

THREE SPECIALS in WOMEN'S SUITS

$10.00, $12.50 and $15.00

We have lots and lots of others but these three lines especially are the biggest values that ever came into this store. The fabrics are of the very newest weaves, pure wool or worsted in every instance—tailored as carefully and carrying a style equal to that you'll find in suits priced from $5.00 to $8.00 more.

The $10.00 Suit is made up of an all wool ombre striped serge—a very effective cloth. The coat is plain, nicely tailored, button trimmed—the skirt is gored and trimmed with buttons.

The $12.50 Suits are made up of a fine all wool serge and worsted chiffon Panama and carries a style similar to the above suit at $10.00.

The $15.00 Suit—This is the most valuable suit we shall be able to show you this season. Made up in three different style cloths, a shadow stripe and corded Panama trimmed with silk and soutache braid—plain worsteds and a wool diagonal. The styles are copies of suits of much more expense and the coats are all lined with a splendid quality satin.

If you have from $10.00 to $20.00 you want to invest in a suit your money will positively go further here than ever before.

Harold Mather of Burlington was a business visitor in the city to-day. Miss Ina Underwood went to Boston to-day for a week's visit with friends.

A few stiles still remain in those half-price suits, at the McWhorter Co. store. Don't forget the public Scotch calico ball in Miles hall Friday night, March 26.

Miss Pansy Lewis, who has returned from Boston, is ready to do spring sewing. Miss Ella Owens went to Burlington this morning for a few days' visit with relatives.

John F. Murray left this morning for Kingston, N. Y., where he is going into business. Mrs. Arthur A. Hunt and son went to Newbury yesterday for a visit with relatives.

Don't forget to attend the "Pink Social" Wednesday evening, at the Presbyterian church. Clarence A. Cobb left this morning on a two weeks' business trip to Charlestown, N. H., and Boston.

Look for the name "Shawmut" on your rubbers—they are the kind that wear. Fitts's new shoe department. Miss Georgianna Bombard has finished work at J. Ward Carver's office and Henry S. Kent is taking her place.

Miss Pinkie Lewis, who has just returned from the millinery openings in Boston, began work for Miss Kent Monday. Go to the Presbyterian church Wednesday evening and see the Japanese drill by three little girls, also the fan drill by 12 girls.

Regular meeting of Barre lodge No. 138, N. E. O. P., to-night. Several candidates to be initiated. Degree team meets at seven. The F. B. Cate Real Estate agency has sold for Jesse Church Metaalf the "Uncle Sam" lunch cart on North Main street to John T. Callaghan.

George Leich of Brooklyn, N. Y., representing the E. W. Bliss company, makers of pneumatic tools for the granite trade, is in this city on a business visit. Auction sale, Wednesday, March 31, 2 p. m., in front of D. A. Perry's residence, 21 Franklin street, Barre, one pool table and one billiard table. Sale absolute. O. H. Hale, auctioneer.

I wouldn't miss seeing that flower garden for a fair, would you Mary? No, you just bet I wouldn't, and they say the mandolin club is going to be there, too. Congregational church, March the 26th.

An adjourned meeting of Barre branch, G. C. L. A., will be held in the opera house Wednesday evening, March 24, at 7 o'clock, for the purpose of voting on amendments and revisers' report on constitution. A. M. Smith, Sec'y.

Alessandrina Termini Aloddi. Maestra elementare patenata nella R. Scuola Normale di Cremona (Italia) fa noto che il 1o di Aprile po. o. aprira nella sua casa posta al No. 5 Archerna street. The body of Mrs. Helen (Paine) Hilary, who died at the home of her son in State College, Penn., arrived in this city last evening. A prayer service was held in the undertaking rooms of B. W. Hooker & company at two o'clock this afternoon and the interment was made in the cemetery at Berlin's Corners. The deceased was the mother of Mrs. E. R. Davis of this city. The Rev. E. O. Thayer of the Methodist church officiated at the service.

As a result of the action of the city council last evening in remitting the fines and costs, all except the actual costs to the city, of the four men who pleaded guilty to violating the city ordinances in dumping ashes into Gunner brook, they will now have to pay only $3 each. They were fined $10 and costs of $5.00 in each case by Judge Scott. The respondents were Thomas C. Carson, W. G. Kimball, Alex. Henderson and Edward Anderson.

Young Gotch, who is to wrestle Bob Somerville at the opera house next Friday night, March 26, in a letter to a friend seems much elated over the fact that the coming match is to be a mixed style of wrestling. He appears to be confident that he can throw Somerville at the Greco-Roman style quicker than Somerville can throw him at the catch-as-catch-can style. However this may be, Somerville is showing himself to be a wonder. In his training with a number of men who work with him at his rooms each night in the Bolster block, he wrestles four or five men one after another. In that way he keeps himself in the best of condition. Tickets for this match go on sale to-night at seven o'clock at Kendrick's drug store.
