Archie McLeary of Woodville, N. H., is visiting friends in the city. Albert Gilman is ill with grippe at the home of G. A. Bemis of Long Street. E. W. Blake went to Boston yesterday to attend a postmaster's meeting. Mrs. Frank Worthen of St. Johnsbury is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Fred Haskett. There will be a choir rehearsal at the Baptist church Wednesday evening at 7:30. Don't forget Gilbertson's orchestra in Woodmen's hall, Thursday evening, Feb. 20. E. N. Normandeau returned last night from a visit at New Richmond, P. Q. Only five of those sleds left at Hooker & Co's red tag sale; they were 50c, now 25c. Mrs. Michael Kenedy went to Burlington this morning for a visit with relatives. Miss Agnes Nash went to St. Johnsbury today for a few days' visit at the home of her sister. "The World's Wizard" and "Modern Painters," two great pictures, at the opera house to-night. Attilio U'ergo has finished work at Miami's barber shop and is working in O. N. Granger's shop. Matt Haley returned last night from Schenectady, N. Y., where he has been setting some monuments. Extra ladies' tickets for the dance, Thursday, Feb. 20, Gilbertson's orchestra, nine pieces, 50 cents. "Farmer Harriet" at Yellowstone Park shows the wonders of Yellowstone running over with bright comedy. If you want to spend a pleasant evening, go to the Woodmen's hall, Thursday, Feb. 20. Tickets, $1.00 per couple. Last opportunity to buy Edison gold-moulded records for 25c each from 4 to 6 p. m. all the week. Averill Music Co. The Barre Athletic basket ball team will play the Norwich university team Tuesday, February 25, at Hale's pavilion. Dancing at Hale's pavilion Thursday evening, Montpelier military orchestra, Elvira Dever, leader. Gents 50c, ladies free. Bert Hatch and Henry Cross, who have been visiting friends in the city, returned today to their homes in Oxford, N. H. Dancing at Hale's pavilion Thursday evening, Montpelier military orchestra, Elvira Dever, leader. Gents 50c, ladies free; price given. All members of the Congressional Y. E. R. C. E. who are going on the sleigh ride Friday night are requested to meet at 7 o'clock. A regular meeting of Bright Star Rebekah lodge, No. 15, will be held Wednesday evening, February 18, at 7:30. For order table grand. The young ladies of Mrs. Hoyt's Sunday school class are invited to meet at her home, 55 Vermont street, this evening at seven o'clock, to attend the sleigh ride. Rev. C. C. Connor went to Burlington this morning to attend the session of the Ministerial association of the Universalist and Unitarian churches of the state. Frank L. Crowe, editor of the St. Albans Messenger, has been engaged to give an address before Vermont club at a "smoke talk" in the club rooms Friday evening of this week. Lunch will be served. The regular meeting of the Ladies of the Maccabees will be held in the K. of P. hall, Wednesday evening, February 19, at 7 o'clock. Guests are requested to be present for initiation. Refreshments will be served. Notice: Tool sharpeners: A regular meeting of Tool Sharpeners' No. 2 branch, Central City, International association, will be held in their hall, Nichols block, on Wednesday evening, February 19, 1908, at 7 o'clock. James Hatch, secretary. Local 481, C. E. J. of A., will hold the annual conference, February 20, in Woodmen's hall. Old fashioned dancing will be indulged in. All members and their invited friends will participate. Chairman of committee.

The No-namé white club had last evening at the home of Mrs. and Mrs. J. O. Adams. Dinner was served at six o'clock, after which the party played progressive whist until 12 o'clock. The high scores of the evening were made by Mrs. J. O. Adams and R. A. Eastman. A chorus of a hymn! On account of Gilbertson's orchestra being obliged to cancel its engagement of February 19 and having extra men hired for this date and also for the 21st, it gives the dancers a chance to go to a dance Thursday evening, February 20, in the Woodmen's hall, before 10 o'clock. This is the same orchestra that played for the wedding last night. Now, if you danced after the music once, you will want to appear; and if you never have, you surely will want to, for it is second to none. Now, remember, this is probably the only time you will have this winter to hear the orchestra in so great advantage. Come and give the only musical entertainment you have in town a royal send-off.

There will be a choir rehearsal at the home of Mrs. George Allen Thursday evening, February 20, for the benefit of the South Barre Sunday school. All over the admission is 25 cents. All cordially invited to attend. The girls who went from here to Williamstown last evening by Mr. E. Desnoyers' sleigh say a great word for the treatment of them, as everything was done that was possible to make them have a good time, which they certainly had.

TALK OF THE TOWN.

See Abbott's new corsets. New white waists at Vaughan's. "Frolics in a Laundry" at the Theatorium to-day. Typewriter desk, flat top, cost $11.00, and swivel chair, cost $3.50, both for $10.00. L. M. Averill. "Christmas Adoption," the great hit at Keith's theatre, Providence, at the opera house to-night.

MONTPELIER

Seminary Lost Two Basket Ball Games to High School. The postponed basket ball games between the boys and girls' teams from Montpelier seminary and Montpelier high school were played last night in the armory. The high school took both games, the boys winning 29 to 9, and the girls, 4 to 2.

Perley E. Pope and George O. Boyles left last evening for New York. Frank D. Dewey was in St. Johnsbury last evening to make an official inspection of Palestine commandery, Knights Templar.

P. S. Flint has resigned as station agent at Montpelier Junction. His successor is H. H. Hoyt of St. Albans, to whom the station was turned over yesterday. The necessity of a suitable boarding house at, or near, Montpelier Junction is shown since the change was made in the freight crew, whereby the junction is made the end of a division. The crews who remain there over night have no other place to eat or sleep except in the caboose of the freight train on which they have been employed all day.

A consignment of 500 rifles of the improved Krag-Jorgenson type has arrived at the State House, being shipped to Adj. Gen. W. H. Gilmore from the U. S. armory at Springfield, Mass. With these rifles came a large number of blank cartridges. The rifles will be distributed at once to the different companies of the regiment, together with supplies of ammunition for the new arm. These rifles are shipped late early to allow the members of the regiment to familiarize themselves with them before they go to the muster in June at White Plains, N. Y.

Francis McFarrest was in city court yesterday charged with non-support of his wife and children. The respondent pleaded to go better and his case was placed on file. Joseph Green, one of the lads who slipped last week to Burlington, pleaded guilty to larceny. Judge E. M. Harvey gave him some sound advice, sent him to school, and continued his case. John Casey of Barre Town and Frank Hartley of Claremont, N. H., each pleaded guilty to a first offense of intoxication. They had no money and will work in Sheriff Tracy's wood lot for the next 30 days.

NORTHFIELD

Sand Fair Last Week Was a Decided Success.—The Proceeds, $400. The sand fair held last week in the armory netted over $400 and was a success in every particular. There was a crowded house every night, and a pleasing program was given.

The Northfield creamery paid 32 cents for butter fat for the month of January. P. D. Pike is planning to erect a house the coming spring on land purchased from Mrs. M. Badger and located on Vine street.

J. H. Brown has been elected by the local Methodist church as delegate to the lay conference which will be held in Barre next April. Norwich plays the university of Vermont basket ball team in the armory this evening and will try to sweep up for the defeat sustained at Burlington a few weeks ago.

The remains of Mrs. R. H. Miller, who were brought to Northfield Monday and placed in the tomb. Mrs. Miller was 68 years of age. She was born to G. H. Miller of Worcester and Rev. Fred of California.

Hiram Holten has returned to his home in Middlebury, Mass., after spending several weeks with his family here. Miss Hattie Woodcock has returned to her home in Sturtevant, N. H., after spending a week in town, as the guest of Miss Lois Giffin.

WILLIAMSTOWN

The Norwich university musical club will give a concert at the town hall Thursday evening, February 20. Dr. Harry M. Goley is director and leader of the club; Edward N. Clark, director and leader of the orchestra; R. L. Anderson, reader, and F. C. Parks, pianist. The program is as follows:

- Selection, orchestra
- Winter Song
- Glee club, Mr. Lee, soloist
- Reading
- Mr. Andrews
- Anchor
- Glee club
- Watson
- New melody
- Glee club, duet
- Messrs. Adams and Goley
- Selection, orchestra

Part Two
The Sound of Ferra... Bullard
Glee club, Mr. Lee, soloist
Reading

Baritone solo, Mr. Lee
In Finale
Glee club
Selection, orchestra
The Northfield News says of this club's work: "The annual concert was given by the musical club of Norwich university in place of the talent usually secured from Boston. The concert was a treat and each number was well rendered, as well, in fact, that Dr. Goley had never before filled with such applause as each number brought forth."

W. E. Geanger was in Montpelier yesterday on business. Mrs. Vera Edson is sick with grippe and confined to her bed.

Rev. Sam M. Ewe went to Burlington yesterday to attend a convention. She will stop with a cousin while there. Get your tickets for the Norwich university glee club entertainment Thursday night. A fine entertainment is expected. Program in yesterday's paper.

A party of nearly fifty young people from South Barre enjoyed a ride to this place last evening, stopping at L. O. G. Hall where they had a very enjoyable time until a late hour. Edson Brothers went to South Barre last evening to get a large party from there, on four-horse team and one two-wheeler were required to bring the company home. They were carried back at an early hour this morning.
