NORTHFIELD

The annual village meeting will be held at Village hall, Tuesday evening, April 6, at 7:30 o'clock. The warning for the meeting has also been issued.

The village of Northfield has bought of F. P. Houston certain land and water rights for $750. The water commissioner has been endeavoring for some time to obtain possession of this, as it was desirable that the village water system have this addition.

J. L. Burns expects to start work on the erection of his new granite shed soon. The general outlook for the granite business in town appears to be up to the average for this season of the year and the business prospects in Northfield for the coming year are certainly encouraging.

The new granite shed of Pelaggi & Co. in Northfield is now practically ready and will soon start with about 50 men. The equipment is all modern and of the most approved pattern. The company has some good orders to start on and the outlook for the success of the business is flattering.

Sanford Harrison Kent announces the marriage of his eldest daughter, Susie Helen, to Harry Carman Rose of Scranton, Pa. Miss Kent has for several years lived in Boston but spends a part of every summer in Northfield, where she has many warm friends. Mr. and Mrs. Rose are to make their home at 18 Lawrence road, Dorchester.

Charles A. Plumley arrived home from Washington, Tuesday evening, where he attended the opening of the extra session of the 61st Congress. His father, Congressman Plumley, is nicely located in Washington and already very busy with the duties pertaining to his position. Charles A. also finds time pretty well taken up at home and expects to be about as busy as his father in looking after the extensive law practice of Plumley & Plumley.

Norman J. Rice, accompanied by his wife and daughter, started Tuesday evening for Cordova, Alaska, where he will join his brother, Herbert. The latter has some promising gold mining claims and they will immediately put in a stamping mill and devote their attention to mining. Some big showings have been made in gold mining in that section of Alaska and the Rice boys anticipate success in their undertaking, all of which their many old friends in this vicinity hope will be fully realized.

NEW YORK INSURANCE DROPS. Other Companies Gain; Assembly to Investigate. Albany, N. Y., March 31.—The assembly has adopted unanimously a resolution requesting the superintendent of insurance to submit to the legislature a statement showing the gain or losses, in total amount of insurance in force for the years 1906, 1907 and 1908 of the following life insurance companies: New York Life, Equitable and Mutual of New York; Massachusetts of Springfield; Mutual Benefit of Newark, N. J.; National Life of Montpelier, Vermont; Northwestern Mutual of Milwaukee, Wis.; Pennsylvania Mutual of Philadelphia; Travelers of Hartford, and Union Central of Cincinnati, O. Mr. Fishie, who offered the bill, pointed out that unofficial figures showed that while the three leading New York life insurance companies sustained losses in the total amount of insurance in force during 1908 aggregating nearly $40,000,000, the companies mentioned outside the state showed gains aggregating nearly $200,000,000. "Nobody can judge," said Mr. Fishie, "nor will I, how many years like 1908 it would take to drive the insurance business out of this state. We are not here to legislate for the business interests of Massachusetts, Vermont, Connecticut, Ohio, or New Jersey. Before enacting any more drastic laws, surely we ought to examine into the causes of the decline of the insurance business in this state since 1906. Powers are now to be sought under which corrupt, or well-meaning but unwise superintendents of insurance, could speedily put our life insurance companies into bankruptcy. This vitally concerns every policy-holder. Legislation is now pending which would give the superintendent of insurance authority to take over the affairs of a life insurance company when, in his judgment it would be for the best interests of the policyholders.

He Who is Best Prepared Gets Best Results

THE SULKY PLOW proved itself a power in the land of Vermont last year. This year it is recognized by the best farmers as a necessity. Competition among farmers is just as keen as in any other business (or profession as you may choose to call it) and land well plowed is a first essential to good crops.

I have seven standard makes of Sulky Plows in stock this year. You may choose a plow from this assortment and if it does not do the work it is represented to do BRING IT BACK, the trial is on me.
