IN BOSTON MARKETS.

The Butter Market Reported to Be in Bad Shape. Boston, Nov. 6.—The local butter market is in pretty bad shape. Receipts are not heavy, and, under normal conditions, the offerings would be light, but the demand is so small that it is impossible to keep the market cleaned up, even when concessions are offered. A full cent was shied off from Saturday's quotations Monday without helping the demand to any appreciable extent. Apparently the stringency in money has something to do with present conditions. The receipts are smaller than they were at this time last year, and the stocks of butter in local coolers are lighter than they were a year ago. Those conditions should promote firmness, but it is reported that small dealers have some difficulty in borrowing money and for that reason are curtailing their purchases.

A somewhat easier tendency has developed in cheese. The arrivals are light, but the demand is very small and it is not easy to get recent quotations, but no improvement is noted in ordinary stock. Quotations follow: Butter—Creamery, extras, Vermont and New Hampshire 26c, northern New York 25 1/2 @ 26c, western 25 @ 26c, firsts, northern 24c, western 24c, eastern creamery best marks 23c, fair to good 23 @ 24c, storage creamery extras 23 @ 25c, firsts 23 @ 24c; dairy, fancy 24c, common to good 21 @ 23c; western imitation creamery 20 @ 22c; western ladies, 19 @ 21c; baking stock 19 @ 20c; renovated butter 21 @ 23c; boxes and prints 21 @ 27c.

Meat—New York twins, fancy 15 1/2 @ 15 3/4c, fair to good 13 1/2 @ 14 1/2c, Vermont twins, fancy 15 @ 15 1/2c, fair to good 13 1/2 @ 14 1/2c. Eggs—Fancy henney 38 @ 40c, eastern extras 36 @ 38c, common to good 20 @ 24c. York state 26 @ 30c, western, fancy 26 @ 28c, choice 22 @ 25c, common to good 15 @ 18c, dirties 12 @ 15c, refrigerators 15 @ 18 1/2c.

Note.—The above quotations represent the prices obtained by receivers for wholesale lots, and are not jobbing prices.

APPLE CROP A FAILURE.

Total Estimated at Under 24,000,000 Barrels. Boston, Nov. 6.—The apple crop of the United States for 1907, as estimated by the New England Homestead in its report appearing Nov. 9, is scant 24,000,000 barrels, this total is materially short of last year, or a failure even more marked compared with 1903 and 1906. What is of greatest importance is the shortage in such commercial orchard sections as western New York, nearly all of Michigan and the entire southwest. In a general way, the shortage is more pronounced there than anywhere else, with what may be set down as an absolute failure in Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska, this description nearly holding good in a few other states. New York state has a good many apples in the aggregate, and of excellent quality, but they will all be needed, and for that matter the total is only about a fourth to a third of a full yield. Pennsylvania has fairly abundant totals, but that state never cuts much figure in the commercial supply of winter apples. New England has rather more apples than last year, due solely to the fact that Maine surprised its best friends by finally bringing to maturity a good crop.

MARRIED SIXTY YEARS.

EUROPE AFRAID OF US.

But George Jay Gould Says There's No Reason for Fear. New York, Nov. 6.—George Jay Gould, returning yesterday on the steamer Kron Prinzessin Cecilia from a six-months' automobile tour of Europe, discussed freely the European view of the recent financial crisis in this country.

"Our credits are in a bad way abroad," said Mr. Gould. "The people of Europe still nervous and afraid of our securities. But their view is all wrong. Our country is all right, our resources never were stronger, our railroads never were busier. Industry everywhere is humming. We have simply got to get together and put our shoulders to the wheel to restore confidence."

"In this connection I want to say something of Mr. Morgan. He is a trump and he has saved us from a great disaster."

Industrial conditions in America being in such good shape, Mr. Gould was asked his opinion as to the cause of the uneasiness in Europe. "I believe without hesitation," he said, "that the terrible sentence imposed upon the Standard Oil company is the largest factor. To the people of Europe, the fine looks like practical confiscation, the wiping out of hundreds of stockholders, possibly, in their view, and then I believe the agitation which in this country means a similar fate for all our big corporations, has something to do with European feeling."

"Generally debilitated for years. Had sick headaches, laced animation, was worn out and all run down. Burdock Blood Bitters made me a well woman."—Mrs. Chas. Freitoy, Mossup, Conn.

The Best Country Food. Any article of food offered in markets of today must show good results or it cannot long hold its trade. This is especially true of Poultry Foods, for with the recent rapid development of the poultry industry there have arisen many so called foods which have been proven nearly worthless. "Page's Perfected Poultry Food" has stood the test of time. Rev. J. L. Dodge of Springfield, Mass., expresses the very general sentiment in regard to this food in the following letter: "I know that 'Page's Perfected Poultry Food' is ahead of anything ever put on the market."

Any one sending his address on a postal card to C. S. Page, Hyde Park, Vt., and mentioning this paper, will receive by mail, free, postpaid, a sample package of "Page's Perfected Poultry Food."

A CARD.
