Visit the Hoosier kitchen cabinet sale and learn how to save kitchen work.

Robert Murphy went to Braintree this morning for a few days' business trip.

S. O. Bennett went to Woodsville, N. H., to-day on a few days' business visit.

The Rev. Ariel Belloni went to St. Albans this morning on a business visit.

George Thomas left yesterday for a visit with relatives in different parts of Canada.

Miss Mabel Chandler was in Montpelier yesterday, attending the funeral of a relative.

Mrs. Anna Rimbach of Boston is a guest at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Andrew Knapp.

Druggery is a word unknown to users of the Hoosier kitchen cabinet. Attend the sale this week.

Raincoats, with the military collar, all the new patterns, from the Frank McWhorter Co., $10 to $25.

Miss Margaret Arkley, who has been acting as nurse in Williamstown, has now gone to Waterbury.

Antonio Depedro has moved onto the John Jones farm on the East hill and will carry on the place for a year.

Hornby's delicious old-fashioned butter-scotch in 5c and 10c packages. It's fine; try it. Red Cross Pharmacy.

Mrs. J. M. Kelly, who has been visiting her brother, H. H. Patch, returned to her home in Morrisville yesterday.

Mrs. Lisle McIntosh of South Royalton is visiting her sisters, Mrs. F. R. Northrop and Miss Helen Burbank, in Barre.

There will be a business meeting of the C. E. society of the Baptist church at the close of the prayer-meeting this evening.

Miss Grace Ingalls has been in Northfield this week, being called there by the illness of her sister's husband, George Tillotson, who had a shock recently.

Just received, another barrel of those old-fashioned horsebound drops. Often imitated at home and outside, but they are never equalled. Red Cross Pharmacy.

The Theatorium has a good bill as usual. "The Detectives of the Italian Bureau" is one of those sensational pictures and pleases the large crowds at both the afternoon and evening sessions.

On Sunday, March 21, at the nine o'clock mass, the Ladies' Auxiliary, A. O. H., will receive holy communion in a body. Members are earnestly requested to receive at this mass. Take the front seats of middle aisle.

The firemen went out in their exercise sleigh, in response to a telephone call last evening at six, for a hot chimney fire in the house of Former Fire Chief Charles H. Campbell on Elm street. They took along some hand chemicals and soon had the trouble remedied. The house is occupied by Arthur Jones.

Every time you sweep you stir up a dust, and then inhale it into your lungs. "I'm so tired, been sweeping." Isn't it awful? Order a 35c can of Durbane and give it a trial for one week. At the end of this period, if not found satisfactory we will take it back and there will be no charge for quantity used. See adv.

Dr. M. D. Lamb, city health officer, was called to Burlington on business this afternoon, and his office will be closed until to-morrow morning. During his stay in Burlington he will visit the tuberculosis exhibit as arranged by the state board of health and make arrangements for having the same exhibit shown in Barre soon.

The Comique show to-day offers much to its patrons. "Bernard Pallacy" is certainly a work of art, the rich coloring and perfect acting making this the richest of colored pictures seen here. "Two Chinamen" is another picture that will be remembered by the patrons of this theatre. The comedy furnished by these two frightened Orientals keeps the large crowds in roars of laughter and the other pictures are good.

The indications now are that the next wrestling bout at the opera house will be between Young Gotch and Bob Somerville. Young Adams, the 19-years-old wonder, who issued a challenge at the last bout, seems to have developed a case of "cold feet" and does not care to go on with the match. Manager Hoban has received a letter from Young Gotch, in which he says he will wrestle Somerville in a mixed style, viz., one fall Greco-Roman, one fall catch-as-catch-can and if necessary for a third bout the man winning the quickest fall shall have the choice of the third style. When Young Gotch wrestled Somerville here on February 22 he was not satisfied that the local man was his master as he said that he would wrestle him any time for the entire gate receipts in a mixed style of wrestling. It is unnecessary to state that Gotch has plenty of admirers, and he offers to back himself to the amount of $100.
