TALK OF THE TOWN.

The Bijou takes pleasure in announcing to-day a great Selig drama, "Strick on Blind." It is one of the most pathetic and attention compelling pictures seen in this city for weeks. This film, together with others and a good song, will probably fill the theatre to-night.

"Scotty" McDonald, who graduated from Spaulding high school last June, is to enter the university of Vermont next week, and he is already in Burlington practicing with the varsity foot ball squad. McDonald was a reliable player on the Goddard seminary team before he went to Spaulding high.

The Rev. John M. Springer of Chicago, a missionary to Africa, gave an interesting and instructive lecture in the Hedding M. E. church last evening before a good sized audience. The Rev. Mr. Springer has had a wide experience in missionary work in Africa and made his lecture more comprehensive by giving stereoscopic views.

"In Old Kentucky," an American Biograph film of unusual importance, at Dreamland to-day. It deals in their best style with episodes of the Civil war. The final climax is undoubtedly most impressive. Two brothers, each with his cherished flag, one of the North and one of the South, grasping hands typifying the famous Kentucky motto, "United we stand, divided we fall."

Sunday, September 28, will be observed as rally Sunday by the Barre Congregational Sunday school. Classes will graduate from the junior and primary departments and Mr. Poole will give a short talk to the school. All members of the home department and cradle roll are cordially invited to the entire service, including the rally address at 10:30 by Dr. Thayer and Sunday school rally program at 12. The beginners and primary departments will be seated with the main school and all who are in their places at 12:15 will receive a rally-day souvenir. It is hoped there will be 400 in attendance.

The "Arthur Tandy," which has been for several years the motive power of the suburban train between this city and Montpelier on the Montpelier & Wells River railroad, is no more. In accordance with methods adopted by the larger railroads, the Wells River road has begun numbering its engines instead of naming them and the Tandy came from the shops this morning spick and span in new paint, and bearing the number "8."
