

OWING TO THE WEATHER

The Women's Coats at $1.98

The few that were not sold on Saturday and also the Misses' and Children's Coats will go in while they last at $1.98. Values in Women's Coats up to $12.50; values in Misses' Coats up to $5.98 and values in Children's Coats up to $5.00. All $1.98 Each.

Two Fur Specials

One lot of Fur Scarfs, including values up to $18.00, for $10.00. One lot of Fur Scarfs, including values up to $7.98, for $3.98.

$3.50 Harvard Jackets for $1.98

This includes the balance of our Harvard Jackets in red, white, black and navy, which sold for $3.98, now $1.98.

Sheet and Pillow Slip Sale

Many are availing themselves of the opportunity of getting a good supply of Sheets and Pillow Slips now when they are selling for less than the price of the cotton to make them off.

THE HOMER FITTS COMPANY

FOR THIS WEEK, LADIES!

We are going to sell our E. C. Burt $4.00 Shoes at $3.00, and the $3.50 Shoes at $2.75. If you are in need of Footwear it would be a good time to buy a high grade Shoe at a small price.

BARRE SHOE COMPANY

An advertisement in the Times will bring sure results.

STEEL RANGES!

Our Price $50.

The famous "Round Oak" made of the very best material. We show you here the largest size fitted to burn either wood or coal. Our regular price of this Range is $50.00. Why pay more? We have these Ranges in stock and invite you to look them over.

We have Quaker Ranges running from $25 to $50.

C. W. AVERILL & COMPANY,

Telephone 439-3.

Barre, Vermont.

THE BARRE DAILY TIMES

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 4, 1908.

Weather Prediction.

Fair and somewhat warmer to-night. Wednesday, fair in east, followed by rain in west portion; light, variable winds, becoming easterly.

TALK OF THE TOWN.

Local Happenings Tensely Told for Busy Readers.

A good hour in the Theatorium. Just received at Abbott's, ladies' new spring suits.

Hose for boys, girls and women, 12 1/2c, at Vaughan's.

Auction sale at the City auction rooms Saturday night.

Jerry Koeke went to Northfield this morning on business.

Buy a "maish down puff" at Perry's store and keep warm.

William Sears returned yesterday from a visit with relatives in St. Albans.

H. W. Jondro and Frank Sharkey went to Woodsville, N. H., to-day on business.

Officer George C. Richardson went to Burlington this morning on a business visit.

Moses Charbonneau's shop will be closed until after his people recover from their illness.

Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Hooker returned last night from a ten days' business trip to Boston and New York.

Mrs. Irving Whitehead and Mrs. William Wales went to Middlesex this morning on a visit with friends.

George Quigley returned last night from Bangor, Me., where he was called by the illness of his mother.

There will be a meeting of the Ex-bachelors' club on Monday evening, February 10, at 7 o'clock, at Anderson & Sons' office. Business important.

Miss Lillian Gordon, who has been studying under Madam Emma Howe Fabri, in Boston, is now ready to take pupils in vocal and instrumental music. Terms reasonable.

To Rent—Ready February 1st, an eight-room cottage house with all modern improvements, $20 per month rental. Apply at 50 South Main street, or 303 North Main street.

There will be a meeting of the Ladies' union of the Universalist church at the parsonage, Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, to see what the ladies will do in regard to celebrating the 50th anniversary of the union. A large attendance is desired.

A man giving his name as Alexander Johnson pleaded guilty, to a first offense of intoxication in the city court last evening and paid a fine of $5, with costs of $5.95. He was arrested at 10 o'clock yesterday morning on the sidewalk in front of the Methodist church. Two companions had led him along that far when he played out completely and laid down on the walk. The officers say that they are positive that he did not give the court his right name.

Regular meeting of Vincennes lodge, Knights of Pythias, will be held in Castle hall to-night at 7:30 o'clock. Work, rank of page.

A special convocation of Granite chapter, R. A. M., Tuesday evening at 6:30 o'clock. Work, rank of Knight. Refreshments. Per order of E. H. P.

William S. Alexander and William Marr of this city and D. F. Ryle of Montpelier went yesterday to Boston to attend the annual meeting of the national association of granite manufacturers, which was held there to-day. Mr. Alexander is secretary of the association.

The floral tributes at the funeral of Francis Thompson Sunday were many and beautiful, the following being a partial list: pillow, wife and family; wreath, Clan Gordon, no. 12, O. S. C.; wreath, Operative lodge, no. 105, of F. Masons; pillow, Odd Fellows, M. U.; pillow, "At rest," from the boarders; carnations, Mr. and Mrs. John Galloway, Mrs. Hutchins, Mrs. Peter Grant, Mrs. C. Stuart, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Morrison, Herbert La Peer; pink and white carnations, Ladies of Clan Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence, Mr. and Mrs. Ewen McKenzie, Mr. and Mrs. Bird and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Reed, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Lawson, Mr. and Mrs. William Hayes; carnations and roses, from Mr. and Mrs. Harry Segel, Mr. and Mrs. R. Webster and family, and roses from Mr. and Mrs. Youngson.

Mr. Gay has finished work in the hotel and is working in Edson's livery stable.

William McNary spent Sunday and Monday with friends in St. Albans, returning last night.

M. J. Drury has the largest and handsomest line of valentines ever shown in town, all prices from 1c to 75c. Just look them over.

Snow rollers were kept busy yesterday, as many of the hill roads were badly drifted. This has been much the worst storm of the season so far.

Remember, Albert Norris has nice dry wood which he delivers for $2.75 per cord, cash. This wood has been cut two years and kept well covered.

H. H. Martin has just lost one of his horses valued at $1,000. It was one of a pair which he had been offered $1,200 for within the past year.

TALK OF THE TOWN.

Special cut price on wool blankets at Abbott's.

E. N. Bean is ill at his home on Forsyth place.

See the 36-inch wash goods at 16c yard at Vaughan's.

Ronald Gaud is ill with rheumatism at his home on Circle street.

"The Dog" is shown in many interesting ways at the Theatorium.

Regular meeting M. W. of A., Wednesday, February 5, at 7 p. m.

Miss Louise DeLrune went to Newbury this noon for a few days.

Frank L. Hanscomb of Laconia, N. H., is visiting relatives in the city.

Mrs. H. M. Farr of Chester is visiting Mrs. J. C. DeLrune for a few days.

Mrs. Ella Kidder of Montpelier visited Miss Jeannette Williams yesterday.

Wilber Nichols went to Burlington yesterday for a few days' business visit.

Mrs. John S. Howell returned to-day from a visit with relatives in Randolph.

William A. Davison of Burlington was a business visitor in the city yesterday.

J. E. Hoban, manager of the opera house, is confined to the house by illness.

Miss Margaret Kew, who has been ill at her home in Waitsfield, returned to this city last evening.

Miss L. A. Calef returned to her home in Washington yesterday after a few days' visit at the home of F. N. Bralley.

Miss Carrie E. Annis returned to her home in Manchester, N. H., to-day after being in the city for several days on business.

"Beautiful Ireland," illustrated, at the Knights of Columbus hall, Thursday evening, February 6; 200 marvelous moving pictures.

O. D. Bacon and daughter, Miss Esther Bacon, who have been visiting friends in the city, returned to their home in Elmore last night.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Robins returned last night from White River Junction, where they visited over Sunday at the home of his sister, Mrs. W. S. Davis.

The costumes worn by the Ebony minstrels at the show last evening were designed and made by Boyce & Gaveaux. The end men were arrayed in red coats, while the circle wore black coats and white trousers.

The regular meeting of the Ladies of the Maccabees will be held in the K. of P. hall Wednesday evening, February 5, at seven o'clock. There will be initiation and the newly appointed guards are requested to be present.

The girls employed in the central telephone office gave Miss Lillian Vercoe a surprise party at her home on Park street last evening. The evening was enjoyed with vocal and instrumental music, and refreshments were served.

When the "Passion Play," which comes to the Theatorium next week, was on a four-year run in the Eden Musee, New York, a well known critic remarked that he went to find fault, but when he went away he resolved to be a better man.

A special meeting of the Philomathean club will be held at 7:15 Wednesday evening, February 5th, at the home of Mrs. E. W. Bisbee, 3 East street. A large attendance is requested, as members of the federation committees are to be elected.

James Donahue, who was operated upon for appendicitis at Heaton hospital, Montpelier, several weeks ago, was discharged from the hospital yesterday and is recuperating at the home of his sister, Mrs. Sheridan, of Foster street, Montpelier.

A regular meeting of Bright Star Rebekah lodge, no. 18, will be held Wednesday evening, Feb. 5, at 7:30.

The officers and members taking part in the degree work are earnestly requested to be present, as there will be practice. Per order Mrs. H. E. Powers, N. G.

William S. Alexander and William Marr of this city and D. F. Ryle of Montpelier went yesterday to Boston to attend the annual meeting of the national association of granite manufacturers, which was held there to-day. Mr. Alexander is secretary of the association.

The floral tributes at the funeral of Francis Thompson Sunday were many and beautiful, the following being a partial list: pillow, wife and family; wreath, Clan Gordon, no. 12, O. S. C.; wreath, Operative lodge, no. 105, of F. Masons; pillow, Odd Fellows, M. U.; pillow, "At rest," from the boarders; carnations, Mr. and Mrs. John Galloway, Mrs. Hutchins, Mrs. Peter Grant, Mrs. C. Stuart, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Morrison, Herbert La Peer; pink and white carnations, Ladies of Clan Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence, Mr. and Mrs. Ewen McKenzie, Mr. and Mrs. Bird and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Reed, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Lawson, Mr. and Mrs. William Hayes; carnations and roses, from Mr. and Mrs. Harry Segel, Mr. and Mrs. R. Webster and family, and roses from Mr. and Mrs. Youngson.

Mr. Gay has finished work in the hotel and is working in Edson's livery stable.

William McNary spent Sunday and Monday with friends in St. Albans, returning last night.

M. J. Drury has the largest and handsomest line of valentines ever shown in town, all prices from 1c to 75c. Just look them over.

Snow rollers were kept busy yesterday, as many of the hill roads were badly drifted. This has been much the worst storm of the season so far.

Remember, Albert Norris has nice dry wood which he delivers for $2.75 per cord, cash. This wood has been cut two years and kept well covered.

H. H. Martin has just lost one of his horses valued at $1,000. It was one of a pair which he had been offered $1,200 for within the past year.

TALK OF THE TOWN.

Charles Bergeron went to Hanover, N. H., to-day on a business visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Eastman went to Woodsville, N. H., to-day for a visit with relatives.

Only five of those sleds left at Hooker & Co.'s red tag sale; they were 65c, now 35c.

Base Ball Fair Programs.

The program committee of the base ball fair association has arranged the following programs for each night of the fair.

Tuesday, Feb. 4.

Advanced vaudeville; four big numbers by volunteer talent.

Wednesday, Feb. 5.

By courtesy of the ladies of the Universalist church, "The Champion of Her Sex."

Thursday, Feb. 6.

"Montpelier night." The Montpelier fair management has provided a first-class entertainment.

Friday, Feb. 7.

Scotch night; an "Auld Lang Syne" program of Scotch songs and dances by some of the best talent in the city, arranged by J. P. Marr.

Saturday, Feb. 8.

Grand distribution of over 50 valuable prizes and the Capital prize of $30 in gold to the holder of the lucky ticket.

Dancing every evening. Admission 10 cents; season tickets 50 cents. Can you beat it!

VALENTINES

We daresay we've got the best assortment of neat, catchy remembrances for Valentine's day of any place in town. The prices run from 1c up to 75c. But especially would we mention the 6c, 10c and 20c ones. They're far and away the best we ever saw for the money. See display in our window. Then there are the comic ones, funny enough to make a cigar store Indian want to laugh. You'll find them at

O. J. DODGE,

The Jeweler's
170 Main Street, - Barre, Vt.

BARRE OPERA HOUSE

WEDNESDAY, FEB. 5.

GO ABROAD WITH

LYMAN H. HOWE

To Quaint Holland and Many Other Lands

DYNAMITING A CLIFF.

One blast of 1,800 lbs. of Dynamite dislodging 150,000 Tons of Rock.

WAR IN MOROCCO.

Siege and Bombardment of Casa Blanca. Grand Charge of the Goumiers.

LIFE IN THE FRENCH NAVY.

Wild Birds at Home.

HOLLAND QUIANT AND SEDATE.

Among Savage Zulus.

THE ANIMAL KINGDOM.

Daring French Horsemanship.

Hunting in the Arctic Regions. Racing 80 miles an hour on an Automobile.

Twenty Other Big Features.

Prices, - - 25c, 35c and 50c.

Diagram of reserved seats at Kendrick's Drug Store, Monday February 2d.

The Theatorium!

BARRE'S 5 CENT THEATRE

Moving Pictures, Illustrated Songs

PROGRAM

Shooting Rapids, Killarney

The Merits of a Dog

The Stripling

Sport in Trouble

Thieves Caught in Their Own Trap

The Wonderful Mirror

SONG

"Red Wing"

The "Passion Play" all next week.

Admission, 5 cents.

Children free if accompanied by a paid admission, attendances only.

Daily, matinee at 2:00, evening at 7:00.

Our Annual February Sale of Muslin Underwear

Begins Saturday. We can show you one of the best assortments in the city. The values we are giving are exceptional. We want you to be sure and look the line over and be convinced that The Home Made and Royal Makes are superior to all others when quality and prices are considered.

Ten Per Cent Discount on Cash Sales During This Sale.

VEALE & KNIGHT,

New England Telephone, 123-3
Union Telephone Line.

Carrier Building, - - North Main St., Barre, Vt.

UNION CLOTHING COMPANY. UNION CLOTHING COMPANY.

UNION CLOTHING COMPANY. UNION CLOTHING COMPANY.