Garment Day

Such concerns as A. Shuman & Co. of Boston and several of the largest Shift and Garment people in New England have what they call an advance fall sale, when they take their best merchandise left over from the season before and sell it so low that everybody in the vicinity tries to get their share. This Saturday's sale is one of that kind, as follows:

One lot of Brook Mink Fur Scarfs with six good soft tails, a Fur that cannot be sold at a profit for less than $1.95, for this one day at half price, 99c.

One lot of double Fox Scarfs with two large brush tails. Foxes are more expensive this year than last, and these Scarfs sold for $10.00. For this one day only we are to sell them at $5.00.

Remember these Furs are just as good as any Furs that have been carried over and as good as any you will buy this season.

The above goods must not be sold or taken out on memorandum before day of sale. They must be here as advertised. The above sale is like being given back a part of your money. It's not like a profit bearing sale. This sale starts the Fall business and gives the trade a chance to see the new things while buying what they want at our anniversary prices. The time may come when we cannot improve each Anniversary Sale, but not this time as this is our best and you will say so if you attend any of the above five days.
