Edward L. House has returned to Barre after an absence of four months, spent mostly in Colorado, where he visited a sister. On leaving, Mr. House thought some of locating in the West, but decided to return to Barre. He will re-enter the employ of William Miers, and will be ready to meet his friends beginning this afternoon.

John Wright, who said he had been working for the Montpelier & Wells River railroad at Montpelier, pleaded guilty in the city court this morning to a first offense of intoxication and was fined $5, with costs of $5.95. He was unable to pay and went to the county jail for 20 days. He was arrested last evening by Officer Hamel.

The London Musical World says of the Canadian Jubilee Singers and Imperial Orchestra, who come to the Barre opera house Wednesday evening, March 25, as follows: "Hundreds were unable to gain admittance at Dr. Clifford's Westborne Park Chapel. All through the entertainment was a great treat, and should be very popular in this country."

Through the efforts of Postmaster Bisbee, an additional clerk of the first grade has been allowed for the Barre post-office, effective now. This clerk is added to the post-office force to relieve the congested condition at the money-order, as well as the registry and general delivery windows. The position was filled through a civil service examination and John P. Corcoran, who passed the highest examination, has been appointed to the place.

In keeping with the somewhat prevailing idea in Barre just at present, the "town clock" has gone on a strike and refuses to continue its normal functions. Many an expectant face is turned toward the steeple of the Universalist church in anticipation of being told the time of day, at least within half an hour of correctness, only to meet with disappointment. The hands point toward 6:55 in the morning or evening.

At the time when regular goods are at their highest, A. A. Smith & Brother are offering their entire stock at enormously reduced prices. Their goods, which were recently damaged by water, are quickly being cleared out at half price and less. The large number who took advantage of this opportunity to buy goods at such low prices are being augmented by greater crowds as the days go by. A few items from their large stock are given in their advertisement in this issue, to which we invite your attention.
