Judge W. H. Taylor has overruled the motion made in Washington county court by the defendant that the verdict of $6,500 be set aside in the Barre quarry case of Praser vs. Blanchard, tried some time ago. The case will now go to supreme court on exceptions.
For Sale—A light lumber wagon, with pole and shafts, box body; sled, with pole and shafts; Amesbury top buggy; upholstered sleigh; one other sleigh; pair of work harnesses; pair driving harnesses; two single harnesses, all nearly new; one row boat. All will be sold cheap. A. E. Batchelder, 55 Merchant street. Tel. 240.

TALK OF THE TOWN

See special in linen damask at Fitts'. Don't miss seeing the real pictures at the Theatatorium.
Mrs. Catherine Sears went to Brattleboro on business to-day.
Warren Greason of Williamstown was a visitor in the city to-day.
"For the Love of Gold," a strong dramatic subject, at the Theatatorium.
Roy McDonald returned last night from a few days' visit in Boston.
There will be a meeting for women only in the Hedding M. E. church, Sunday night, at 7 o'clock. Mr. Dickson will sing and Dr. Toy will preach the sermon. All women in the city invited.
That Charles Klein's "The Lion and the Mouse" retains a powerful hold on Barre theatre-goers was shown by the attendance at the opera house last night. Although this is the third successive annual visit of the play, it was greeted by a large audience which enthused over the fine details of the piece and recalled the actors again and again. The play never seems to grow old.

A grounded wire in the fire alarm system caused the fire bell to strike at six o'clock last evening and burned out a coil in the indicator box at the station. The inspector, P. M. Carr, and Chief Gladding were still looking for the seat of trouble this forenoon.
Alderman Homer C. Ladd expects to go to Boston to-night on business, and since he is a Dartmouth college man, it would not be at all surprising if his business should take him over to the Stadium in Cambridge, where the New Hampshire college meets Harvard on the gridiron to-morrow.
For three weeks you have been told through the columns of this paper something of the domestic coal situation. Did you take the hint? Shippers have advanced the prices and the local dealers have to follow. Before another advance see your order for your winter supply to Calder & Richardson, Depot square. They have the best grades of coal at the right prices, also nice dry wood. Do it now.
Died, in Rockford, Ill., on October 15, Ingalls Carleton, at the age of about 83 years. Mr. Carleton was the eldest son of the late Jeremiah Carleton of Barre, and cousin of Judge Hiram Carleton and Mrs. E. C. Osgood of Montpelier, and of Edwin Carleton of Barre. He was born and lived to manhood in Marshfield. He then went to Rockford, where he had a long and successful business career. Many who knew him there have said that throughout his name has been without reproach. He leaves a wife, one son, Leonard Ingalls, three grandsons, one granddaughter, also a brother, Silas Carleton, who has been nearly all his life a resident of Marshfield.

The big clothing sale, A. A. Smith & Brother's, is booming in fine shape. The high quality of the suits and overcoats they are offering, together with the very low price put upon them, has been the principal reason for the popularity of this sale. It's seldom Barre has a chance to buy fall and winter clothes at greatly reduced prices so early in the season. The Smith store bought late, getting the sure winners, paid cash, and got a fine assortment. Read ad. to-day on page 4. Go in the store and see the bargains.

ANNUAL FALL OPENING

Saturday, November 7th, 1908.

DEAR SIR: We wish to call your attention to the date of our Annual Fall Opening, Saturday, November 7th, 1908, and to extend a special invitation to yourself and family to attend on that date or during the following week.

We have fully succeeded in keeping pace at every step in the wonderful improvements which have characterized the making of Ready-Made Clothes for the past few years, and we may say, with perfect truth, that there is no better selected stock or assortment even in the large center of population than that which we offer for your selection this Fall. We are exclusive agents here for Esomina Union Made Clothing. You will find them most satisfactory for style, fit and wearing qualities. Their style is permanent, unlike a very large percentage of Ready-Made or Custom-Made Clothes. We fully guarantee them against any imperfections of fabric or workmanship. You will find our line of Hats, Shoes, Gloves and other furnishings exceedingly attractive and very low-priced, considering the qualities offered. Hoping you may find time to attend our opening. We remain yours sincerely
