EARLY IN THE SEASON—NOW IS THE BEST TIME TO BUY SLEIGHS and get the benefit of them all winter. You need a new sleigh now as much as you will any time later this season.

My stock of 50 of the best Corland Cart and Carriage Co's Sleights is here ready for your critical selection. The popular "Old Comfort" is my leader, and a better sleigh has never been made. It merits the careful attention of the discriminating buyer.

"Portland" and "Piano Box" are two of the best standard styles. Remember, all these sleights are guaranteed wood, iron and paint. They're made strong, comfortable and their good appearance has never been questioned. We also have the Sturtevant, Larabee and several other New York styles at from $25 to $45. I have a few Spring Sleights for these desiring that kind.

I have a large and varied stock of Harness and Robes of all sorts, also second-hand stock of same.

NOTE: The sleigh you want is probably here and a call of inspection will be appreciated by both of us—you and myself. Let's get together—why not act today?

The condition of Joseph Genness is somewhat improved. Archie Ballard was the guest of friends in Hardwick Sunday. Mrs. W. W. Cate of Greensboro is visiting friends in town this week. Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Allen are the happy parents of a daughter born Monday.

WASHINGTON. Henry Colby is decidedly not as well as he has been a great sufferer for many years. Mrs. George W. Downing, who is very ill, is not improving as rapidly as her many friends would like. The annual meeting of the Washington agricultural association is to be held at the town clerk's office in Washington on Monday (next) December 21, at one o'clock p. m. All stockholders are earnestly requested to be present as matters of importance are to come before the meeting. Joe, the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Fellner, met with quite a serious accident Tuesday morning. He was standing on the piazza at the school house when one of the older boys pushed him off and he fell in such a way as to dislocate the wrist, also to break one bone in the arm. He was at once taken to the office of Dr. Hutchinson who reduced the fracture and he was taken to his home. ORANGE. The Christian Endeavor society held a meeting last Sunday evening at which the following officers were chosen: President, Theron Lord; vice-president, Edna Beard; corresponding secretary, Anna Lord; treasurer, Agnes Emerson.

CHELSEA. Arthur Hill went Tuesday to Vershire to work for Mr. Stacey. Fred D. Parkhurst, who has been working in Brattleboro several weeks for his brother, has returned home. Mrs. Daniels, wife of the Rev. Fred Daniels, who has been spending several weeks with friends in Barre and vicinity, returned home last week. Mrs. Hale K. Darling and children Pauline and Hale K., Jr., returned Monday from Montpelier, where they had spent several days with Mr. Darling. Charles B. Durken, rural mail carrier on route No. 2, has moved from Harvey W. Spar's tenement on South Main street to the Philip J. Little tenement on Jail street. Miss Abbie Whitney of Tunbridge is teaching the winter term of school in the Charles Milton district. Miss Whitney is a graduate of the Randolph normal in the class of '08. Fred Hall has moved from the Sargent place on Pleasant street, recently purchased by Norman W. Hunt, to the Dr. Smith place on South Main street, which was recently purchased by Curtis Hall.

Mrs. Alval Carpenter, who lives on the West hill, is in very poor health this winter and her daughter, Mrs. Albert Banister, has abandoned teaching for the present and is at home to assist in caring for her mother. Ernest L. Rennie, who worked as a machinist last year at the local bobbin and electric light plant, and who is working at the same trade in a like plant in Gayville, was in town Monday night, returning to his work Tuesday. Simon Gage, who has been firing at the electric light plant for several months, has severed his connection with that institution and his place is taken by John Flanders. Mr. Gage has resumed his former work as a mason. Lee Whitney has finished work for Andrew L. Sprague on the West hill and is now working for George M. Medcalf on the Vershire road. Mrs. Whitney is stopping temporarily with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Sanborn, in the village. Constable D. D. Howe was in town Saturday afternoon in the capacity of official escort for Frank Kelley and Joseph Kave, who were up before Justice of the peace Homer W. Vail of Randolph, and each pleaded guilty to the charge of vagrancy and each was given thirty days in the county jail.

Among those who were in town Tuesday on business were A. E. Whitcomb of Washington, A. D. Reed of Brookfield, John G. Sherburne, Elbert I. Clafin, of Randolph, Herbert D. Flint, Elbridge Holman, Selva Thayer, Rolla Thayer, Frank Cleveland, Heber Farnsworth, Guy Clough, Clyde Fisher, George Ford, Willis Howard of Brantree; Horatio Foss of Tunbridge, and Charles M. Waldo of Randolph. The case of G. S. Melendy vs. I. B. Andrews, which was on trial ten days, was given to the jury on Friday morning and after wrestling with it all day they returned through their foreman, J. K. Darling, a verdict for the plaintiff to recover $750 and his costs. R. M. Harvey for plaintiff and D. S. Conant and E. W. Smith for the defendant.

RANDOLPH. Lyman Hutchinson returned from a trip to Montpelier and Barre on Wednesday. Mrs. A. A. Sanford of Malden, Mass., arrived here Monday night for a several days' stay with relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Charles DuBois of Winchester, Mass., are in town for a few days to attend the funeral of Mrs. Susan Robinson. Best Brothers of Barre are about to open a moving picture show in the O'Connor block. It is expected if arrangements can be completed that they will open on Monday, December 21. Among those from out of town to be present at the burial of M. E. Yarrington on Tuesday were Mrs. E. L. Clifton of Manchester, N. H., Mrs. M. E. Farrington, Dr. and Mrs. Hubbell and daughter, Evelyn, who accompanied the remains here from Northfield. F. J. Bunnell was summoned to St. Albans the first of the week by the critical illness of his mother with pneumonia, which resulted in her death occurring on Monday. The funeral services were held on Wednesday afternoon at that place. The funeral of Mrs. Susan Robinson was held yesterday from her late home on Randolph avenue, the Rev. Dr. Homer White officiating. The bearers were Lyman Hutchinson, O. R. Greene, M. H. Miller and G. I. Martin and interment was made in the South-village cemetery. Twenty of the business men of town assembled in the office of J. C. Sherburne on Tuesday evening and organized a club which will be given a name later. The following officers were elected at this time: President, W. R. Sargent; vice-president, V. A. Grant; secretary, J. C. Sherburne; treasurer, O. B. Copeland; auditor, Hayden Gaylord. A committee to form by-laws composed of W. W. Sprague, E. F. Salisbury and Dr. C. J. Ruffill was also elected and another committee of three composed of Dr. F. A. Eaton, V. A. Grant and V. I. Spear to procure place and report at the next meeting appointed for Tuesday evening in the office of J. C. Sherburne.
