Another big wrestling match will come off at the opera house on Saturday night, when Fritz Hanson of Worcester, Mass., and Jack Grace of New York come together. For three weeks you have been told through the columns of this paper something of the domestic coal situation. Did you take the hint? Shippers have advanced the prices and the local dealers have to follow. Before another advance, send your order for your winter supply to Collier & Richardson, Depot square. They have the best grades of coal at the right prices, also nice dry wood. Do it now.

One of the most prominent and worthy attractions at the opera house this season will be Henry B. Harris' production of "The Lion and the Mouse." Few dramas produced during the past twenty-five years have enjoyed the triumph and success of this play, founded on the conditions that surround the workings of the trusts and money kings of to-day. The high standard reached by Mr. Harris as a producing manager will be maintained in the coming engagement of "The Lion and the Mouse," and it would seem that little more recommendation will be necessary. Thursday, Nov. 12.

ANNUAL FALL OPENING

Saturday, November 7th, 1908.

DEAR SIR: We wish to call your attention to the date of our Annual Fall Opening, Saturday, November 7th, 1908, and to extend a special invitation to yourself and family to attend on that date or during the following week.

We have fully succeeded in keeping pace at every step in the wonderful improvements which have characterized the making of Ready-Made Clothes for the past few years, and we may say, with perfect truth, that there is no better selected stock or assortment even in the large center of population than that which we offer for your selection this Fall. We are exclusive agents here for Rosman Union Made Clothing. You will find them most satisfactory for style, fit and wearing qualities. Their style is permanent, unlike a very large percentage of Ready-Made or Custom-Made Clothes. We fully guarantee them against any imperfections of fabric or workmanship. You will find our line of Hats, Shoes, Gloves and other furnishings exceedingly attractive and very low-priced, considering the quality offered. Hoping you may find time to attend our opening. We remain yours sincerely
