

P. N. CORSETS

Some of the good features of the P. N. Practical Side Corsets:

1—The extra side pieces make the breaking down of the Corset impossible.

2—These side pieces can be removed from the pockets wherein they are set and reversed from time to time without sewing or ripping, insuring permanent shapeliness to the Corset and adding to its lease of service.

3—If a lady wishes ease in reclining, the side pieces may be removed and replaced at her pleasure.

4—The cork steel protectors used in all P. N. Corsets will keep the front steel from rusting and breaking.

We recommend that you try these Corsets.

Some of them played cards, and some danced and promaded. A very jolly evening was passed. Miss Freeman was presented a handsome gold watch and chain and a sum of money. Refreshments of cake, coffee and corn-balls were served. Miss Freeman thanks all the neighbors and friends for her presents and hopes that she may do as much for them some time.
On next Friday evening B. C. Whitney will present the latest edition of the gloom-dispelling musical extravaganza, "Isle of Spice," with an exceptionally talented company at the opera house, with that clever laugh-creator, Charles A. Pusey, featured in the role of "King Bonapoka." He will be assisted by a company of fully fifty artistic associates. The plot of "Isle of Spice" is plausible, interesting and abounding in laughable situations. The scenery borders on the spectacular, but as the locale of the piece is on a mythical island in the sea of Japan, it at the same time is a fairly accurate representation of the picturesque scenery and architecture of the Orient. The prima donna, Marie LaDus, plays the role of Tesoa. Others in the cast are Louis Gould, Minerva Clombaire, Belle Tuffs, Margaret Wood, Bert Waterwright, Frank Wood, Jack Leslie, K. Arza, Frank Louis Comstock, and a number of others well known in the musical comedy field.

THE CLOVER CLUB'S
Domestic Science Day at Mrs. C. W. Averill's a Great Success.
On yesterday afternoon and last evening the spacious home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Averill was the scene of a social event, which will long be remembered by those fortunate enough to be the guests of so genial a hostess as Mrs. Averill. It was indeed one of the Clover club's happy play days as well as a day of joyous feasting.
At 3 p. m. nearly all the members were present, and after a short business hour, the afternoon was surrendered to a grand time in its fullest meaning. Apt story telling was a feature, which provoked so much laughter that Mrs. Dix thought it advisable to remind the club that study, rather than amusement, is its aim.
Consequently, after each lady was supplied with pencil and paper, a problem in what might be called a mix-up in orthography or possibly "revised spelling" was presented. Silence reigned at once, but not despair, though it seemed almost an impossibility to transcribe the expressions, "I riz in zome! Blo!" "Her look new lie," and numerous others equally puzzling, into the names of well known Barre people.
The problem was solved, however, and between twenty and thirty previously unheard of expressions became, not by the magic of "Presto, change!" but by persistent study, the familiar names of everyday associates.
Promptly at 5 o'clock the ladies were ushered into the cheerful diningroom. The tables were beautifully decorated with carnations and clover buds, each table being lighted with wax candles, set in a beautiful candelabrum, without shades. Dainty place cards, in the club colors, green and white, decorated with a tiny branch of asparagus fern, assured each partaker that "good cheer and welcome make a merry feast."
A most appetizing banquet was served in a most delightful manner. The menu was as follows:
Bouillon
Clam with omelettes and olives
Fish
Boiled cod, with egg sauce
Entrées
French fried potatoes Green peas
Roast
Leg of lamb and gravy
Vegetables
Mashed potatoes with buttered parsnips
Jelly
Fruit salad and hot rolls
Dessert
Marshmallow pudding
Assorted cake
Tea Coffee
Great credit is due the committee of arrangement, Mrs. C. W. Averill, Mrs. May Pratt, and Mrs. John Dix for the many happy features of the day. It may well be recorded a day of real joy and worth in the Clover club history.

AN EVENING OF MUSIC
Was Program for Philomathian Club Last Night.
The Philomathian club met last evening at the home of Mrs. E. W. Bisbee. The program of the evening was a musical one, under the direction of Mrs. A. A. Sargent and Mrs. A. S. Martin.
An interesting and instructive paper was given by Mrs. Sargent on the life and works of Edward Grig. The following numbers were then rendered, prefaced by a brief description of each by Mrs. Sargent:
"Morning," Peer Gynt Suite, piano duet, Mrs. Sargent, Mrs. Bisbee.
"To Spring," piano solo, Mrs. Sargent.
"The First Primrose," song, Mrs. A. S. Martin.
(a) "Arietta," (b) "Kilintanze," (c)
Great credit is due the committee of arrangement, Mrs. C. W. Averill, Mrs. May Pratt, and Mrs. John Dix for the many happy features of the day. It may well be recorded a day of real joy and worth in the Clover club history.

Go-Cart and Carriage Season of 1908 is Most Here.

We don't expect you are going to buy Baby Wagons extensively until there are a few signs of Spring apparent. However, we always wish to be strictly on time with the goods. Then there are many who like to use a Carriage in the house, as it saves a lot of tending and is a great source of amusement to the little ones.

We are showing in our windows today the new lines for the coming season. If you are going to need one this Spring we solicit your patronage and hope you will look over our line at your first opportunity. To say that the styles depart radically from last year is putting it mildly. Collapsible Carts, Hood Top Carriages in brown, green and maroon finish are in vogue this year. See them.
