you will have if you buy your shoes of us. Our shoes for men, women and children are models of little price perfection. The perfection of footwear is shown in the nice attention to detail—the excellence of style and finish and the extreme comfort to be enjoyed in the wearing of them. It has taken much time and thought to bring these shoes up to a standard not even approached by any other footwear at anything like the price. With style, fit, finish and comfort assured, nobody should be without a pair of these shoes.
