If Barre and Montpelier want a college base ball team this summer, they can get most of the Notre Dame team, according to a telegram received by Arthur Daley yesterday from J. A. Dubac, pitcher on the team.

Major William B. Cogswell of Melrose, Mass., is visiting at the home of W. F. Richardson of 27 Camp street. This is Major Cogswell's first visit to Barre in 18 years and he states that he sees but little resemblance to the Barre as he knew it.

The warm weather did not seem to have any effect in the audience at the "Comique" yesterday afternoon and evening; as a matter of fact, this has proved one of the best cooling-off places in town. With the temperature way down, combined with an excellent program, the large audience certainly enjoyed themselves. This was easily demonstrated when they all joined in and sang the chorus of the illustrated song.

The annual June convention of the Vermont State Spiritualist association will be held in Hale's Pavilion, Barre, commencing Friday, June 12, at 2:30 and 7:00 p. m., and ending Sunday evening. The first meeting Friday will be a conference. In the evening there will be a short lecture with music. Saturday at 10 a. m., 2:30 and 7:30 p. m., there will be interesting meetings. On Sunday there will be three sessions, at the same hours as on Saturday. Rev. F. A. Wiggins of Boston will be one of the speakers at these meetings, which are free to all, and a cordial invitation is extended to all.

The decisive base ball game between Goddard and Montpelier seminary, which was to be played at Interity park today at four o'clock, has been postponed to Saturday afternoon by mutual agreement. This was done after People's academy of Morrisville cancelled its game with Goddard, scheduled for next Saturday. This left a favorable opportunity for a Saturday game between Goddard and Montpelier, with corresponding increase in receipts, so the date was set ahead. People's academy gave as reason for scratching out the date, that its team had disbanded; which action wipes out that school's chances for claiming the state championship, even if nothing else did.

Regular meeting of Hlawa Lodge, No. 20, I. O. O. F., Thursday evening at 7:30; work the second degree. For order Noble Grand G. F. Quigley.

The class day exercises of Spaulding high school '08 in the opera house to-morrow afternoon will begin promptly at 2:30 o'clock, and the people are urged to be there before that time so as not to interfere with the exercises by arriving while the program is in progress.

H. W. Scott, administrator for the John A. Martinson estate, to-day received a payment of $1,000 from the National Life Insurance company, it being the amount of the policy carried by the late Mr. Martinson with that company. He was also insured in the Metropolitan Life for a similar amount.

The Theatorium was closed yesterday afternoon and evening for repairs. They have taken the glass out and are putting in a front similar to the one in the "Comique." Mgr. Craban tells us that they will open to-night with a fine program, and the place so cool that a polar bear would catch cold if he stayed in over 40 minutes.

Miss Christine Tingling of England, who is going to speak at a parlor meeting in Hedding church, Friday at 3 p. m., is no stranger to a Barre audience, as she was here a year ago and her father, Rev.
