

SUMMER LOW SHOES

The words of the man who said to paint his house any color, so it's red, could be paraphrased by Dame Fashion into "Wear any color shoes this summer you please so it's tan."

That we did not make any mistake in reading the shoe fashions months ago is shown by the extraordinarily large stock we have of the Tan Shoes for Women, Boys and Girls.

In Women's Shoes short vamps are the thing and are shown in low pumps and two eyelet styles.

Boys', Misses' and Girls' Shoes are shown in modifications of grown up fashions, youthful strictly up to date and some very snappy effects.

Prices for Women's Oxfords, $1.50 to 3.50
Prices for Boys' and Girls' Oxfords, 85c to 2.00

Harold Chappell of St. Johnsbury has entered Goddard seminary this spring. He played quarter-back on the St. Johnsbury academy foot ball team last fall and was elected captain for next year. He played guard on St. J's fine basket ball team last winter and was a promising candidate for catcher on the base ball team this spring. He will prove a great addition to the Goddard athletics. He enters the 1912 class.

The picture, "Boots and Saddles," at the Theatorium is a very good subject. The scenes of this picture are laid in a Western army post, a quarrel between two officers leads up to many sensational scenes, one of which deserves great credit. The Indian war drama that is without a doubt the best ever offered, real Indians in their original dress make one recall the scenes in "Buffalo Bill." There are three other good pictures, which make this a swell bill which the Saturday shoppers should not fail to see.

At the opera house on next Thursday evening Bob Somerville will meet Nicolo Romani, who calls himself the undefeated Italian wrestler, in a catch-as-catch-can wrestling style. At the same time and place Eli Bourdon and Sam Williams will meet for the purse offered by the management of the house. The three out of town contestants have posted a forfeit with Manager Hoban guaranteeing their appearance. Without a doubt, this will be the best sporting event ever seen in Barre. A special train will run down from the hill, also special electric cars for Montpelier.
