TALK OF THE TOWN.

Children's cloaks at Perry's. Thanksgiving linen sale at Fitts'. A swell show at the Theatorium to-day.

O. W. Averill left yesterday for Port Chester, N. Y., to work. New fleeced wrappers for $1.25 and $1.50 at Veale & Knight's.

The quality of "Mother's Bread" cannot be duplicated in the city.

J. P. Austin left last night for a business visit in Montreal.

A. J. Young shot a 150-pound deer in Moretown yesterday afternoon.

A year's tuition in music saved by buying his piano of H. A. Gould.

The real show, the real pictures, and the real place. The Theatorium—that's us.

Burke Brothers' granite plant was shut down yesterday and to-day because of trouble with the motor.

Delicious lobster, chicken and oyster patties at the Rathskeller until further notice. Keep track of adv. on fourth page.

Dwight Cutler finishes work at Sowden & Lyon's to-morrow and commences his duties as clerk at the Eastern Estate Tea store.

Regular meeting of local No. 241, R. C. I. P. A., in K. of P. hall, Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Per order W. M. Thayer.

Paul Pierson will deliver in East Barre, Westerville and Grantville Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week. Eastern Estate Tea Co.

Hunters can get cartridges, loaded or empty shells, caps, wads, loaders, primers, etc., etc., at a great discount at L. M. Averill's, up one flight.

Tickets are now on sale for "The Lion and the Mouse," at the opera house next Thursday evening. Electric cars will run to Montpelier after the performance.

Among arrivals at the Hotel Otis yesterday were C. H. Hosford, Woodsville, N. H.; H. H. Violon, Albany, N. Y.; T. D. Simmons, Boston; V. P. Bliss, Waterbury, Me.; A. H. Whitney, Boston; William Hill, Belle Isle, Maine; James Whitney, Cooperstown, N. Y.; B. A. Patterson, New York; Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Estabrook, White River Junction.

One who was fortunate enough to see Mr. Louison in his comic tramp acrobatic stunt last night at the Bijou theatre, witnessed as good a vaudeville act as is often seen in such theatres as Kelly's, Boston. He did some chair balancing tricks that looked well-nigh impossible, and his make-up was not too bad, either. It takes enterprise and cash to get such a man here, but the Bijou hesitates at nothing that will better their programs.

The pictures are better than seen at lots of five-cent theatres, and the song just fits in to make a well-rounded entertainment. The Louison stunt to-night will equal last night's, although a little different.

MARSHFIELD.

The Hartson family from Plainfield are moving to the Mayette farm.

Mr. E. W. McWain of Rochester is the guest of his daughter, Mrs. A. T. Davis.

Mrs. E. A. Rosebrook is to be librarian of the Jaquith library the coming year commencing her duties as such November 17th.

Mrs. Elijah Bemis finished her work as librarian of the Jaquith library next Saturday night, November 14th. Mrs. Bemis has been librarian for two years, proving herself very correct and efficient in the work.

Leslie C. Tucker and Silas Urwin are in Woodbury stopping at Fred Thomas' and enjoying the week off on deer. Several deer have already been killed in this town. In some instances the farmers have become familiar with having them in their fields and pastures and dislike having them killed.

The ladies of the M. E. church will give a chicken pie supper in the vestry of the church next Thursday, Nov. 12th, from five to ten o'clock p. m. The usual bountiful repast will be served, at the popular prices. A concert will be given by the choir at half after seven. Every one cordially invited.

To His Aunt's Daguerreotype. That quaint poke bonnet cost no less Nor more than dollars four, I guess; Her flowered frock, perhaps a five; The palm leaf shawl, as I'm alive, No more than ten; her suit of pink, So soft and sweet, five more, I think. That's twenty-four. Oh, could I find A girl like this, just to my mind— Such hair, such eyes and such a face, Such shoulders carried with such grace.

So dear, so simple—what not— I'd kneel and woo her on the spot! —Brooklyn Life.

No Room For Doubt. Miss DePayne—I wonder if Mr. Wiley knows that I'm an heiress? Miss Peachley—Was he attentive to you? Miss DePayne—Unusually so. Miss Peachley—Then he knows.—Chicago News.

Just Wishin'. Now, wish for the weather— The moonlight in the lane, An' the time you'll take your sweet heart.

To the grindin' of the cane. When you'll feel your heart a-goin' Like a silver band a-playin', An' you're takin' of your sweetheart To the grindin' of the cane. —Atlanta Constitution.

A Natural Inference. He—See that pretty girl over there? She annoys me all the time by writing me letters. She—Really? How does she get them past the attendants?—Lippincott's Magazine.

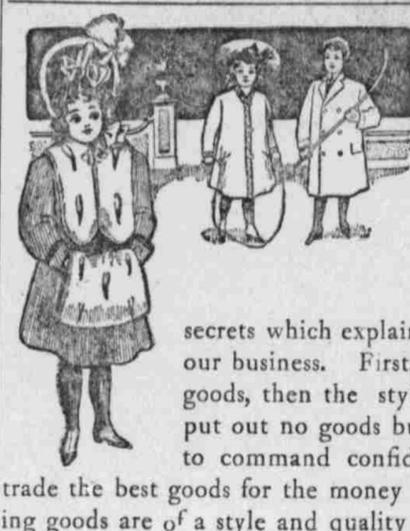

The King's Business. Union afternoon services will be held at four o'clock, as follows: Tuesday, Baptist church; Wednesday, Presbyterian church; Thursday, Congregational church; Friday, Methodist church.

Teachers' Examinations. A public examination will be held in Barre, Friday and Saturday, Nov. 20 and 21.

The Real Secret of Our Success in Business

Things don't just "happen" in the garment business any more than they do in the farming industry. There are reasons, open secrets which explain the steady growth and success of our business. First, of course, comes the quality of goods, then the style, finish and workmanship. We put out no goods but what are of a quality and finish to command confidence. Our aim is to give to the trade the best goods for the money it is possible to get. The following goods are of a style and quality to interest all.

- CHILDREN'S COATS. We have just received some more of those fine Broadcloth Quilted Lined Coats in reds, navy blue and brown. AT $3.98 is a Mixed Cloth Coat of good style and finish, goods in an all-wool, smooth-finished cloaking. Will wear like iron and is a good style. AT $5.50 is a line of fine All-wool Broadcloth Coats, made in a nobby style, has velvet inlaid collar
