AN AMERICAN HERO.

He Used His Own Body to Stop a Leak in a Ferryboat. One morning in January, when the ice in the Hudson river ran unusually heavy, a Hoboken ferryboat slowly crunched her way through the floating floes until the thickness of the pack choked her paddles in midriver.

R. W. Bishop, patent attorney, of Washington, D. C., reports the issue of Vermont: Scroll-lending machine, V. W. Jewett, of Montpelier; safety razor, James Hartness, of Springfield.

One of the features of Old Home day observance in Grantham, N. H., August 19 was the presence of Mrs. Wheeler Douglass Mead, of Woodstock, who very recently observed her 100th birthday anniversary.

An excavation is being made for a grain elevator which Crosby & Co. of Brattleboro will build on the north side of their warehouse near the railroad.

Vermont Democratic Warhorse Exhibits Little Campaign Enthusiasm. Burlington, Aug. 23.—"I'm not red hot about the candidate." These were the parting words of John H. Senter, the war horse of the Vermont Democracy, as he stepped aboard the train for his home in Montpelier Saturday morning.

It was useless. Little by little the water gained, bursting out first below, then on one side, only to be calked out again and only to rush in once more.

Examinations at State Laboratory. During the month of July examinations made at the state laboratory of hygiene, Burlington, numbered 1,000 specimens, the second largest number in any month since the laboratory was established.

Stacey and Larabee Reunion. About one hundred members of the Stacey and Larabee families held their sixteenth annual reunion at the home of C. L. Stacey of Brattleboro, Wednesday.

PARIS CABBIERS. The War of Words That Comes When They Block Each Other. There is no more entertaining way to spend an idle hour in Paris than to get into a taxicab and instruct the driver to go along some street where you will be reasonably sure to get into a jam or to bump against another cab.

A Strange Coincidence. One of the many old circumstances that are revealed from time to time occurred at the camp ground in New Haven a few days ago.

Pure Water. Pure water will not rust iron. It is the presence of carbonic acid and other impurities which causes the surface of the iron to oxidize when exposed to moisture.

Cigarettes. The cigarette did not reach England until after the Crimean war, in which the English officers adopted it from the Turks and Russians.

Minute Holes. The smallest holes pierced by modern machinery are one one-thousandths of an inch in diameter. They are bored through sapphires, rubies and diamonds.

She Likes Good Things. Mrs. Chas. E. Smith of West Franklin, Maine, says: "I like good things and have adopted Dr. King's New Life Pills as our family laxative medicine, because they are good and do their work without making a fuss about it."

A WOMAN TO BE PRETTY

Must Have Luxuriant and Glossy Hair, No Matter What Color. The finest contour of a female face, the sweetest smile of a female mouth, lose something if the head is crowned with scant hair. Scant and falling hair, it is now known, is caused by a parasite that burrows into the scalp to the root of the hair, where it saps the vitality.
