

A Woman's Suit at $12.50

Prominent among the new Suits this spring is one at $12.50. This is a Suit made up for the purpose of selling for $15.00, and has all the style, fit and workmanship of a $15.00 or 18.00 Suit. Made up of a good quality wool panama with the new 3-button cut-away coat, trimmed with bias bands of taffeta silk. This Suit is of a plaited style trimmed with a wide band of same goods as makes the Suit. We are very enthusiastic over this number and would like you to see it if about this price interests you.

This is Lace Curtain Week.

If we can judge from last Saturday's business on Lace Curtains, our Spring season will be a good one. Everyone seeing this beautiful assortment expressed themselves as highly pleased. This is Lace Curtain Week with us. We extend to you an invitation to call and see them.

TO PREVENT SPREAD.

Every Precaution is Being Taken in Enosburg Falls.
Enosburg Falls, April 1.—Madeline, the three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Ladd, died Monday evening of heart failure following an acute attack of an infectious disease. For obvious reasons the funeral was attended Tuesday morning with little publicity. The authorities are taking every precaution to prevent any spread of the disease. The child was taken ill within a few days of her return from California where with her parents she had passed the winter.

The quarterly meeting of the Universalist church will be held Thursday evening, April 2, at 7:30; in the vestry.
For sale—A parlor set, a parlor table, reception room furniture, bedroom set and dishes. Inquire Mrs. Thomas Brady, 20 Perry street.
The strike need not hinder you from gaining a business education at the Goddard evening school. Spring term begins Wednesday, April 1, 7 p. m.
The annual general meeting of the Granite City Quilting club will be held at its club house on Saturday, April 4. All members are requested to attend. James W. Gauld, secretary.
All are invited to the children's musical—"grown-ups" as well as children—on Friday afternoon, April 3, in the Congregational vestry. Admission only ten cents, including refreshments.
In a matched cribbage game played in the Cosmopolitan club rooms this week Faulkner and Kennedy, the champion players in the league this winter, defeated Quickshank and Halvosa, two out of three games.
The "Jolly club" met with Mrs. Albert Halvosa at her home on Park street last evening. An oyster supper was served at six o'clock. During the evening games of whist and parohesi were played, which resulted in the lucky ones being David Wylie and Mrs. Halvosa.
Referee in bankruptcy W. N. Theriault will give a hearing at his office 1, Montpelier Monday, April 13, at ten o'clock, to the creditors of Martin J. McGowan. The trustee, E. L. Scott, has petitioned for authority to sell the property at private sale and the hearing will be on the granting of this request.
There is to be a musical for the children in the vestry of the Congregational church, Friday afternoon, April 3, beginning at 2 o'clock. Admission 10 cents. This musical is given by the ladies of Circle No. 1, and they are making every effort to make it as attractive to the children as the others have been to the older ones. Refreshments will be served at the close of the program.
Several of the golf players who are idle because of the shutdown in the granite industry are improving the time by rolling the green at the Barre course and putting things in readiness for the opening of the season. By this work, it is expected that the enthusiasts will be able to begin playing within a short time. In fact, there is some playing already. The local course is early because of its height and sandy soil.
Mr. Clarence Bennett, in introducing "A Royal Slave" to the patrons of our theatre, not only promises but assures us that this production is a distinct departure from all others that have been presented in our city. "A Royal Slave" was taken from an actual occurrence, the scenes being reproduced from photographs of old Mexico, around which the play was written. The characters of "Aguila," "El Capitan"—a noted bandit—and "Juan Alvarez," figure in many parts of Mexican history. The cast has been carefully selected, the members being especially engaged for their respective roles. At the opera house next Monday night.

TALK OF THE TOWN.

G. A. Morse went to Morrisville yesterday.
James Riley went to Waterbury on business last night.
Mrs. Anna McAllister left yesterday for her home in Chelsea.
H. J. LaRoe returned yesterday from a business visit in Burlington.

Miss Nellie Sloughton is at her home in this city for the spring vacation of her school in Boston.
Bert Blair, who has been in Burlington caring for his mother, who is seriously ill, was in the city yesterday, returning to Burlington last night.
Mrs. W. F. Shepard's Sunday school class will go to her farm to-morrow for an angling party, and the members are requested to meet at Page's stable at 12:30 o'clock.
City Inspector of Weights and Measures Angus A. Smith did his first official act in several years' incumbency of the office last night, when he signed a report with the city supply committee to the effect that the city scales are now weighing correctly, the accuracy of the instrument having been questioned. The city inspector of weights and measures gets few opportunities to perform official duties and there are several other offices that furnish the same dearth of business.
