This sacrifice is made to reduce stock, as we must have the room for our new stock of imported goods that begin to arrive in September.

About the best comedy picture we have seen in a long time is a picture entitled, "The Troublesome Lamp Post," that is being run at the Theaterium. While it is not so funny as "The Runaway Horse" picture which was run by Roach Bros. some time ago, it recalls that picture to one's mind as the scenes are of the same uproarious order. One scene in particular that is exceedingly funny, is the scene in the fireworks store. The man with the blazing lamp post, which has been fastened to his back by buttoning his overcoat over it, butts in among the fireworks. The result is remarkable. Everyone makes a dash for the open, the air is filled with pinwheels, skyrockets, Roman candles, etc. The innocent cause of all the confusion makes his escape first, only to continue on his course of destruction and have until he is finally thrown into the river, which extinguishes the fire and relieves him of his trouble.

AMENDS CONSTITUTION.

Royal Scottish Class Change Law Relative to Funeral Expenses.

Manchester, N. H., Aug. 19.—A committee of three was appointed at the biennial convention of the Scottish Royal Class yesterday in care for E. L. Hunter of Superior, Ill., who was taken suddenly ill, and who last night was under the care of a physician at a local hotel. This committee consists of A. G. McKnight of Duluth, Joseph Cochrane and James W. Martin of St. Paul.

An important feature of yesterday's session of the class was the adoption of an amendment to the constitution regarding burials by Clan McKenzie of Brattleboro, Ill. The amendment originally set the limit of funeral expenses at $150, but was changed to $100. A resolution presented by Clan Fraser of San Francisco recommending that the rates be changed to conform with those of the fraternal congress was rejected by the committee to which it was referred. Dr. James Law of New York was added to the committee on mileage by Royal Chief Hill.

Man started on the run from Brattleboro to South Londonderry later in the afternoon, and when he reached Townsend, he began to feel acute pains in his side. On his arrival in Londonderry he was examined by physicians and it was found that three ribs across his chest had been broken and that he had received internal injuries.

Justice is Freaky.

"A Kentucky paper came out some time ago and said it had found the meanest man in the nation."

"Yes?"

"It said he lived in a certain section of the state, and a man at once got up and said he was the fellow."

"That was funny."

"Oh, I don't know about that. He sued the paper and got $500 damages."

—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Indefinite.

"I think the statement of the press agent of those performing aviators would bear a little more detail as to why their last ascent was unsuccessful."

"Why so?"

"When asked about the failure he merely said the aeronauts had a falling out."

—Baltimore American.

Talent Recognized.

"Jefferies doesn't appear to have the slightest idea of practical politics."

"Yes," answered Senator Sorghum, "his assumption of ignorance on the subject proves him a most astute politician."

BARRE CANDY KITCHEN

IN BUYING GROCERIES

the careful housekeeper makes every cent count. But she can't make the pennies count by trading at every store in town, spending half her time looking for the cent cheaper article.

She can save money only by searching out a reliable grocer and sticking to him.

The money is saved by trading with the groceryman who sells dependable goods.

Dependable goods are not to be obtained in every store. Goodness and cheapness appeal to every condition of humanity.

There are no fancy prices here, and everybody is treated alike.

Our goods are cheap because they're good—its not the price that makes them cheap.

Goods that are bought so cheaply that they have to be thrown away on account of poor quality are the most dearly bought goods.

Better pay a fair price in the first place and get the dependable kinds. You can't buy any other kinds here. We don't keep them.
