

FOR RULE IN TARIFF DEBATE

To Cut off Speeches and Provide for Votes

EASIER FEELING IN HOUSE

Republican Whip Cheerful After Going Around in Gloom for Days—Separate Votes Likely on Hides and Timber.

Washington, April 2.—The situation in the House of Representatives with regard to the Payne tariff bill now seems to be improving right along. Representative Dwight of New York, who succeeded former Representative Watson of Indiana as Republican whip of the House, and who has been going around shrouded in gloom for the last few days as a result of his inability to turn in any sort of a favorable report on the mixup to Speaker Cannon and the other House leaders was positively cheerful yesterday. He expressed the somewhat optimistic opinion that, if necessary, the rules committee could bring in a resolution to-day, cutting off further general speaking and providing for the passage of the bill after a limited schedule debate and separate votes on several paragraphs, with very fair chance of its adoption by the House. But it is not believed that the rule will be brought in before Monday.

The House leaders are much encouraged as a result of what they term the "excellent work" now being done by President Taft. They say that Mr. Taft has sent for a number of the most prominent kickers and told them plainly that if they cannot get into line with the organization and stand for the contemplated rule on the bill, at least to quit conveying the impression that he, Mr. Taft, is standing for their efforts, which are resulting in delay.

This, the leaders say, already has resulted in materially clearing the atmosphere and with their own work, will result in at least the appearance of harmony when the rule is brought in. It is understood, as has been stated, that an agreement has been reached to permit separate votes on hides and lumber and probably several other paragraphs of the Payne measure.

It is generally admitted that the sentiment on these two propositions is strong enough to be considered and that trouble would result unless the demand along these lines is met fairly and squarely. April 10, or perhaps a couple of days ahead of that time, is now mentioned as the probable time of the passage of the Payne bill by the House.

TARIFF DEBATE.

Gaines Tells Incidentally of What Bryan Cost Democrats.

Washington, April 2.—Representative Cantrill, a new Democrat from Kentucky, urged a duty on tobacco and hemp when the debate on the Payne tariff bill was resumed yesterday. "Tobacco," said he,

THE FATNESS OF HEALTH

Samose Fills Out the Curves and Makes Thin People Fat.

If you are thin, your health is not what it should be. If you are losing weight steadily, there is something wrong that should be attended to at once. You cannot be healthy and strong if you are thin.

Perfect health and good, solid beautiful flesh can only come through the use of Samose, the remarkable flesh forming food.

This makes the thin and scrawny, plump and robust; it mixes with the food so that all of the elements that make solid bone, firm muscle and good flesh are thoroughly assimilated and retained in the system.

Samose is not a drug or a stimulant; it is a scientific flesh forming food that restores thin people to a normal condition of good healthy flesh.

There are thousands of unhappy, nervous thin people who would look and feel entirely different if they were only fat and plump. Let them use Samose and they will soon notice remarkable results.

These statements are confirmed by D. F. Davis.

"has long been the prey of the greatest trust in existence." He insisted the hemp industry, if brought into competition with free hemp from abroad, would suffer materially.

Mr. Gaines of West Virginia spoke in approval of the Payne bill. In reply to a question, he said that the best sugar industry of the United States could not survive if the duty on refined sugar was removed. "This country is the least trust ridden country in the world," he declared.

Mr. Gaines engaged in an interesting colloquy with Representative Booher of Missouri, in regard to the political services of William J. Bryan to the Democratic and Republican parties.

"Did not Mr. Bryan cost the Republican party many votes?" Mr. Booher inquired.

"His cost to the Republican party," Mr. Gaines retorted, "is not half what it was to the Democrats."

ONLY THE TARIFF.

National Senate Will Consider No Other Subject.

Washington, April 2.—When the Senate convened yesterday Senator Hale again urged the immediate adoption of the resolution introduced by himself last Monday, the purpose of which is to confine the business of the extra session to the consideration of the tariff question, to the exclusion of everything else except the bill making provisions for the 13th census.

Senator Heyburn made an earnest plea for the exception of the reports of the committee on revision of the laws, which is preparing a recodification of the federal statutes.

Mr. Heyburn expressed the opinion that there were other important matters of legislation besides the tariff.

Mr. Hale, however, declined to yield to Mr. Heyburn, saying that if any exception was made, other committees would seek recognition with the result that it would be impossible to give the concentrated attention to the tariff which the president had suggested as necessary in order to procure expeditious action on that most important subject of legislation.

Senator Aldrich coincided with Mr. Hale and suggested that at any time, if the Senate so desired, it could by vote modify the Hale resolution. The Hale resolution was finally adopted by a viva voce vote.

The Senate yesterday began consideration of Senator Bacon's resolution declaring that the Democratic side of the chamber should be represented in all the hearings held by the committee on finance. Senator Aldrich, chairman of the committee, contended that as the Republican party would be held responsible for tariff legislation, it was the province of the Republican members to shape the bill for the Senate.

Mr. Aldrich declared that the policy pursued by the committee was the same practice that had been adopted in the consideration of other tariff bills, practically including the Wilson-Gorman bills, Republican and Democratic alike for 50 years. Mr. Aldrich said, had pursued the policy of having the senators of the majority party frame the tariff bill before it was placed before the full committee. It was not considered probable that the Bacon amendment would be adopted.

The plan of the Republican leaders in the House to close general debate on the tariff bill yesterday having been abandoned, there was only a slight increase in the attendance when the House met.

Without any preliminary consideration of the Payne bill was resumed.

At a meeting yesterday of the Ohio Republican members of the House it was agreed to suggest to the rules committee that the House be given an opportunity in connection with the Payne bill for a separate vote on coffee, tea, lumber and hides. The delegation was far from being unanimous in opposition to any of the provisions of the bill, but all agreed there should be a vote on these items.

CODY HEAD OF A "COLLEGE"

"Buffalo Bill" Establishes a Cavalry School in Wyoming.

New York, April 2.—Col. William F. Cody reached the Hoffman house Wednesday from the West and told about the "Buffalo Bill" cavalry school that is to start at Cody, Wyo., on June 1. Prof. William F. Cody is to occupy the chair of applied sciences.

"Yes, I am a college president," he said. "We have established at Cody the most unique school in this country. The term is to begin June 1 and will last for five months. The course will include the cavalry drill, riding, hunting, scouting, shooting and taking care of a pack train. We are going to take only a few pupils, and they will be carried through Yellowstone park after they get through the prep school."

He also had some exhibits from his western mines and oil wells in the shape of nuggets and bottled samples.

BOY SAVES GIRL FROM DOGS.

Lad Beats Off Two Savage Bulls Who Attacked Schoolmate.

Somerville, Mass., April 2.—A promising young candidate for a hero medal developed yesterday in twelve-year-old James J. Comfort, Jr., son of a prominent politician, who successfully beat off two ferocious bulldogs that were attacking a little girl, a schoolmate of the boy.

The dogs had knocked the child down and had bitten and scratched her several times when young Comfort rushed to her aid, and, after failing to drive the dogs away by kicking them, secured a ball bat and beat them off.

FIRE EMPTIES A PRISON

Convicts Marched From Cells at Ft. Leavenworth

1,300 Soldiers Thrown Around Walls to Prevent Escape—Panic Behind Steel Bars—Cells So Hot That Prisoners in Danger of Suffocation.

Leavenworth, Kan., April 2.—It took 1,300 United States soldiers to maintain order and to prevent prisoners from escaping during the fire which destroyed four buildings of the federal military prison here early yesterday.

All the eight hundred prisoners were marched out of their cells when it seemed certain that the whole prison would be destroyed and were guarded until the fire was under control. Then after some of the cell houses had cooled sufficiently they were marched back again.

When the fire was discovered before midnight by a sentry the entire garrison at Fort Leavenworth turned out and the Thirtieth Infantry, armed with rifles, was thrown around the prison.

The fire, which probably started in the prison tailor shop, gained rapidly and the fire department of Leavenworth joined forces with the soldiers in fighting the flames. The fire was confined to the central row of buildings and consumed the industrial departments of the prison, including the paint shop, the tailor shop, carpenter shop and laundry. These buildings contained many combustibles and the flames threatened the other buildings. The cell houses filled with smoke and got suffocatingly hot.

After bugle calls were sounded, the first guard line was placed about 150 feet from the prison wall and the men in it were stationed 10 feet apart.

The second line was 200 feet farther back. Through this line only an officer or a soldier on duty was allowed to pass.

When the fire started the prisoners yelled, "Let it burn." The water pressure was poor, and as the water spluttered uselessly from the house the prisoners leaped from the cells. The flames leaped higher and a gust of wind whipped smoke into the nearest of the three cell houses.

The tone of the prisoners changed then. "For God's sake, take us out," they screamed in terror. Colonel Loughborough saw the danger and ordered the doors unlocked. The 800 prisoners fell in, each convict with his hands on the shoulders of the man in front of him. At double quick they marched to the farthest corner of the prison enclosure, while 100 prison guards guarded them with leveled rifles. Two of the convicts fainted from fright.

Half an hour after the fire broke out the Leavenworth city fire department reached the fort. Nothing could be done to save the burning buildings, however, and the firemen devoted their attention to saving the main structure.

The records were taken from the administration building and preparations made to blow it up if necessary. A new military prison is under construction and it is not probable the burned buildings will be rebuilt.

A few men were overcome by the heat. Lieut. W. C. Jones, Thirtieth Infantry, was painfully scalded by a gust of steam and hot water from a burning roof.

Major Thomas H. Slavens, commandant of the prison, said the fire was probably caused by defective wiring. He placed the damage at $65,000. The buildings burned were among the oldest at Fort Leavenworth. They were erected in 1857 and 1858 and were first used for an army commissary storehouse.

MILLIONS IN DIVIDENDS.

New York Bank Payments Will Be $14,000,000 More Than Last April.

New York, April 2.—The banks are making arrangements to pay in April $14,000,000 in dividends and interest. This is an increase of more than $14,000,000 over the dividend payments of last April and reflects the improvement in general business which has taken place within the year.

Since last November 21 companies have paid their initial dividends, 11 have resumed dividends that were suspended, 19 have increased dividends and 13 have paid extra dividends. During 1908 about 125 of the big companies cut or passed their dividends. Of the $155,000,000, $90,480,484 will be paid in dividends and the remainder in interest.

TO FATHER OF BASE BALL.

Monument Being Cut By Rizzi Bros. For Late Henry Chadwick.

Perhaps the most interesting monument that is being cut in Barre this month Rizzi Bros. are now working on. The monument in itself is simple, but the fact that it is to be erected in Brooklyn to the memory of the late Henry Chadwick, the father of baseball, should be of interest to all Americans. The bottom base is 2 feet by 10 inches square. The second base is moulded. The die has a bronze plate on the front, and the sides are carved with crossed bats and baseball mask. There is a moulded cap surmounted by a polished granite baseball 7 foot 8 inches in diameter.—Rock Products.

CROW CRIED "LYNCH HIM."

Police Refuse a New York Chauffeur Who Ran Down Two Persons.

New York, April 2.—A crowd made up of several hundred excited men and women, who made free use of the "lynch him" slogan, tried unsuccessfully yesterday morning to get a chauffeur who had run down a boy and a woman at Third Avenue and One Hundred and Fifth Street, away from two policemen. As it was, the policemen had considerable difficulty in getting him to the East One Hundred and Fourth Street station, for the crowd insisted on doing him bodily harm.

The chauffeur was Charles H. Weinberger of 44 West One Hundred and Sixty-fourth Street, in business in Amsterdam Avenue. He was running his own runabout west through One Hundred and Fifth Street, behind a brewery wagon, when Rachel Black, 24 years old, of 224 East One Hundred and Second Street, and her nephew, Samuel Marcus, 13 years old, of 1683 Lexington Avenue, stepped in front of it and were knocked down. Weinberger was not going very fast, but his machine passed over the pair before he could stop it.

When the boy was picked up it was found that he had his right leg broken and sustained contusions and lacerations. The woman was lifted to her feet dazed and suffering only from slight bruises and scratches.

INSURANCE LAW VALID.

Putting Limit on New Business is Constitutional.

New York, April 2.—That section of the insurance law of this state which limits to $150,000,000 the amount of business which an insurance company may write in one year was declared constitutional by Justice O'Grady in the New York supreme court yesterday. The decision was given in the case of Charles H. Bush, an agent of the New York Life Insurance Company, who brought suit to recover from that company his commission on a life insurance policy for $25,000 which the company rejected in December last. The reason given for the rejection was that the company had already accepted enough business to make up the $150,000,000 limit.

Smith searched the premises of Joseph Gayer, Jr., at 166 Railroad Street yesterday, and secured a gallon jug of whiskey and several empty receptacles. Gayer pleaded guilty to selling and furnishing, and was sentenced to not less than three or more than four months at hard labor in Caledonia county jail.

BODY OF DR. JONES FOUND.

Anthropologist Was Murdered About Fifty Miles South of Echague.

Manila, April 2.—A telegram from the consular officer at Echague, reports that the body of Dr. William Jones, the noted anthropologist of the Columbian Museum at Chicago, who was murdered by tribesmen, was taken to that place by friendly Illogots. The murder was committed about fifty miles south of Echague, where Dr. Jones was engaged in studying the wild hill tribes, living among them for the purpose of preparing exhaustive reports of their customs and traditions. His servant was wounded, but escaped, saving the scientist's revolver. The attack occurred Sunday, but its cause has not yet been learned.

Washington, April 2.—Responsive to an inquiry from the war department, Governor General Smith says Dr. William Jones, the anthropologist, died from a bullet wound in the chest, and from a blow and spear wounds. The governor general has ordered a full investigation and directed the preservation of Dr. Jones' notebooks, photographic plates and specimens.

The preamble of the resolution declares that carriages are provided for heads of various departments and the government of the District of Columbia for their business, "and social use," and that the office of the vice president, being of greater dignity and honor than others mentioned in the preamble, should have equal accommodations. The cost of the resolution, according to the terms of the resolution, to be paid from the contingent fund of the Senate. It was referred to the committee on contingent expenses.

AMERICAN RUSH TO CANADA.

This Year 70,000 from United States to Settle on Farm Sites There.

Winnipeg, April 2.—"Seventy thousand American immigrants will come to Canada this year," said Commissioner Walker of the immigration department yesterday. "These men go all over the three western provinces and will settle on 21,000 homesteads. This is development, indeed, and makes an increase of 100 per cent. over last year."

At several points in the Saskatchewan and Alberta districts, the American rush has been so great that the government has arranged to supply large, furnished tents. These would be used not only by the travelers from the United States, but also by those from eastern Canada and Europe. From figures supplied by Mr. Walker the immigration from the United States for the past five years was as follows: 1904, 16,224; 1905, 19,537; 1906, 27,714; 1907, 59,500; 1908, 53,723.
