MEMORIES CALLED UP

tolerance which have been followed by the days of tolerance until today we have fellowship that is bound to grow still stronger and broader.

Mrs. Carrie B. Carpenter told of the way the festivals were held during the early years of the circle as compared with the fair held now. How the trustees regard the ladies union was spoken of by Principal O. K. Hollister of Goddard. He paid a glowing tribute to the worth of the union to the society. Dr. J. Edward Wright of Montpelier who in his forty years of pastorate at the Unitarian church at Montpelier, the toastmistress said, had always been a devoted friend and helper of the church, spoke very interestingly on friendly interchanges.

Mrs. C. C. Conner told about some of the societies she had worked in in seven different states of the union. A poem written for the occasion by Prof. David L. Maulsby of Tufts college formerly principal of Goddard, was read by Miss Chesney of Goddard.

The future of the Ladies' union as seen in prophecy was told by Miss Carrie E. Wheelock in which she had a vision of hired chefs and servants for the ladies' suppers and of a notice in the papers that the president of the union was in need of funds and the next morning checks were awaiting her in the mails. The method used by the union in raising money was told by Mrs. P. T. Cutler.

During the exercises a piano duet was rendered by the Misses Mary Wells and Grace Dillon and a vocal solo was sung by Mrs. M. D. Lamb.

The letters read from former pastors and friends were from Rev. Walter Dole, now spending the winter in Florida, Rev. A. M. Bradley and Mrs. Bradley, Spencer, Mass., Mrs. Emma A. Nichols, Stratham, Pa., Rev. James Vincent, Concord, Pa., Albert Johnson of Montpelier who was fifty years ago the superintendent of the Sunday school, Carrie E. Tilden, Shirley, Mass., Miss Lucy A. Calef, Washington, Rev. Cora M. Leuse, Williamstown, Mrs. L. F. Packer, Greenfield, Mass., Mrs. Kate Kealey Snow, Watertown, Conn., Mrs. Harriet Spencer Brewer, St. Johnsbury, Mrs. J. C. Beeds, Miss Martha C. Taylor, Washington, Mrs. Kimmell, wife of the late W. M. Kimmell of Boston, Mrs. J. Frank Knodes, Rev. Elie K. M. Jones, Waterloo, Ia., Principal A. W. Pierce of Dean academy, Miss Fannie A. West, Reading, Pa.

Besides the letters of regret that were read to the meeting, there were a large number of words of regret from those who could not be present.

A PROPERTY TRANSFER.
Two Pieces of Real Estate Owned by F. E. Smith Estate.

Deeds were filed with the Montpelier city clerk yesterday transferring the part of the Union and the Rialto buildings on State street, that city, which were owned by the late F. E. Smith, to the Union Block company, formed by the widow and other legatees of the late Mr. Smith and his former associates in business for the purpose of holding the estate intact until the property can be disposed of to more advantage. The consideration named in the transfer was $26,000.

DEATH OF WILLIS MARSHALL.
Was One of the Prominent Citizens of Waterbury Center.

Word has been received of the death of Willis Marshall, one of the prominent citizens of Waterbury Center, death ensuing yesterday after an illness with pneumonia. He was postmaster at the Center and had also held many other offices, including that of road commissioner, selectman and town representative. He leaves his wife and one brother. The funeral will be held Saturday.

The financial standing of the town of Londonderry for the year ending February 14 shows that the debt has been increased. The cutting of brush has helped to do this. The total liabilities are $8,091.01; and the assets $4,120.57, making the net liabilities $3,970.44. This is an increase of about $1,700 and of this $1,075 was for cutting brush. The expense of schools in the past year was $2,570.

Remember the People's academy game in the Church street gymnasium Thursday night.
