The new vaudeville feature at the Bijou theatre last evening made a hit. Mr. Victor Louzon is the very capable funny man who put on the clever Dutch clog dancing and singing act. The audience were well pleased with his efforts, as was evidenced by their enthusiastic applause. He will be at the Bijou again to-night. The pictures are of the "likable" sort, and the song is some better than the general run of sentimental music. Everything taken together, the entertainment makes a good, clean show to witness.

EAST BARRE.

The local N. G. T. U. met with Mrs. Avery last evening in connection with a gentleman's night nearly 40 were present. A short but amusing farce by the ladies was given after which there was singing "The Minute Gun at Sea" by Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Dickey, Mr. Earl and Miss Marion Dickey. A peanut hunt followed in which Mrs. W. C. Nye succeeded in getting the largest number of peanuts, despite the fact that some were appropriated by the brothers present, she winning the prize. An old fashioned spelling match with A. C. Dickey as teacher and Mrs. H. E. Sargent and H. B. Partridge as leaders, gave the floor to the Dr. and his estimable wife at the close, it being the Dr's wish not to compete against those of his own household. Games and charades were next in order, of which some were funny. Refreshments of cake and ice cream were served and at a late hour the guests departed, feeling that these gatherings were very pleasant and we hope profitable ones.

Mr. Harris has taken advantage of the opportunity to choose the better players from two companies for their respective roles in the company to be seen here, a fact which should insure a thorough interpretation of each part. Reports from the trail claim the company to be the best yet seen in "The Lion and the Mouse," which is a most complimentary recommendation for the present organization.
