

DEEDS, NOT WORDS

Barre People Have Absolute Proof of Deeds at Home.

It's not words, but deeds that prove merit. The deeds of Doan's Kidney Pills, for Barre kidney sufferers, have made their local reputation.

Norman B. York of 4 Prospect street, Barre, Vt., says: "Several years ago I gave a statement for publication telling what Doan's Kidney Pills had done for me, and I can now say that on account of the permanent cure they made in my case I can more highly recommend them than ever."

AMUSEMENT NOTES

The scenery and stage settings used in John W. Vogel's big city musical, which comes to the opera house tonight is said to be the most elaborate and expensive ever used for a similar purpose; the setting is called the Radium Palace, a fitting title, because of the appropriate costumes, and the numerous and powerful electric and electrical effects used thereon. This is the only setting of the kind in use by a musical organization as the cost of same prohibits the average manager from investing the amount of capital required.

Uncle Josh Perkins, the New England rural comedy drama comes to the opera house on Tuesday evening, Dec. 17. It unfolds a story filled with sweet naturalness and possesses enough real life to make of it a big success with all who go to see it. The company this season is said by our exchange to be stronger than ever and the play as laudable and as entertaining as anything produced in many a day. It is one of those creations that sends its audience home in a better frame of mind and on better terms with oneself, after having sat through the entertainment. The cast is said to be a finely blended one and the specialties introduced are declared to be especially high class. Novel settings for every scene depicted are carried completely by the company.

Peter Pan at the Opera House. Peter Pan, the latest and greatest play by J. M. Barrie, author of "The Little Minister" will be presented by Charles Frohman at the opera house at an early date. Charles Frohman first presented this fantastical creation in London five years ago, and in New York three years ago. In each case it has continuously held the boards since. Peter Pan has been played before a large number of American theatre goers than have witnessed any other half dozen plays that have been seen in the same time. Its hold upon the theatre going public seems perennial. It appeals to no particular kind of theatre goer, but possesses an equal charm for persons of all ages and of all classes. In Peter Pan the jaded and blasé find a surprising source of novelty. It translates the mature and the old back to the golden days of childhood and youth, the days that had almost seemed as if they had never been. For the young it is like a view of some land of enchantment of which one has dreamed but which one had almost feared to hope could be realized. A gentle fancy, an optimistic philosophy and a rich fancy have all combined to produce this most remarkable play of the century.

Charles Frohman has taken a personal and sympathetic interest in the idea which Barrie has sought to convey by Peter Pan and has staged the play in a manner which is at once faithful to that idea and rich in detail. A splendid organization has been gathered by Mr. Frohman to interpret Peter Pan for local play goers and in every way its presentation here will be worthy of Mr. Barrie's whimsical romance, and Mr. Frohman's reputation as a manager.

A Real Wonderland. South Dakota, with its rich silver mines, bonanza farms, wide ranges and strange natural formations, is a veritable wonderland. At Mound City, in the home of Mrs. E. D. Clapp, a wonderful case of healing has lately occurred. Her son seemed near death with lung and throat trouble. "Exhausting coughing spells occurred every five minutes," writes Mrs. Clapp, "when I began giving Dr. King's New Discovery, the great medicine that saved his life and completely cured him." Guaranteed for coughs and colds, throat and lung troubles, by the Red Cross pharmacy. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.
