Aged Russian Patriot Leaves Cell After Nearly A Year's Imprisonment

Bail Received from England—Deposited in the Imperial Bank, and the Prisoner Is Quickly Set at Liberty.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 29.—Nicholas Tschaikovsky, the aged Russian patriot, who has been imprisoned in this city for nearly a year, was released yesterday.

The fund subscribed in England to cover the bail demanded by the Russian government for Tschaikovsky's release was received here Tuesday, and was deposited in the Imperial bank yesterday.

Tschaikovsky was taken from the prison and conveyed under escort to the gendarmie headquarters. He was set at liberty as soon as the necessary formalities had been completed.

RUSSIAN DUMA TAKES UP SITUATION IN BALKANS

Section Session of Third Parliament Is Begun.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 29.—The autumn session of the third Russian Duma was opened yesterday and the sittings of the Council of the Empire began yesterday afternoon. This is the first time a Russian parliament has come to its second session. The first and second Dumas did not survive a first session. This fact has brought out much satisfaction, as well as the hope and belief that the present Duma will be of far greater service to the country than was either the first or second.

In the Tauride palace the deputies plunged immediately into the Balkan situation by means of an urgent interpellation to which all the parties subscribed. M. Maklakov, Constitutional Democrat, made a vigorous attack on the government. He declared that the annexation of Bosnia and Herzegovina by Austria-Hungary was a national question and that the voice of the government to gag the voice of the nation were intolerable.

EXTERNAL REMEDY FOR ECZEMA

Why Salves Fail While a Simple Liquid Has Accomplished Thousands of Cures.

It is now thoroughly established among the best medical authorities that eczema is purely a skin disease, due to a germ and curable only through surgery. It is not a blood disease at all; in fact, thousands of people suffer with skin disease and are perfectly healthy otherwise, and therefore prove they have no diseased blood.

Smear salves cannot reach the germs because they do not penetrate the skin. The only way to reach the germs is by means of a penetrating liquid.

Such a liquid can be obtained by simply mixing ordinary oil of wintergreen with thymol, glycerine and other healing agents. This compound known as D. D. D. Prescription stops the itch instantly—and the cure all appear permanent. In fact, it took thousands of cures, case after case, before the best scientific authorities were convinced of the absolute merit of this remedy. The effect of D. D. D. Prescription in numbing the itching eczema germs is seen within one minute after the first application. We especially recommend D. D. D. Soap in connection with this treatment.

the fact that it had just gone through a grueling contest with Cornell. Norwich sent three fresh men into its line-up.

How the Game Went. Norwich kicked off to Vermont, Watkins taking the ball on the 20-yard line. Vermont gained five yards on a cross buck. Buckmiller punted to Reid. Norwich failed to make the distance and the ball went to Vermont on downs.

Vermont made a good gain with a double pass and plunges through the line. Adams, the Vermont fullback, carried the ball over the line for a touchdown. Pierce punted the ball in and Watkins made a fair catch on the 20-yard line, but failed to kick the goal.

Vermont kicked off to Norwich and Reid got the ball on the 15-yard line and advanced it eight yards. Barney worked the right end for a gain of 20 yards. Norwich again advanced the ball by a forward pass. Norwich here worked a trick play which resulted in a touchdown. The play consisted of a pass by Reid to Adams, which the latter quickly returned to Reid after feinting to another player, and Reid made a full 40-yard run for a touchdown. Damon kicked the goal, making the score six to five in favor of Norwich.

The next kick-off was caught by Slavin on the 20-yard line, and he advanced the ball five yards. Vermont failed to make the distance on the next play and punted. Reid catching the ball. Reid made a 10-yard run around left end. Norwich attempted a forward pass, which was blocked by Reid, who fell on the ball within 20 yards of Norwich's goal. Pierce Vermont bucked the line and on the third attempt Watkins worked a criss-cross rush and took the ball over the line for a touchdown. Pierce punted in and Watkins caught the ball on the 15-yard line and kicked the goal, making the score 11 to 6 in favor of Vermont.

When Buckmiller kicked off, he put the ball over the goal line to Reid, who punted from the 25-yard line to Pierce, who gained two yards more. Barney gained four yards around right end and then went through the line for five more. Norwich lost on two attempted bucks into the line and Reid punted to Pierce on Vermont's 25-yard line just as the half time whistle blew.

The Second Half. Buckmiller kicked to Barney on Norwich's 15-yard line, but Norwich was unable to make the distance and the ball went to Vermont on downs. Watkins gained five yards by a buck through the line and Slavin gained a total of 11 yards in two runs, the latter of which was around left end, taking the ball to Norwich's five-yard line. Vermont bucked the line for a gain of two yards. Again Vermont bucked the military team but with no gain. On the third and final attempt the ball went to Norwich on downs within two feet of the goal line.

Reid punted and Vermont got the ball. Vermont penalized 15 yards for an offense. Vermont punted on the third down and Clark caught the ball. Norwich worked a forward pass for a seven-yard gain and Norwich then punted to Pierce on Vermont's 30-yard line. Vermont bucked the line twice for a total gain of six yards. On the third down Vermont punted to Carswell, who caught the ball on the 40-yard line and the latter made a five-yard gain.

Norwich punted and Vermont got the ball. Vermont immediately punted and Reid took the ball on the 25-yard line. Norwich worked the forward pass for a gain and Carswell made a right end run for a gain of nine yards just before the whistle blew.

The line-up: U. V. M. N. U. Buck, Gebhardt, r e. Hemingway, Carswell, Light, Buckmiller, r f. Carpenter, Thomas, c. Campbell, Hughes, l g. Hawley, Shlooski, Reed, l e. Smith, Pierce, q b. Reid, Watkins (capt.), h b. Maynard, Clark, Slavin, r h b. Barney, Campbell, Adams, l b. Damon (capt.).

Referee, Burleigh; umpire, Radman; line judge, Hickman; head linesman, Carswell; assistant linesmen, Cole and Miser; time, 20 minute halves.

An Unfortunate Paraphrase. Gen. Sheridan used to take delight in telling the following: "A young man seated at dinner one time said to his wife: 'Ellen, if you are good at guessing, here is a conundrum for you. If the devil should lose his tail where would he go to get another one?' 'After some time spent in guessing she gave it up. 'Well,' said he, 'where they retail spirits.' 'Eager to get it off, she hastened to a lady friend with: 'Oh, Marion, I have such a nice conundrum. Joe just told me of it. I know you can't guess it. If the devil should lose his tail, where would he go to get another?' 'Her friend Marion, having given it up, she said: 'Where they sell liquor by the glass.' 'Marion couldn't see the point of the joke.'—Philadelphia Ledger.

Too Rough. "No, I can't stick it any longer. I'm off tomorrow." "Why, the shootin's good enough, isn't it?" "Oh, the shootin's all right. It's the management's so rotten. One expects to rough it a bit—luncheon without a hand, and so forth—but today—drink! champagne out of claret glasses! Well, hang it all, there's a limit!"—Punch.

CAMPAIGN AT ITS HEIGHT

Heavy Artillery is Centered in New York

THE CITY IS HONORED

By Two Presidential Candidates—Both Are Making Many Speeches—Grand Climax at Madison Square Last Evening.

Midweek of the last week of this remarkable presidential campaign finds the political battle at its height and the "heavy artillery" of the two leading parties at work chiefly in New York city and state. That New York is regarded by both as of crucial importance in the canvass is evidenced in the presence of both presidential candidates and the Republican vice-presidential candidate, John W. Kern, the Democratic candidate for the vice-presidency, continues his tour in Indiana. Mr. Hisgen, candidate of the Independence party for the presidency, was in Connecticut yesterday; Chaflin and Watkins of the Prohibitionists were scheduled to speak at Atlantic City and Baltimore, and Eugene V. Debs is preaching the Socialist cause in Illinois. Of the members of the cabinet Secretary of State Root spoke last night in Cincinnati, Secretary of War Wright at Richmond, Va., and Secretary Straus in New York City. At the same time, in every nook and corner of the country, speakers of lesser note, members of both houses of Congress, candidates for all manner of offices, state and local, and "pithblinders" of every grade, in halls, from cartails and barrel heads, are pounding away, each at what he regards as "the enemy."

Yesterday was Mr. Taft's big day in Greater New York, as Monday was Mr. Bryan's. After a day's series of speeches in cities and towns in the Hudson river valley between New York and Troy, he returned to New York to be the central figure in the biggest Republican day of the present campaign in the metropolis. Mr. Taft's train reached New York shortly before noon, and from that time until midnight or later almost every moment of the candidate's time was occupied with meetings in various parts of the city. At noon he had an engagement to speak before a big gathering at West Street "Farm," and the day closed with a big mass meeting in Madison Square Garden. The interim was spent by Mr. Taft and his party at many meetings on Manhattan Island and in the Bronx. Governor Hughes accompanied Mr. Taft on part of his flying trip and was one of the principal speakers at the big Madison Square meeting last night.

Two hours before Mr. Taft reached New York, William J. Bryan was away on another swing up-state through Tarrytown, Ossining and half a dozen other towns and cities to Albany and Schenectady before he reached Troy, where his day of activity closed at a big mass meeting last night.

Lewis Stuyvesant Chanler, the Democratic candidate for governor, remains in Albany, Oct. 29.—A sudden change in sentiment in favor of the re-election of Governor Hughes was indicated in the announcement by a well known Albany broker that $10,000 had been sent him by a prominent Jersey City man, who wants to have it placed at even money on Hughes. A well known Albany restaurant keeper announced he had $7,000 to be placed at even money on the governor.

Up to a week ago odds were offered on the election of Lieut. Gov. Chanler, with few takers; now there seems to be an absence of Chanler money, with plenty to wager on Hughes. The change is looked upon here as remarkable.

MITCHELL AVOIDS POLITICS. He Favors Election of Trades Unionists or Their Friends.

Pittsburg, Oct. 29.—John Mitchell, ex-president of the United Mine Workers, has sent a letter to John J. Oates, a local labor leader, in which he says: "The newspapers have published so many conflicting statements relative to my position politically that I hardly know what to say in relation thereto. In some papers I am condemned for supporting Mr. Tompkins, and in others I am accused of failing to support him. Now, as a matter of fact, I am in perfect harmony with the political program of the American Federation of Labor, that is to say, I favor the election of trade unionists or the friends of trade unionists, regardless of political affiliations."

PRESIDENT'S LETTER UPHELD. Secretary Donnelly Indorses His View of Taft's Labor Record.

Washington, Oct. 29.—President Roosevelt yesterday made public a long letter from Samuel B. Donnelly, secretary of the general arbitration board, of the New York building trades, in which Mr. Donnelly upholds the president in his presentation of the record of Judge Taft as set forth by him in a letter to P. H. Grace of Binghamton, N. Y., recently.

DISCONTENT IN NEW HAMPSHIRE. Many Republicans Said to Be Turning to Carr.

Berlin, N. H., Oct. 29.—Evidence of the Republican discontent throughout New Hampshire, and the intention of prominent members to bolt the party and transfer their support to Clarence E. Carr, the Democratic candidate for governor, was furnished to Mr. Carr in person when he reached here Tuesday. The candidate had scarcely arrived before he was visited by a delegation of citizens, many of them Republicans. Many told Mr. Carr that they had made up their minds to vote for him, with the hope that conditions throughout the state might be improved. Their complaints were mainly of neglect by the government in the matter of expenditure of public money for needed improvements. They said Governor Floyd struck out items affecting Coos county, saying, "the sun only shines three months in the year up in Coos county, anyway, so it doesn't make much difference."

The General Demand

of the Well-Informed of the World has always been for a simple, pleasant and efficient liquid laxative remedy of known value; a laxative which physicians could sanction for family use because its component parts are known to them to be wholesome and truly beneficial in effect, acceptable to the system and gentle, yet prompt, in action.

In supplying that demand with its excellent combination of Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna, the California Fig Syrup Co. proceeds along ethical lines and relies on the merits of the laxative for its remarkable success.

That is one of many reasons why Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna is given the preference by the Well-Informed. To get its beneficial effects always buy the genuine—manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., only, and for sale by all leading druggists. Price fifty cents per bottle.

RIDDERS GIVE $37,000. Herman Contributes $10,000 and Sons the Rest.

New York, Oct. 29.—One of the orders of William J. Bryan, Democratic candidate for the presidency, was that no contribution for more than $10,000 should be received from any one man. Yesterday it was announced that the following contributions had been received:

Herman Ridder $10,000
Victor F. Ridder 9,000
Bernard H. Ridder 9,000
Joseph E. Ridder 9,000
Total $37,000

Three of the Ridders are sons of the first named, Herman Ridder, who is treasurer of the Democratic national committee.

MORSE MUST STAND ALONE

He is Finally Shaken Off by Curtis

THE LATTER WARNED HIM

Of Coming Failure—So the Farmer Bank President Says—Evidence Comes as a Surprise to Morse's Counsel.

New York, Oct. 29.—When Alfred H. Curtis, formerly president of the National bank of North America, resumed his testimony yesterday the trial on charges against him and Charles W. Morse of violating national banking laws, he said weekly reports were made by him to the bank's directors showing the loans, collateral, reserve, etc. There was a rule in the bank, he said, that it must have on hand at the end of the week cash representing 25 per cent. of its net deposits.

Taking up the government's testimony regarding the lack of reserve in the National bank of North America, Mr. Oletto, counsel for Curtis, endeavored to prove that fully half the 53 clearing house banks had about that time but 20 to 25 and 24 per cent. of their deposits on hand in cash. U. S. Atty Stimson objected to questions along this line and Judge Hough sustained him.

Mr. Oletto next took up the various "dummy" loans made on "ice" at the time trading in the stock was so brisk. Many of the Whiting "dummy" loans Mr. Curtis could not recall without consulting the records and some of them he could not remember at all. Mr. Curtis told Mr. Morse paying off with his personal check for $248,000 the total Whiting loans then outstanding. The profit on this loan to the bank was $30,000, he said.

Mr. Curtis said that although he had referred in letter to "our ice holdings" the stock in question really was the property of Mr. Morse. He said the directors generally referred to the ice as "ours" because the bank was getting the profits.

With reference to the government's allegation that shares of $12,500 and $19,000 due to the Whitney loan were made against the bank's commission account, Mr. Curtis said he could not recall whether he had ordered the two sums charged as a loss to the bank or not. There were profits of $154,000 which Morse had made for the institution on ice, he said.

In an effort to clear his client from the implication that he was acquiescent in all Morse's schemes, Judge Oletto read a letter written by Curtis to Morse in June, 1907, in which a statement of the bank's condition was made with a request for action that should decrease the long-time loans and increase the bank's supply of cash. The letter was never sent to Morse, but shown to him privately, according to the witness. This was on the advice of John H. Flager, who told him that Morse was a "very rich man and very resourceful," and would surely straighten things out. In the letter there was referred to the fact that the bank's position was anything but a safe one, principally because of the large outstanding loans to Morse enterprises.

THE CHIDE OF THE NIGHT RIDERS TAKEN

Evidence Enough to Hang at Least Four—Women Whipped by Gang.

Samburg, Tenn., Oct. 29.—The ring-leader of the night riders in this section, it is believed, is a prisoner at Camp Nemo. His name is Garrett Johnson. It is the general opinion that Johnson, if he can be compelled to talk, could tell more about the recent outrage than any other man under arrest. Not less than forty men alleged to have been connected actively with night riders in this vicinity are under arrest, and the authorities believe enough evidence has already been collected to hang at least four of them.

The confession of "Tid" Burton is the sensation of the day, both here and at Union City, and it is believed he has not yet told all he knows about the killing of Capt. Rankin. John F. Cockran, the man captured after a chase on the lake, has confessed that the night rider outrages have included the whipping of women. One woman was whipped for leaving her husband and another for being in ill repute.

The latest reports to reach here from Tippecanoe is that Burton has broken down completely, and that his confession implicates 300 men from Ohion county. Even the oath taken by night riders has been confessed—though the officials will not make public the wording.

SAY HE FIRED FIVE BULLETS. Lachapelle and Wife Rolled Under Bed.

Brunswick, Me., Oct. 28.—Leonce Ouellette last night entered the room of Mr. and Mrs. Enzebe Lachapelle and fired five shots from a new 38-caliber revolver, according to the charge of the Lachapelles. They say that at the first shot they rolled out of their bed and under it, and so escaped the bullets.

Then while Lachapelle fought Ouellette the woman rushed out half dressed and called assistance. Constable Louis Therberge ran to the house and had Ouellette partially subdued when constable Joseph B. Morrell and officer Auguste St. Pierre arrived. The sight of them aroused Ouellette anew and he fought like a demon before he was overpowered.

Ouellette is locked up. The charge against him will probably be assault with intent to kill.

The shooting and fight happened in a practically dark tenement on the east side of Main street.

Mrs. Lachapelle is a niece of Ouellette, and the Lachapelles, all lived in the tenement.

It is said Ouellette objected when his niece was married about three years ago and had never entirely forgiven her.

Mrs. J. I. Petrie Loses $1,700 by Daring Theft.

San Francisco, Oct. 29.—Mrs. J. I. Petrie of New York, at present staying at a local hotel, was the victim of a daring robbery in a Larkin street car Tuesday night. A hand satchel containing eleven rings set with diamonds, $80 in cash, a diamond bracelet, and other jewelry, the whole valued at $1,700, was slipped from under her arm when she had placed it while carrying a number of parcels.

UNABLE TO RELEASE POURN. The Federal Judge Rules Against the Petition.

New York, Oct. 29.—An effort to secure freedom without the formality of further hearings for Jan Janoff Pourn, the Russian refugee, accused of various crimes and under detention pending decision upon the Russian government's application for his extradition, came to naught Tuesday through a decision by Judge Holt in the United States court here. Congressman Herbert Parsons, counsel for Pourn, asked the court on Monday to vacate the second warrant to arrest secured by counsel for the Russian government, which was served upon Pourn immediately upon the receipt here of an order from Washington releasing him from custody under the first warrant. The ground of the application was that no certificate had been issued by the secretary of state to the Russian representatives as provided in the treaty with Russia covering cases of the kind. The court held that the issuance of such a certificate in the first proceeding was sufficient. Judge Holt referred the Pourn matter to Samuel Hitchcock, United States commissioner in extradition proceedings, instructing Commissioner Hitchcock "to proceed with the hearing and take what further action is necessary in the case."

FLEECE CLASSMATES. Charge Made Against F. B. Humphrey, a Cornell Man.

Chicago, Oct. 29.—F. B. Humphrey, a graduate of Cornell university, class of '04, was arrested Tuesday in Chicago on a charge of fleecing former classmates by means of worthless checks. Humphrey is 30 years old and a son of the late L. A. Humphrey, a wealthy shoe merchant of Elmira, N. Y. While in college he was editor-in-chief of the Cornellian and the class book and was a member of the Delta Upsilon fraternity. The police say he has swindled old college chums in Chicago and other Western cities out of more than $5,000 since August.

He was arrested on complaint of Horace P. Sailor, who said Humphrey attempted to pass a worthless check for $25 on him.

Humphrey denied that he attempted to swindle his former classmates. He said his mother died in July and left him considerable money, which he believed had been deposited with an Ohio bank.

COURT TAKES CAR LINES. Court Acts to Protect The Cleveland Public.

Cleveland, Oct. 29.—The Central Trust company of New York as trustee for the bondholders of the Cleveland railway company yesterday filed a suit in the Federal court praying that a receiver be appointed for the Municipal Traction company, now operating the lines of the former corporation in this city. Judge Taylor of the federal court issued a temporary order tying up all the funds held by the Municipal company, except such as may be necessary for the payment of wages.

The Central Trust company of New York has a mortgage for $8,276,000 upon the property which it was given for the security of bonds. The action is the result of the recent referendum vote which practically left the car companies without a franchise and the property in a chaotic condition with conflicting interests claiming rights and ownership. The new court action, it is said, will insure the public adequate railway service while the affairs of the opposing interests will be straightened out. The hearing is set for next Monday.
