ABOUT THE STATE

Co. D, of St. Johnsbury is now negotiating with several teams and plans to have a first-class basketball team there this winter.

It is reported that in Middlebury and vicinity, pneumonia among the cows is very prevalent. Some of the farmers have lost five or six from their herd from this disease this fall.

The city of Rutland has had paid to the city clerk $135,375.00 in taxes and there is only $2,722.03 to be collected, which is the smallest amount that has been turned over to the collector in the history of the city.

The State Library association offers two prizes, $10 and $5, for collections of newspaper clippings which advertise library activities. All members of the association may compete. The publicity committee, Box 178, Proctorville, has the matter in charge.

The Morrisville authorities have been in consultation with L. H. Jones of Milton, N. H., in regard to the possibilities of the power that can be developed at Morrisville lighting plant. It is thought with slight changes to the watershed that over double the power can be obtained from the plant.

Mrs. Ray Strong of Westford was painfully hurt last Monday night as she was driving home in her return from a trip to Fairfax. The horse became frightened at a pile of lumber and ran, throwing Mrs. Strong into a barbed wire fence. She was quite badly wound about the face and neck.

Moses Goodhue of Morrisville was quite painfully injured in attempting to alight from a moving auto. The first of the week. As he stepped off his foot caught in the gas tank and he had not his shoe torn he would have been dragged some distance. His left leg was badly bruised and considerable skin scraped off between the thigh and knee.

In attempting to alight from a train at Barre last Monday Mrs. L. F. Jones of Island Pond stumbled over a valve tripping her. She fell against a car seat, her head striking the iron framework. She was carried to the home of her sister and a physician was called.
Although seriously bruised no worse results are expected from the fall.

L. A. Minor of Rutland was quite seriously injured Tuesday night when he was thrown from his wagon as a result of a collision with another team.
Mr. Minor was driving behind a team and attempted to turn out just as another team came along and they collided. Mr. Minor was thrown out and was found in an unconscious condition.
The extent of his injuries could not be determined.
