

WOMEN'S SAMPLE SUITS, $18.75

This will interest four times the number of women that we can supply. Not that this lot is small but the elegant high priced suits that are included at this price will certainly create a sensation. A number of Suits are involved—the very newest models, wonderfully pretty materials with lining that are put into only the very best garment, and for which $18.75 would but little more than pay for the materials alone.

COVERT COATS AT $7.75.

Such desirable Coats as a covert and such popular Coats this season make such a low price as $7.75, very, very interesting. By no means does this little price indicate their values—rather Coats of much higher prices are included in this line. An early call and you are sure of a good assortment to select from.
