WATERBURY INN THREATENED.

Employees Made a Plucky Fight and Soon Extinguished Fire.

Waterbury, March 26--The Waterbury Inn was in danger of destruction by fire late yesterday, flames being discovered breaking through the roof near the chimney. Mr. Davis, the proprietor, was in Chelsea, but his clerk, J. C. Farrah, directed ten employees in fighting the fire and they did so well that the flames were extinguished before the arrival of the fire department. Water was secured from a standpipe. The damage was slight, being confined to a portion of the roof. It is supposed that the fire caught from the chimney.

TALK OF THE TOWN.

This is corset week at Vaughan's.

Advanced pictures at the Theatorium.

Mrs. Grace Cook is visiting relatives in St. Albans.

L. P. Austin went to Marshfield on business to-day.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Sowden left yesterday for North Bangor, N. Y., to visit relatives.

If you love beauty, see the Witches Kies and Pagliacci, at the pavilion every night this week.

Men and women are wanted at the Methodist church Thursday of this week. Come, and work will be furnished.

The pastor of the Universalist church has for his use numerous rare pictures, some of the finest in sacred art, which were secured several years ago by a collector and have come into the possession of another collector. He will show them with the stereopticon and give a talk about them on two Sunday evenings.

Rev. B. S. Taylor (Dakota cyclone) and John Weightman, the evangelists who are to hold services in the Worthen hall, are now at Vineyard Haven, Mass. Yesterday morning a card was received saying that they could not get off the island, and close following it came a telegram from Mr. Weightman announcing that they should come Saturday. Disappointment may be felt by some at this turn of affairs, but it undoubtedly is for the best and will not in any way interfere with the purpose of the services. They will commence this evening as announced. The hall is situated at the Worthen block, at the corner of Keith avenue and North Main street, and the services will open at 7:30. The outlook is encouraging. All should attend.

C. L. U. Delegates, Notice!

A regular meeting of the Central Labor Union of Barre and vicinity will be held in Nichols' block Friday evening, March 27th, 1908, 7:30 o'clock.
