The Philathea class of the Bible school of the First Baptist church will hold its annual election of officers Tuesday, promptly at 7 p. m. at the church. All members are urged to be present.

Wednesday night, the time: Holding Methodist Episcopal church the place, where all old and young will have the privilege of hearing the lecture by Dr. E. O. Thayer, entitled, "Across the Country in an Airship." No tickets on sale, but a silver offering will be taken at the door.

"I have never seen and heard any service so beautiful, so instructive, so interesting." Rev. Chas. H. Thomas, Philadelphia, so writes of the illustrated service of Prof. Lowe to be at the First Baptist church, Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights. Come and see if he is right. Admission free.

As a mode of quick, safe, cheap travel, even airships are a century behind Lyman H. Howe's travel festival at the opera house to-night. In speed it outdistances the wildest flights of the Arabian Nights fables and with this added advantage, that it is not a flight of the imagination, but a fact to actual, living realities in all corners of the world.

Old Ladies living in the southern part of the city will kindly leave their donations for the fair with Mrs. L. McMurray, 44 Ayers street. Those living in other parts of the city will leave them with Mrs. J. C. Morrison, 25 Maple avenue. If inconvenient to leave them at the above address, leave them at Woodman's hall, Wednesday afternoon, the 29th.

Cornelius Foley of Berlin pleaded guilty to a first offense of intoxication before Justice of the Peace A. A. Sargent this morning and paid a fine of $8 with costs of $7.00. He was arrested at eight o'clock last evening by Officer Gamble, who found him laid out on the lawn at the corner of Granite street and brought him to the station in a team.

The rally day exercises of the Hedding M. E. Sunday school were held yesterday from 12 to 1 o'clock. There were 292 children present, and the exercises consisted of songs and recitations by the school and a chorist solo was given by Irving Parmeter. The church was prettily decorated with plants and autumn branches. The rally day exercises by the Sunday school at the Congregational church yesterday were largely attended, there being 378 children present. An enjoyable program of songs and recitations was given and the school was given an excellent address by the pastor. At the close the whole school was given buttons, on which was a picture of the Rev. F. A. Poole.

Programme Today

Our Country in Arms

Deeply interesting drama. First children at play as soldiers; then as cadets; then, as they have grown older, marching away to war, leaving their sweethearts behind them. Later, the good, old, gray-haired G. A. E. men. It's really taken from life before and at the close of the Civil war.

Castle Ghosts

Did you ever see genuine ghosts? Real thing, sure—better see this one.

Call of the Heart.

Here's another good one of more than usual merit. Our advice: see it.
