Miss Blanche E. Yeartaw and Hermon C. Davis were united in marriage by the Rev. F. A. Poole at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Phelps on South Main street last evening at 8 o'clock. The wedding was a very quiet affair, witnessed only by the nearest relatives and friends. The bride was becomingly attired in white silk and carried a large bouquet of white roses. They were unattended. After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Davis received the congratulations of their friends and a reception was given at which dainty refreshments were served. Both of the young people are well known in the city, the groom being a popular clerk in the F. D. Ladd Co. store. After a short wedding trip to Montreal and Highgate, Mr. and Mrs. Davis will be at home to their friends after July 1 at Mrs. Chamberlain's on Keith avenue. They have the best wishes of a large circle of friends.

MARTIN—LADD.

Wedded at Cutler Corner, Home of the Bride's Parents.

A beautiful wedding was celebrated at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ladd, at Cutler Corner, Barre, on Wednesday, June 23, when the eldest daughter, Sallie M. Ladd, of the large family was joined in marriage with Harle H. Martin of Plainfield. Miss Katherine Ladd, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and the eldest brother, John Ladd, was best man. Rev. F. W. Fisk was the clergyman and the ample parlor was filled with guests, of whom the larger number were members of the family; this was a very unusual and pleasant feature of the occasion, six brothers, one sister, the parents and grandmothers. After the ceremony and congratulations from all the company, fruits were served. All the guests' names in the certificate book for the benefit of the worthy couple in days to come.
