

Black Mercerized Petticoats

Saturday 69 Cents Each.

A representative of a petticoat manufacturer we never before bought of was sent to Barre with instructions to open an account with The Homer Fitts Co. To get us interested he shows us a black mercerized petticoat, a better one we have not been able to sell for two years for less than $1.00. We wanted one we could put out for a sale for 69c and we made him an offer—Saturday you buy them while they last, as good as we have sold for $1.00, better than we have ever sold for 79 cents.

Saturday 69 Cents Each.

There is a lot of just such interesting matter in Smith's ad., and some things you will acknowledge are of value to anybody to know. Turn to it now; it won't take you long to read it.

The electric railroad did a rushing business for the football game at Inter-city park yesterday afternoon and Barre took the short end of the service. Only one car was in evidence to accommodate the fans that wished to go to the game on the 2:15 schedule, and that was a small closed one. The car was loaded chock-a-block before it got to Depot square and men and boys were hanging anywhere that they could get a hand hold. The indicator registered 94 fares for a car that was built to accommodate 40 or 50 people.

Speaking of "A Knight for a Day," the Boston Record of July 14th said: "You'd never think the thermometer was where it was, nor the season where it was, to watch the audience at the Tremont last night under the comic serenity of 'A Knight for a Day.' Rather, you'd think from the alternating roars and applause throughout that period was at some stage of some week in a regular season." The musical success is due here at the opera house Friday evening, October 30.
