

Black Mercerized Petticoats 69 Cents Saturday

This is the third time we have had an opportunity to offer this very unusual value in Women's Petticoats. That it is an unusual offer the two previous sales would show—on both times five dozen were put on sale in the morning of the sale day and as many more could have been sold had we had them. They are sold by many stores at 98c. We have sixty of them for Saturday's sale and you'll have to hustle to get one. Saturday, 69 Cents Each.

Suit Sales this season are breaking all previous records. Value, style and price are doing it too.

The librarian of the Aldrich Public Library, Mrs. L. L. Boyce, has a list of winners which shows that the people of Barre appreciate the institution. Ever since the new building was opened last September, the output of books has been growing steadily larger, reaching the high mark of 1,641 on the 26th week, which just closed. During the six months a total of 38,353 volumes have been taken out of the library. Those who are in charge of the work are constantly engaged during the hours when the library is open. Besides that, the use of the reading-rooms is becoming more general.

The "pink" social given by the King's Daughters at the Presbyterian church last evening was a well attended and enjoyable event. The program opened with a selection by a sextette composed of Anna Robertson, Mildred Perry, Marguerite Sheriffs, Ethel Inglis, Verna Laxson and Margaret Beach. Next came a fun drill by Lesell Hunter, Gladys Levie, Annie Rhind, Georgianna Brook, Hazel Mackay, Annie McDonald, Mary Youngson, Caroline Anderson, Margaret Breechin, Gladys Rhind, Helen Scott and Alice Murray. Miss Sophia Campbell gave a reading and then came a Japanese drill by Misses Maie Rhind, Hazel Mackay, and Annie McDonald. The program concluded with another selection by the sextette. After the program refreshments of cake and cocoa were served and then games were the order of the evening until a late hour. The affair was called a pink social and most of the participants wore pink and the vestry was decorated in festoons of that color.
