NEARLY BLEED TO DEATH.

Williams College Boy Severed an Artery at Bennington. Bennington, May 17.—While running into the Putnam house for his suit case in order to catch the 11:45 trolley car for Williamstown Saturday night, George Cheney, a Williams college man, who played third base for the Williamstown team which opened the base ball season here with Bennington in the afternoon, slipped and fell through the glass door. A gash extending from the hand half way to the elbow was cut by the broken glass, a large artery was severed and before the assistance of a physician could be secured the student nearly bled to death. It was four o'clock Sunday morning before two surgeons succeeded in closing the wound and stopping the hemorrhage.

WILLIAMSTOWN

Bert Robinson Let the Isaak Waitons in Beauty of Saturday's Creed.

Goodness! the disciples of good old Isaak Waiton were thick hereabouts early last Saturday morning, and they all had more or less success; but we believe, so far as we have learned, that Bert Robinson headed the list with a score of fine speckled beauties to his credit, while your correspondent was a very close second with a half dozen less.

E. W. Thurber, writing from Washington, D. C., says that the Seventh Day Adventist general conference now in session there is composed of delegates from every state and territory of the Union, from nearly every foreign nation, and from many islands of the sea. It is a notable and significant conference, at which many things connected with the speedy second advent of our Saviour will be discussed and lines of work laid out for the disciples of the "Remnant church" to follow in the meantime.

Gibney & Spooner have decided to close out their meat business, in fact are going out of the business, and will sell their stock of salt meats and canned goods at about cost or less, in order to make quick sales and turn, as soon as possible, their goods into cash.

Eugene Fellows was in Burlington last Saturday on business.

Ernest Riddle says that he lives on the west side of the East Hill—so that settles the matter.

Our buttermaker, Mr. Jewett, attended the banquet at Woodsville, N. H., last Friday evening, and reports a right royal time and the best menut ever.

Come out to the band meeting this (Monday) evening at the town hall. Everybody should be interested in this musical matter and encourage the continuance of the Williamstown band.

The Schofield golden wedding anniversary was recognized by a large number of friends and relatives last Saturday afternoon and many golden reminders of the occasion were in evidence. Notwithstanding her feebleness, Mrs. Schofield greatly appreciated and enjoyed the necessarily brief greetings and congratulations of her numerous friends.

Lived 152 Years.

Wm. Parr, England's oldest man, married the third time at 120, worked in the fields till 132 and lived 20 years longer. People should be thankful at 80. James Wright of Sperrick, Ky., shows how to remain young. "I feel just like a 16-year-old boy," he writes, "after taking six bottles of Electric Bitters. For thirty years kidney trouble made life a burden, but the first bottle of this wonderful medicine convinced me I had found the greatest cure on earth." They're a godsend to weak, sickly, run-down, or old people. Try them. 50c at the Red Cross Pharmacy.

Most old people must give the bowels gentle, constant help. One candy Cascaret each day does that. Harsh physic, taken regularly, makes the bowels callous. Cascarets do not. Nearly all old people now use this natural, gentle help. Cascaret box, 10 cents at drug-stores. 65¢ each tablet of the genuine is marked C. C. C.

GRANITEVILLE.
