadwick secrets came out in an appeal brought by the widow of W. C. Jutte, a wealthy coal operator, who committed suicide in Atlantic City two years ago, to recover the estate which had been absorbed by claims for loans made by Friend and Hoffstott. Permission had been given Mrs. Jutte publicly to submit the deposition made by Mrs. Cassie Chadwick, in which Mrs. Chadwick swears that Friend had admitted to her that Jutte was insane.

This deposition, which was made on May 10, 1906, will bear an important part in the coming contest for the recovery of the big fortune. The widow maintains that her husband was insane at the time of the transactions but the lower court said there was no proof of insanity and sustained the claim of the plaintiff.

Ever since the deposition was obtained from Mrs. Chadwick while a prisoner in the Ohio state penitentiary in Columbus it has been the subject matter of bitter controversy, and many sensational reports of its contents have been circulated.

The document, which abounds in startling details of Mrs. Chadwick's dealings with wealthy Pittsburgh men, brings in the names of F. B. Chandler, a Pittsburgh attorney, who, she said, had acted for Hoffstott and Friend repeatedly. Quite a lot of her business had been transacted by him for Friend and Hoffstott, and she had had personal meetings with Hoffstott and Friend in Pittsburgh, New York and Cleveland, during the period of her borrowings. She had been asked several times to take the Jutte bonds and dispose of them, Friend telling her "the poor old man (Jutte) was crazy and not able to take care of his own affairs."

The strange document throws much light on business connections of the late "queen of finance" with Pittsburgh men, although she refrained from bringing into the instrument the names of certain men who at times represented Friend and Hoffstott. The document shows that Mrs. Chadwick obtained from Hoffstott and Friend almost $800,000 in loans, for which she put up $5,000,000 of securities, afterward found to be worthless.

Other Witnesses Also of That Opinion—Worked Day After He Fell.

Joseph Page, father of the murdered woman, took the stand. He said that he had been very intimate with Fairbanks, and had worked with him constantly. It was his opinion that the defendant was of sound mind. He said that one day Fairbanks fell from a team, which the defence claims injured his head, witness heard of the accident and at once went to see Fairbanks, whom he found doing his chores at the barn and apparently not badly hurt. The next day, he testified, Fairbanks was working about his place as usual.

PRISONER'S MAIL INVOLVATE?

A Question for the Federal Court to Decide.

Chicago, Nov. 6.—Fred F. Carter, sheriff of Lake county, Indiana, was arrested Monday by United States Marshal David C. Rankin of Indianapolis, charged with having opened the mail of Alexander Poleski, a former prisoner. The case is unusual in the history of criminal jurisprudence. If the government established its contention, it is declared, sheriffs, wardens and other officials in penitentiaries, jails, etc., throughout the country are in danger of a like experience.

SICILIAN REVOLT FEARED OVER NASI TRIAL

Former Cabinet Minister of Italy Answers Charge of Great Frauds in the Senate Yesterday at Rome.

Rome, Nov. 6.—The trial of Sig. Nazio Nasi, former minister of public instruction, who is charged with the falsification of documents and defrauding the state treasury out of several million lire, began yesterday before the Senate, constituted as a high court of justice. Michael Lombardo, who was under-secretary of finance, was placed on trial with Nasi, charged with implication in the frauds.

The charges against Nasi and Lombardo have caused considerable excitement throughout Italy, this being the first case of impeachment of an Italian minister and also because the two defendants, who were born in Sicily, maintain their innocence and say they are being subjected to political persecution. Serious disorders on the part of Sicilians are threatened if Nasi and Lombardo are convicted.

The feeling for and against the accused was very great from the time their prosecution was determined upon, and the authorities allowed them to be imprisoned in their own homes, instead of sending them to jail. This, however, did not prevent serious rioting in Sicily in the prisoners' favor.

R. R. RATE LAW TEST.

Minnesota Denies Jurisdiction of Federal Court.

St. Paul, Nov. 6.—Attorney General Young yesterday filed his answer in the suits brought in the United States circuit court to test the validity of the merchandise rates established by the railroad and warehouse commission and the 2-cent passenger rate and the commodity laws passed by the legislature last winter. The question of the jurisdiction of the court in these cases is involved in the habeas corpus proceedings now pending in the United States supreme court.

TAFT WON'T VISIT EUROPE

He is Coming Back Across Pacific

THE REASON REPORTED

The Secretary Will Return by Way of Japan—He Will Leave Manila on November 9, as Scheduled.

Manila, Nov. 6.—Secretary of War Taft, it is reported, will abandon his European tour and return directly to the Pacific coast. He will leave Manila on Nov. 9 on the American flag ship Rainbow for Yokohama, where he will take passage by steamer for San Francisco. This report has been verified, though owing to the absence of Mr. Taft, who is out of town visiting the new water works, he cannot be interviewed upon the political situation and the conditions prevailing at Vladivostok, which it is reported are the cause of his return to America.

Washington, Nov. 6.—Secretary Taft has made no arrangements for engaging passage across the Atlantic. About two weeks ago, when he was considering the matter of postponing his departure from Manila from Nov. 4 to Nov. 9, he cabled the war department asking for information regarding the time he could catch a steamer from Cherbourg in the event that he delayed his departure from the Philippines for a few days. The information was called to him that he could catch the Majestic from Cherbourg on Dec. 11. Since that time the department has heard nothing from him, and every day his chances of getting accommodations on the Majestic are diminishing. This fact has added to the belief that he has decided to come home across the Pacific.

PARIS FAVORS RESTORATION OF CAPITAL PUNISHMENT.

Atrocious Murders Responsible for Popular Upheaval.

Paris, Nov. 6.—The increase of crime in France has aroused a popular demand for the restoration of the death penalty, which has been practically abolished by the systematic commutation of the sentences of criminals. The government desires to abolish capital punishment formally and has been commuting death sentences to imprisonment at hard labor for life.

RUSSIAN RAILROAD CHAOS.

Reported to Be in Hands of the Revolutionists.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 6.—It was announced here yesterday that the tour of inspection just concluded by the minister of ways and communications through southern Russia, the Caucasus, Turkistan and Central Asia, has revealed complete chaos in the railroad system. The statement is made that the railroads are practically in the hands of the revolutionists, and that plans for armed uprisings are spreading everywhere. The minister himself narrowly escaped having a bomb hurled at him at Ashkabad.

INHERITANCE TAX STANDS.

The New Hampshire Law Is Declared Constitutional.

Concord, N. H., Nov. 6.—The Supreme court yesterday reaffirmed its previous declarations in favor of the constitutionality of the inheritance tax law, and included within its scope deposits of New Hampshire decedents in out-of-the-state banks. The opinion overrules a contrary decision of the probate judge of Hillsborough county, which the state treasurer had taken to the Supreme court on appeal.

YANKEE DELEGATES TO HAGUE RETURN

Violinist Kubelik, George T. Gould and Family Among the Home Comers.

New York, Nov. 6.—Among the passengers on the Kronprinzessin Ceclie, arrived yesterday from Bremen, were the American delegates to the Hague conference and Chanr Hale, son of Senator Hale of Maine, who was secretary to the delegation.

Other passengers were Rear Admiral Charles S. Sperry, George J. Gould and family, John W. Gates and his son, Charles G. Gates, who also have been touring in Europe for several months, and Jan Kubelik, the violinist.

Both General Porter and Mr. Choate expressed themselves as being entirely satisfied with the results of the second conference. Because two of the principal propositions before the conference—obligatory arbitration and limitation of armaments—failed to take positive form, Mr. Choate said the idea prevailed in some quarters that little had been accomplished. This view, he declared, would be dispelled when the results of the conference were studied and their far-reaching effect fully realized.

COTTON MEN GETTING IN CLOSER TOUCH.

President Roosevelt's Letter to Head of International Federation.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 6.—President Roosevelt in letter to G. W. Macara of Manchester, England, president of the International Federation of Cotton Spinners and Manufacturers' associations, under whose auspices the European Cotton Spinners and Manufacturers came to this country last month, expressed deep interest in the matter and added: "If our cotton planters can learn more definitely and at first hand the exact needs of the manufacturer, in the matter of the preparation and shipment of raw cotton, and can aim to conform thereto, the result will be quite as much to their benefit as to yours."

DANGER OF TARIFF WAR

Treaty With France Not Yet Completed

RECENT EVENTS AT PARIS

Indicate No Agreement—Time Extended on Porto Rican Coffee—When This Expires the United States May Retaliate.

Paris, Nov. 6.—Present indications point to an early tariff war between France and the United States. The negotiations opened last summer for an arrangement on a basis giving France the benefit of a twenty per cent. reduction on wines, in return for preferential rates on a list of about one hundred articles, have thus far been barren of results, and the action of the French government on Saturday in virtually promising not to conclude any further commercial arrangements until Parliament has passed on the proposed revision of the tariff of 1892 seems to preclude any chance of agreement. It is true that last week, before the government made its promise, a reluctant assent was given to an extension of the decree granting the minimum rates to Porto Rican coffee until Dec. 1. While the extension nominally keeps the issue open for another month, it is practically certain that nothing will be accomplished unless the United States radically changes its attitude. France having regarded the concessions asked as utterly disproportionate to what was offered. If the Porto Rican coffee decree is withdrawn on Dec. 1, as now seems likely, the United States is expected to retaliate.

Washington, Nov. 6.—With the exception of the notification by the French government of the extension of the decree extending to Dec. 1 the minimum rates to Porto Rican coffee, no recent representations have been made by France to this government bearing upon the negotiations opened last summer for a commercial agreement between the two countries whereby tariff concessions were to be made on both sides. The negotiations begun at that time were suspended during the warm season, during which Ambassador Jusserand visited his home in France and consulted the officials there. Now that he has returned and Secretary Root, who with Assistant Secretary Bacon has been conducting the negotiations on behalf of the state department, is home from Mexico, it is expected that the matter will again be brought up for consideration.

BRITISH CAPTAIN PROBABLY SIGHTED THE MISSING SHIP.

Phelps, Not the Arthur M. Sewall.

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 6.—A dispatch to the Post-Intelligencer from Tacoma says: "Capt. Balfour, master of the British steamship Cambemere, who was quoted as reporting the missing ship Arthur M. Sewall off Cape Flattery, denies the interview. Capt. Balfour states he sighted a four-masted American ship about 7 o'clock Sunday morning, seven miles west of Edes Point. The ship was seen but a few minutes. She was low in the water and rigged like the Sewall. The ship sighted was undoubtedly the Erskine M. Phelps, sister ship to the missing Sewall, which arrived at Seattle Monday."
