A Snake Story.

The family were at dinner when there came a tap at a door seldom opened. Winning no attention, it was repeated and again a third time, though more softly, and then the door was swung back and, behold, there was a snake, knocking at the portals of hospitality! Down upon its head, in conformity with the decree of tradition and with Ezra's understanding of scriptural direction, crunched a British boot. It was a mother snake, who, having bravely overcome her fear of man, was seeking sustenance, not for herself perhaps, though she was starving, but more likely for the little ones that were found in the grass by the brook. Thus for once, at any rate, did the craftiness of the devil succumb to the instinct of motherhood.—George B. M. Harvey in North American Review.

The "Macaroni."

The "macaroni" were exquisites or fops who in England and France led the fashions from 1780 to 1785 and were distinguished by an immense knot of artificial hair worn on the top of their heads. A small cocked hat which perched ridiculously on their topknot, satin or brocade coats and small clothes fitting tightly to the body and silk stockings with ribbon garters composed the costume of these fashionable gentlemen, who invariably carried a long walking stick with tassels attached and frequently a bouquet tied to the handle and encouraged a mincing and affected gait and manner. There was during the war for independence a body of Maryland soldiers who on account of their showy uniforms were called "macaroni."

An Athletic Game.

The cobbler's shop in a small village was filled with old men and a young man, the young man being a good football player. Naturally the conversation drifted to the game of football.

The young man turned to one of the old men and asked him if he had ever played the game. The veteran thoughtfully blew a cloud of tobacco smoke from his lips and replied: "Nay, lad, I've never played at none o' them athletic games 'cept dominos."

London Mail.

Her Qualification.

Father—Now, look here, you girls—when you grow up one of you must be able to speak French and the other German. Brenda—All right, dad, and Marcell had better learn German, because she can gargle best.—Punch.

FOREIGN DRESS GOODS!

More Than We Have Ever Dared to Buy Before

So many styles. So many ideas as to how a dress should be. So many different cloths, and so many ladies want their own ideas as to dress carried out, that we have bought every kind of a cloth from 50c to $1.50 per yard that appeal to us as right for quality and style. These are the cloths being used by Paris dressmakers and ladies' tailors all over the country. The idea of having dress goods sponged is not new. It is too often neglected and the dressmaker gets a call down for an ill fitting dress. For the balance of this month we are to sponge all of our own dress goods free of charge.

What's This	Dress Goods	Tailor's Cloths
	In addition to free sponging you are to have the advantage of a fortunate Dress Goods purchase. This means—in many cases a saving of at least 10 per cent, or more.  This purchase was made possible through a senior member of one of the largest Dress Goods houses retiring from business.  You will better understand these values as you see the styles and fineness of these foreign Dress Goods priced as we are pricing them for this month's sale.  First, let us ask you to see what we call a beautiful assortment of all wool Serges in all colors. These for misses' dresses are one of the very best, and the price is now 50c. Another lot would be 60c or 65c.  A new Mohair cloth in cadet with a little brocade pattern for misses' dresses and a good cloth for waists. Price only 50c.  New lot of 42-inch Imported French Serge, a very fine cloth and a beautiful line of colors, as follows: navy, black, olive, two dark reds, smoke, cadet, dark green, dark brown and light brown. One of our best cloths for all purposes, nothing to equal at the price, 75c.  42-inch Herringbone in grey homespun effect, for elderly ladies, at $1.00 per yard.	These cloths are for tailor made dresses or skirts with long coats and plaited skirts.  The prices on these cloths will make for you a price saving, as they are all from our large purchases, spoken of before.  40-inch Wool Satin Stripes, so much used just now in our best ready-made suits and a good cloth at $1.00 or even $1.25. In green, smoke and cadet. This lot at 87c per yard.  40-inch Wool Satin Directoire in plum, smoke and green, a cloth that if bought in the regular way would have to sell for not less than $1.25. This purchase makes the price $1.00 per yard.  50-inch Suitings in small and poplin stripes in all of the new colors, such as smoke, cadet, new blue, olive and winteria. These are $1.50 and $1.65 cloths, at but $1.35 per yard. The width puts them in a class as to price with cheaper goods.  Consider prices of above goods compared with styles, and then your sponging done FREE. You will then see that this is the best Dress Goods sale ever held by us.  Your Dress Goods should be sponged and so much more for you when we pay for it.

Have just received a lot of New Tailored Suits, with latest long coats and plaited skirts. We ask you to see our $12.50 All-wool Suit, with long coat before you look any farther. It's a crack-a-jack for the price.
