Our Second January Mark-Down Sale of Furniture!

Beginning tomorrow morning you'll find a very large proportion of our stock of Furniture bearing Red Tags.

And do you know what this means to you? That during the progress of this sale every piece of Furniture in our immense stock bearing a Red Tag has been reduced in price—in most cases providing a saving of a third of the regular price.

The little Red Tag tells the story of each individual piece—tells the price regularly asked and the price you are asked to pay on this occasion.

In every case it means a big worthwhile amount of money saved by the purchaser. If you have the least thought of buying Furniture—now is the time to invest your money, as these prices indicate.

A year ago many took advantage of this sale, this year we expect more to do so, because more know about it and have all through the year heard the many advantageous purchases made at that time.

If your eyes smart or feel bad when you attempt to read in the evening, it means that they need attention. You can get the right kind of treatment at L. B. Austin's, the "watch and clock man."

The McAuliffe stock company comes highly recommended by the press throughout the country. It will appear at the opera house all of next week in an entirely new line of comedies and dramas, opening Monday evening in the great comedy drama, "Dens and Palaces."

In the current number of the Vermont Issue, the Anti-Saloon League paper, a correspondent says that he got it from a priest that "does men there (Barre) meet and compared notes and found that they took in over $1,000 a day." Then, basing his estimate on this assertion, the correspondent goes on to say that that indicates a business of $300,000 in Barre in a single year. This looks like a little extravagance in figuring.
