

PRESIDENT MAY STUMP

Possibility He May Speak for Taft's Candidacy

ANNOUNCED YESTERDAY

His Decision Will Depend Upon the Circumstances, But He Will Continue to Give Newspaper Broadside.

Washington, Sept. 29.—At the White House yesterday it was said that it could not be definitely stated now whether the president would or would not take the stump, but that circumstances must govern his decision in this respect.

At an interview between President Roosevelt and Wade Ellis, who has accepted the position of assistant to the attorney general made vacant by the promotion of Milton D. Purdy to be federal judge, it was decided that Ellis should not take up the duties of the office until after the election. Mr. Ellis will devote the intervening time to speaking in Ohio, of which state he is now the attorney general. He will also speak in other sections, his first address to be at Norfolk, Va., Oct. 15. Mr. Ellis, after a talk with Attorney General Banbury, will leave this evening for New York where he will discuss the Ohio situation with the Republican national campaign manager. The general situation is encouraging, was all the comment Mr. Ellis would make concerning political matters.

BRYAN IN SOUTH DAKOTA.

He Renews His Criticisms of Taft and Asks, "Shall the People Rule?"

Sioux Falls, S. D., Sept. 29.—William J. Bryan opened the fourth week of his present tour by a renewal of his criticisms of Mr. Taft and the Republican platform. A big crowd waited at the station a long time for Mr. Bryan's belated train. Mounting a truck near the station, Mr. Bryan at once got the attention of his audience. "I am glad to be here again," he said, "because you in this great western state have been studying public questions for a long while and you saw here before they did in some other parts of the country the tendencies of our government and you tried as best you could to correct them."

MACK RETURNS TO NEW YORK.

Action Due, He Says, to Important Developments in the East.

New York, Sept. 29.—Deferring his trip to the West until the latter part of the week, National Chairman Mack, who left here Saturday for Chicago, returned here yesterday from Buffalo, where he received word Sunday morning that his presence was desired in this city because of developments in the eastern political situation. The nature of these developments was not made known yesterday by Mr. Mack, but it is understood that they have no very great political significance. Mr. Mack said that he would leave for Chicago the latter part of the week, when it is expected that Herman Boker, the new treasurer of the national committee, will accompany him to the Chicago headquarters.

others in authority at Goddard seminary if I would attend there and play base ball or foot ball. I was, however, promised one of the scholarships with the understanding that I was not to do with athletics; this I lost from breaking their rules about smoking.

That I never received any money for playing base ball or foot ball and that my father paid in full all my bills while I attended Goddard seminary.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 24th day of Sept. A. D. 1908.

Letter from Horford's Father.

The following letter was received from Cyrus Horford's father:

Dr. O. K. Hollister, Sept. 25, 1908. Barre, Vt.

My dear sir: Enclosed please find my check for board.

Regarding the scholarship—I am more sorry over the fact that Cyrus should smoke and break an agreement than I am over the expense of the tuition which I am perfectly willing now to pay. We want the boy to stay and do a good year's work there in the business course. We are perfectly willing to meet all his bills.

Yours very truly, F. H. Horford.

At this time Goddard and M. S. were conducting athletics under an agreement adopted April 20, 1904, which contained this clause:

"No student who is receiving compensation from the school or outside parties, other than a scholarship covering tuition, shall be allowed to represent the school on any team."

The following letter was written by Prin. Bishop within 15 months after the adoption of this agreement:

Camp, Vt., July 18, 1905.

Cyrus P. Horford, My dear sir: My son forwarded me this morning. I will see that you get a credit of $10 per term and a chance to earn enough to make up the remainder of your tuition for each term that you play on the team during the year. This I understand will meet your needs.

Hoping you will accept this offer and join our school. Very sincerely, E. A. Bishop.

Harold I. Gooders.

Inducements were offered to Harold I. Gooders of Fitchburg, Mass., to enter Goddard seminary.

Harold I. Gooders, Fitchburg, Mass., being duly sworn, deposed and said, that I never, at any time, or in any manner, received any offer from Goddard seminary of Barre, Vt., nor did I receive any money or other remuneration, or any reduction of my bills while there except a regular scholarship.

Harold I. Gooders, Fitchburg, Mass., Sept. 24, 1908.

There personally appeared before me the above named Clyde S. Heath and made oath that the above statement subscribed by him was true.

Notary Public, William Wysoff.

The following letter was received from Clyde Heath's father:

Barton, Vt., Sept. 22, 1908.

Mr. O. K. Hollister, My dear sir: Having noticed the charge which Montpelier sem. has made against Goddard, you may remember that you lost the services of Clyde because you would not give him anything toward his scholarship last fall, when it looked as though your team was really weak at quarter back and Clyde did not care to take the chance of getting hurt for the pleasure alone of the game. You may use this in any way you wish if it will help you in the least.

Very truly yours, C. C. W. Heath.

Henry Stetson.

5. Henry Stetson of Lyme, N. H., received inducements to enter Goddard seminary in the fall of 1907.

I have no statement from Mr. Stetson. He came with the promise of some work. He went his shoulder in foot ball practice and could not do the work. He remained and had a scholarship, but no work, and paid his bills in full with the exception of his tuition.

Leonard LeBoeuf.

6. It was charged that Leonard Le Boeuf of Vergennes received an offer to come to Goddard last winter.

Worcester, Mass., Sept. 25, 1908.

Mr. O. K. Hollister, Dear sir: In reply to your letter, would say that I never had any offer more than that I might get a scholarship. With this in view, I visited your school last January.

As there were not any more scholarships to be given out and I would have to pay full bills, I did not stay. Hoping that this will settle any questions, I remain, Respect yours, Leonard Le Boeuf.

Douglas Hayes.

7. It was stated that it was not reasonable that Douglas Hayes should leave Waltham high school, where he played on the foot ball team, and come to Goddard seminary, therefore he must be paid.

I wrote to Mr. Hollister in regard to coming to Goddard sem. this fall. I entered the school without any reference to a scholarship or any chance to work for my board. I did not mention to Mr. Hollister, or any member of the school, about my athletic ability.

(Signed) Douglas Hayes, State of Vermont, Washington Co., SS.

At the city of Barre in said county, this 25th day of September, A. D. 1908, personally appeared before me the above named Douglas Hayes and made oath to the truth of the facts contained in the foregoing statement by him subscribed.

(Signed) J. Ward Carver, Notary Public.

F. A. Wardner.

8. It was charged that F. A. Wardner of Cornish Flat, who left Montpelier seminary at the end of the first week of school this fall and came to Goddard, was lured to leave.

I entered Goddard seminary this fall on condition that I should receive a scholarship provided I complied with the regulations governing scholarships.

I also wish to state that I have received no offer of money or any deduction in expenses from any one connected with the school.

(Signed) F. A. Wardner, State of Vermont, Washington Co., SS.

At the city of Barre 25th day of September, A. D. 1908, personally appeared before me the above named F. A. Wardner and made oath to the truth of the facts contained in the foregoing statement by him subscribed.

(Signed) J. Ward Carver, Notary Public.

Mr. Fairchild.

9. It was charged that Mr. Fairchild of Montpelier seminary received an offer to come to Goddard last spring.

(Signed) J. Ward Carver, Notary Public.

Barre, Vt., Sept. 25, 1908.

Dr. E. A. Bishop stated to me Tuesday, Sept. 22, 1908, at Montpelier, that he knew nothing definite in regard to the matter of Fairchild receiving an offer of inducements from Goddard seminary; but that he (Bishop) understood that Fairchild had told some of the boys that he (Fairchild) thought that if he had intimated to the Goddard people that he wanted inducements, he might receive an offer.

(Signed) H. W. Heath, State of Vermont, Washington Co., SS.

At the city of Barre, in said county, this 25th day of September, A. D. 1908, personally appeared before me the above named H. W. Heath and made oath to the truth of the facts contained in the foregoing statement by him subscribed.

(Signed) J. Ward Carver, Notary Public.

Mr. Thomas.

10. It was charged that Mr. Thomas of Montpelier seminary had offers to come to Goddard last year.

(Reply) I wrote to Mr. Thomas Sept. 21st, asking him to reply by return mail, and state who made him an offer, and what it was. Mr. Bishop wrote him on the same date and has received a reply. I have received no reply.

Leo Abbott.

11. It was charged that Mr. Leo Abbott, captain of Burr and Burton seminary team last year, received an offer to come to Goddard.

(Reply) I located Mr. Abbott last Saturday at Vermont university. I telephoned him and asked him what offer he ever had and he answered that I found a place where he could earn his board in the city of Barre, and that he never received any other offer to come here.

The Final Charge.

12. I was charged with conducting athletic matters as follows: Whenever I received a letter from an athlete my policy was to write to him that he could receive no help, and then send someone to him, or go myself, and tell him that the letter was a bluff and make a verbal agreement with him, trusting him to keep it secret.

A greater insult could not have been given. In some sections of the country it would have been received with a blow. I treat it with the contempt it deserves and simply publish it.

I have lived 43 years in this vicinity and I am willing to let the people of this vicinity judge their own consciences as to whether I am crooked or not.

SMALL BANK SUSPENDS.

Greene County National at Hunter, N. Y., Chiefly a Summer Institution.

Catskill, Sept. 29.—Failure on the part of local business men and residents of Hunter, N. Y., a popular summer resort village in the Catskills, to patronize their home bank has caused the suspension of the Greene County National bank at Hunter.

The bank was organized in 1904, with a capital stock of $25,000, the greater part of which was held by New Yorkers who had summer homes at Hunter. The deposits ranged from $7,500 to $10,000, the greater part of which was in short time accounts deposited by the wealthy summer frequenters of the village.

The residents and local business people continued to patronize the larger institutions at Catskill, so that the business of the new institution was confined to the summer months and the promoters found it a losing game, hence their determination to suspend. A large part of the depositors have been paid in full, and it is asserted that the institution has funds enough to pay all demands.

HOUSE FELL KILLING ONE

Edward Dexter Killed in East Boston Yesterday

NARROW ESCAPE FOR MORE

The Victim Was Buried Under Hundreds of Pounds of Fish—Collapse Due to the Overloading of the Floors.

Boston, Sept. 29.—Part of the storehouse of the Gorton-Pew Fisheries company in East Boston collapsed just before noon yesterday. The accident was fatal to one man, Edward Dexter, a foreman, who was buried beneath the debris.

The accident happened at 333 and 335 Marginal street, near Jeffrey's Point. The building is about 250 feet long, extending from the street back onto a wharf, and it was about 60 feet of the southern side, over the water, that fell without any warning soon after eleven o'clock.

The building is four stories high and was filled with dried salt fish. Dexter was at work on the second story and when the collapse occurred he was buried under hundreds of pounds of fish, a large part of which was precipitated into the water, together with numerous barrels and boxes and portions of the wooden framework of the building.

Immediately, D. L. Adamsen telephoned to a neighboring fire house and aid, and a hook and ladder truck and crew were rushed to the scene and Dexter was dug from beneath the debris.

The victim was removed to his home at 236 Webster street, but was dead when a physician examined him. Dexter was thirty-five years of age and the father of four children. He was employed as foreman for the Gorton-Pew Fisheries company, whose headquarters are at Gloucester. Thomas J. Carroll, the general manager of the company at Gloucester, was quickly made acquainted with the accident and he hurried to the scene.

The cause of the collapse is said to have been an overloading of the floor, but this is denied by those claiming to have an official knowledge of conditions, their claim being that there was only the usual amount of fish on hand.

Had the accident happened an hour later the catastrophe might have been more serious, for in the stream lay the schooner Ida C. Silver, laden with fish, preparing to dock at the wharf. One there fully fifteen men, so it is said, would have been busily engaged in handling the cargo. There also was a lucky escape for several other men working about the place, for there were several feet with Dexter just before the accident happened.

MAY FORSAKE THE SENATE

Senator Joe Bailey of Texas Said to be so Minded

IS SELLING HIS PROPERTY

He Believes That He Has Proved His Innocence of the Accusations, But Is Sensitive Over the Small Majority Given Him.

Galveston, Tex., Sept. 29.—Following the sale of the stock farm of Senator Joseph W. Bailey in Cooke county and the disposition of other interests in Texas comes the report that he is preparing to move from Texas to Washington or New York.

It is said he will quit politics for the practice of law, and that he has the refusal of several good offers from eastern law firms.

The senator's apparent lack of interest in the campaign at first was attributed to his spell of illness, but it is now understood to have been in consequence of a plan to quit Texas and resign his seat in the Senate.

It is said his immediate relatives have encouraged his retirement from politics in this state, because it is known he has never recovered from the struggle he was forced to endure in consequence of the charges that he had befriended the Standard Oil company.

While he asserts that he established his innocence, he was hurt at the very small majority, less than 25,000, given him by the people of Texas when he made his appeal to a primary election.

A report from Gainesville, Tex., the senator's home, says: "While satisfied he fully established his innocence of the accusations made against him, Senator Bailey is sensitive, and deeply feels that his own state did not treat him with the respect due one who has labored and fought so hard for Texas. While it is not known what Mr. Bailey's plans are, his friends here would not be surprised to hear that he had taken up his residence outside the state of Texas."
