Among arrivals at the City hotel last evening and to-day are H. R. Law, Wal-tham, Mass.; E. A. Secor, J. A. Bond, D. S. Miller, E. M. Jones, S. E. Brownell, Burlington; William A. Irwin, Brook-lyn, N. Y.; John J. Hartigan, Troy, N. Y.; John Lavery, Jr., Rutland; W. H. Harrison, New York.

The cool Theatitorium has many treats for its patrons: this comfortable theatre was crowded last night. The pictures are some of the best that have been shown here in some time. "Caught by Wireless" is a great dramatic picture with such a fine plot and many interesting features, the scene which shows the working of Maroon's great invention is not only interesting but very educating; seldom is beauty and comedy blended to such advantage as in "Gaston Visits the Museum." This is one of those beauties that you remember for many days. "The Skull and Sentinel" completes a good show.

MONTEPELIER

Louis Marquette of Haverhill, Mass., was the guest of E. E. Dodge over Sunday. Mr. Marquette is a native of Montpelier, and this is the first visit to his old home in 25 years.
Charles C. Taft of the firm of Taft & Odell, coal dealers, returned Saturday night from an excursion through the coal fields of Pennsylvania which was given to retail coal dealers in New England by four of the large coal mining companies. About 250 dealers of New England were on the excursion.

Blanche, the 15 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Varney, died yesterday morning after an illness of two weeks with peritonitis. Miss Varney was a member of the freshman class of Montpelier high school and of Trinity church Sunday school. Her funeral will be held at Trinity church, and the body will be taken to Waterbury for burial.

Fred Keegan assumed Sunday the directorship of the chorus choir of Trinity church which has been in charge of Miss Ida E. Bagg the past year. Mr. Keegan will have charge of the choir in future and will also ring the chimes after they are installed in the belfry of that church next month. It is expected the chimes will be used for the first time on Saturday and Sunday, July 11 and 12.

Sergeant-at-arms C. H. Ferrin objects to being elected an alternate on the Stanton list of delegates to the state convention, not because he is favoring either Mr. Stanton or Mr. Prouty for governor, but he believes a state official should not mix in state politics. Mr. Ferrin was elected an alternate last week during his absence from the city.

The funeral of Mrs. E. E. Graham will be held tomorrow afternoon at three o'clock, the Rev. L. F. Reed officiating. Mrs. Graham died Sunday afternoon after an illness of only five days with pneumonia. She was born in East Auburn, Me., and was 83 years old. Mrs. Graham came of distinguished ancestry, her grandfather, Benjamin Franklin Beale, having served in the Revolutionary War. She is survived by one son, Frank E. Graham, and by three daughters, Mary C. Adelada and Ellen of this city. For the past 25 years Mrs. Graham had resided in Montpelier. She was a member of Bethany Congregational church in which she was at one time active, but for the past 12 years she had been a patient invalid. Her husband died 12 years ago.

AN APPEAL TO LABOR.

Gompers' Call to Trades Unionism to Defeat Its Enemies.
Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, has made an appeal to organized labor throughout the country to vote against labor bills. Mr. Gompers says in part: "Mass meetings were held all over the country from April 19 to May 1. They attracted an immense amount of public attention, for at these gatherings the workers and their friends voiced in most emphatic terms labor's protest against the indifference of congress, which for lack of amendment to the Sherman anti-trust law, which could readily be passed, permits the trades unions to be classed as trusts and liable to punishment as such."

"No member of congress can complain that he is in ignorance of the desires of his constituents or that he has failed to receive warning that labor and its friends intend to elect only those who have promoted and voted for the legislation demanded."
"Many congressmen plead that under the domination of our genial Uncle Joe Cannon it is impossible to get these bills before the house. They assert that he holds the house in an iron grip, that he will not allow a bill to come to a vote if he does not wish to do so and that, no matter how sincere their desire to pass these bills, Uncle Joe will not give them a chance."

"What a humiliating confession from the members of our highest legislative body—held fast in the grip of one irresponsible man, subject entirely to his whim!"
"But how, pray, did this situation come about? Who is responsible for Uncle Joe's exorbitant except the congressmen who elected him to the speakership and who permitted him to impose upon them a set of rules which make him such an absolute master of the house that the members might as well go home and let the speaker record what legislation he wishes passed?"
"Nor must we forget that this irresponsible tyrant is not representing his personal whims alone. Ah, no! He represents the powerful interests, who, with the docile consent of the majority of the house, have placed him there and aided him in imposing his autocratic rule upon the house."

"Labor will hold the failure to legislate by this session of congress, no matter for what reason, as the refusal to legislate."
"The workers and their friends will insist in the coming campaign that candidates pledge themselves to vote for certain measures regardless of party affiliations. There will have to be a new set of rules in the house and very different ones from those now obtaining. It is of little use for congressmen to frantically implore the American Federation of Labor to give them a clear record and explain their inability to secure a vote on labor legislation."

"They must make the explanation to their constituents themselves and also explain how they came to betray the interests of the people by electing such a speaker and crawling to his feet every time he pronounced a new rule to throttle debate and obstruct legislation."

The Daylight Store

YOU ARE LUCKY

By being in a city where you can get the assortment of Dry Goods at prices that you can get in Barre. We are not the only good Dry Goods store, either. There are others, and good ones at that. The following are what we are making special prices on.

- | WHITE GOODS. | HAMBURGS. | SWISS FLOUNCINGS AND INSERTIONS |
|---|--|--|
| We are only speaking of goods that are in great demand at the present time—goods that we call very cheap.
Long Cloth has a growing demand. A recent purchase allows us to offer a 12-1-2c Long Cloth that sold in January at 15c, now at 10c per yard, or a 12-yard piece of 18c Long Cloth now at $1.65 per piece.
45-inch White Shrunken Lawn, very fine and firm, at 25c per yard.
The above prices are only for this one lot. | Hamburgs, 21-2 inches wide, at 5c per yard.
Hamburgs, from 3 to 6 inches wide, that were 12-1-2c, 16c and 18c, now at 9c per yard. For trimming muslin underwear.
14-inch Flouncing with heading edge, for corset covers or flouncings for skirts, that were 35c, now at 25c a yard.
These Hamburgs come in both edges and insertions and a part of them match. If they all matched we would not be making these low prices to close them. Good things to be looking for. | Here is a lot of very finest goods that we have been selling wedding and graduation costumes from. Lots that are getting broken as to matching.
Swiss Embroideries, fine enough for whole dresses or very fine underkirts.
These Embroideries come in flouncings, from 6 to 13 inches wide, that have sold at 65c, 75c, 87c, $1.00 and $1.25. Now all at one price, only 49c per yard. (The cheapest lot of first-class Embroideries that we have ever had in a sale.) |

If you appreciate good values in Embroideries, as many ladies do, you should call early at this sale.
