

Alteration and 23d Anniversary Sale

Every year for twenty-two years this store has conducted a sale on the anniversary of its opening—January 9, 1886. According to custom this event will be again celebrated. As this sale is a custom, so is the "Alteration Sale" a necessity. By the last of this month this store will be in the hands of the carpenters and painters, so it becomes necessary every department shall reduce its stock—all surplus goods MUST BE SOLD.

READ EVERY ITEM THAT FOLLOWS—We did not deem an elaborate description of each article necessary—the goods and quality are so well known. Sale begins on appearance of this advertisement.

Elden, 14 South Main street, on Friday evening, Jan. 8, at 7:30 o'clock. Arrangements have been made to spend the evening socially and the prizes won during the past year will be presented to the winners.

The pictures at the Comique to-day are great. The laugh producing picture, "Balked at the Altar," brings many well earned laughs. "A Balloon Contest," this picture is a good production of a race to the clouds. The feature picture is a fine dramatic offering called, "On Stroke of Twelve." This is perhaps the most active subject that has been seen here in some time.

The dramatization of the famous novel, "Thorns and Orange Blossoms," is ever more interesting than the reading of it. The drama opens a wider play upon human emotions and human passions than perhaps any melodrama that has been produced. The reading public is familiar with the story. The scenery is especially adapted to the production of this play, and the company presenting it is an exceptional one. "Thorns and Orange Blossoms" will be the attraction at the opera house next Saturday afternoon and evening.
