Put the Right Spirit Into Your Work and Keep Your Ideals High.

Put the right spirit into your work. Treat your calling as a divine, as a call from principle. If the thing itself is not important, the spirit in which you take hold of it makes all the difference in the world to you.

Words are held in Martin versus Houck (N. C.), 7 L. R. A. (N. S.), 576, to be sufficient to constitute an imprisonment if they impose a restraint on a person and if he is actually restrained.

Words are held in Martin versus Houck (N. C.), 7 L. R. A. (N. S.), 576, to be sufficient if it proves to be so to sustain an action for deceit.

It is a fact that one cannot tell how bad he really feels without feeling worse. The way to feel good is to not talk too much about your ills.

ONLY ONE

The Record in Barre is a Unique One.

If the reader has a "bad back" or any kidney ail and is looking for relief and cure, better depend on the only remedy endorsed by people you know.

C. A. Churchill, contractor and builder, of 35 Merchant street, Barre, Vt., says: "I recommend Doan's Kidney Pills, which I got from E. A. Drown, druggist, through our Barre newspapers in a statement given eight years ago."

For sale by all dealers. Price, 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's and take no other.

SHORT MEN IN BASEBALL.

In Early Days of the Game, They Fought Shortstop.

In the first days of the big league all the shortstops were little men. Managers seemed to think a shortstop had to be small, and they surely had them, says an exchange.

All of those little fellows were so fat they looked as broad as they were long. Pierce of the St. Louis team was the same cut—small and fat.

About the time these little fellows dropped out the game got faster all the time and they quit thinking a small man was the only one to play shortstop.

Japan and Russia have agreed to protect China. Poor China!—Marion Mirror.

The north pole is safe for another year. So are all the ambitious pole hunters.—New York Tribune.

A good many of us are hoping that all this agitation against swollen fortunes will be ended by the time we have one.—Washington Post.

Now that most of the white pines of Maine are gone an effort will be made to save them. To save most of them would require us to unshingle our houses and reconstruct the trees as geologists reconstruct dinosaurs and mosasaurs and plesiosaurs from sample bones.—Brooklyn Eagle.

The German emperor is a good book-binder. The queen of Holland is a first rate amateur actress and if not born to the purple would have made a fortune on the stage.

There is said to be danger that the German empress may be permanently lamed by her recent accident on a tennis court. She is in her fifth year.

The Prince of Wales' pet diversions, next to shooting, are smoking and stamp collecting. Another queer hobby is collecting babies' photographs.

Make use of time while it is present with you. It depends upon your will and not upon the number of days to have a sufficient length of life.—Montaigne.
