

TRAVELERS' RAILWAY GUIDE.

Central Vermont Railway. Trains leave Barre for White River Junction and Boston, and way stations, also Windsor and Bellows Falls and New York at 8:21 and 11:05 a. m. and 11:05 p. m. Also leave Barre for White River Junction, Bellows Falls, Springfield and New York at 5:45 p. m. Trains leave Barre for Burlington, St. Albans, Montreal and way stations at 6:25 a. m., 6:40, 8:45 p. m. and 3:15 a. m.

TAFT, the Gas Engine Man, Randolph Center, Vt., sells both Hopper and Air Cooled Engines, from 1 to 50 horse power. Grist Mills, Wind Mills, Saw Mills, Cider Presses, Reliance, Leader, Hydro, Pneumatic Water System electric lighting plants installed.

A Cough Remedy For the Baby

"Honey B Anise" contains no opiates, alcohol or injurious drug. The baby likes it and it cures the cough. Grown up people use our "White Pine and Red Spruce." That's good also. Both are 25c a Bottle.

D. F. DAVIS "The Druggist," 262 North Main St., Barre, Vt.

New Pool Prices

Play in a modern pool room where it costs less than at other places. Call Shot.....21-2c. French or Rotation.....3 for 25c. Time-Billiards or Pool.....40c hour. Come in and try out this proposition tonight.

Diversi Pool Room A. Tomasi Block, Merchant Street.

HARDWOOD

Dry Block Wood, $2.50 per run, delivered. Dry Limb Wood, $2 per run delivered. Leave orders at 99 Washington street.

'Phone 138. A. W. WINCH, ADMR.

FURS!

Very Latest Designs and Kinds for Ladies and Gents. I believe I have the best line of furs east of Boston, and I KNOW that my PRICES cannot be duplicated ANYWHERE. If you are in the market for furs DON'T buy until you look at my stock and GET MY PRICES. If you have furs to be remodeled or repaired, bring them in, or if you want anything made to order, especially, come in and get my prices.

Special bargains on the following: Fox Shawl, 70 in. long, 9 in. wide, pillow knit, price $8.50 set. Opossum set $6.00

I. STEKOLCHICK Corner Main and State Streets, Over Whately's Store, MONTPELIER, VERMONT

CHELSEA

Mrs. Walter S. Goss was in town the first of the week, the guest of Madam A. E. Goss. Fred A. Ordway went to Barre on business Thursday afternoon, trying the snow path with his automobile.

Miss Sylvia Comstock and her brother, Herbert Comstock, returned to their respective school work the first of the week.

Oliver Burgess has so far recovered from his recent illness as to resume his work as clerk in the store of Ordway, Holmes & Co.

W. H. Sprague was in Barre City Wednesday evening to attend a meeting of the directors of the Granite Mutual Insurance company.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver E. Burgess have moved into the P. J. Little tenement on Jail street, which was recently vacated by Charles R. Durkee and family.

Mrs. Orrin Hood of Corinth has been in town the past two weeks, visiting her son and daughter, Ezra W. Hood and Mrs. Ed. Chamberlain, respectively.

Mrs. Flora Mowrey, who has kept house for Amasa Burtin for the past three years, has accepted a position as housekeeper for Judge George L. Stow.

H. N. Mattison accompanied his nephews, Gaylord Mattison, to Hanover, N. H., Tuesday, where the latter entered the Mary Hitchcock hospital for a surgical operation.

Mrs. Munroe O. Coburn, who but recently returned from St. Johnsbury, where she had been caring for her daughter, who was seriously ill, was called again to the bedside of her daughter Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. David G. Adams have vacated W. P. Townsend's tenement on Main street and have moved temporarily to the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Adams, on the Washington stage road.

Horace T. Walker, who recently purchased the Eric A. Locke place on Main street, has rented one tenement in the house to Madam Walker, who has lived the past summer in one of W. M. Mattison's tenements.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Lewis entertained about thirty of their friends last Tuesday evening. Progressive whist was the order of entertainment, and the evening was most pleasantly spent. Confections and grape juice were served.

The courthouse has recently undergone its semi-annual cleaning from cellar to cupola at the hand and under the able supervision of Janitor Elmer E. Wallace and is now in the pink of condition and ready for the opening of court on Tuesday next.

Charles E. Dickinson has rented the tenement formerly occupied by the late May L. Dickinson and moved his family here from Corinth the first of the week and will take his former position as clerk in the store of Col. H. O. Bixby the first of next week.

A special meeting of George Washington lodge, No. 51, P. and A. M., is appointed for Tuesday, December 7, for work on the M. M. degree, and as court will be in session, all brothers in good standing who are in town are invited to be present.

Among our young ladies who are teaching this winter out of town are the following: Helen Sargent and Anna Dwyer in the H. O. Flint district and at North Tunbridge, respectively, and Laura Colby in Washington and Lynn Colby in Corinth.

The funeral of Mrs. Joel Peavey was held from her late home near the electric light plant at 12 o'clock on Tuesday, the Rev. Fred Daniels officiating and Almon B. Bicknell of Tunbridge conducting. The interment was in the cemetery near Harry O. Flint's in Tunbridge, the bearers being Arthur Hanson, Wesley Bugbee, Dennis Giles and Horace Moxley.

WOLCOTT

Arthur Little is working for J. W. Scott.

Harold Stewart is working for R. E. Potter.

Bert Hubbard is working at A. J. Allen's.

C. E. Haskell returned from Boston Friday.

R. M. Hubbell was in Morrisville Tuesday.

Mrs. Julia Harvey is working at W. E. Barter's.

Mrs. Maria Mudgett was in Morrisville Friday.

Byron Hubbard has finished work for John French.

F. E. Wheeler of Morrisville was in town Sunday.

Ernest Corrow has finished work for W. N. Powell.

Fred McNally of Waterbury was in town Monday.

Election of officers of M. W. A. next Wednesday night.

Joseph Stebbins has moved here from Underhill to the Crowell farm.

Mrs. E. E. Udall and two children of Everett, Mass., were recent guests of her father, C. A. Reed.

A Skin of Beauty is a Joy Forever. Dr. T. Felix Gouraud's Oriental Cream or Magical Beautifier. Revives Tan, Pimples, Freckles, Moth, Faded, Rash, and Skin Diseases, and every blemish on beauty, and restores the natural color of the skin. It is the best of its kind, and is used by the most beautiful women in the world. It is sold by all druggists and fancy goods dealers in the United States, Canada and Europe. FRED. T. HOPKINS, Prop., 37 Great Jones Street, New York.

SLEIGHS FOR SALE New and second-hand sleighs for sale. Call and see them at Arkeley's Livery, Corner Summer and Merchant streets. Telephone 150, Barre.

ALL TIRED OUT

Hundreds More in Barre in the Same Plight. Tired all the time; Weary and worn out night and day; Back aches; side aches; All on account of the kidneys. Must help them at their work. A Barre citizen shows you how: W. W. McAuley, 187 Seminary street, Barre, Vt., says: "I took all kinds of medicine supposed to be good for kidney trouble, but did not find relief. The pain in my left kidney was severe, and I could not stoop to pick up anything without having sharp twinges in the small of my back. I was very restless and arose in the morning feeling tired and miserable. Damp weather always made me worse, and finally I became so bad off that I could only walk a short distance. It was then that I began using Doan's Kidney Pills, procured from E. A. Drown's drug store. They helped me from the first, relieving the backache and strengthening my kidneys. I used in all three boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills and can honestly say that I never took any other remedy that benefited me so greatly."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

RANDOLPH

Death of Mrs. A. J. Curtis Occurred Yesterday Morning. The death of Mrs. A. J. Curtis occurred at her home on School street Friday morning at 1:30, after an illness of several months, which was attended with great suffering. The health of Mrs. Curtis had not been firm for several years, and in the summer she went to the sanatorium for a slight surgical operation, which afforded only temporary relief. She had been a resident of this place for many years and her identity with church and social circles during her active years gave her an extended acquaintance and many friends. The funeral arrangements are not yet completed.

W. E. Rand visited his brother in Saxton's River the first of the week.

Miss Ivy Manchester returned from a visit of several weeks in New York Friday night.

Col. A. B. Chandler of Brooklyn, N. Y., has arrived for a short visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Lamson.

Mrs. George Haraden, who is still in poor health, has for a nurse, for the present, Mrs. Sarah Huntington of Barre.

Miss Lucinda Dupuis has severed her connection with the Knauzberg Standard and is here for the winter with Mrs. Lyman Rix, her sister.

The Brooklyn society of Vermenters has chosen Frank Chandler, who often spends his summers here and who is the brother of Col. A. B. Chandler, for its treasurer.

Principal E. G. Ham will speak before the meeting of the New England Classical association, held at Middlebury college to-day, upon the subject of "Virgil's Attempt at Etymology."

Mrs. Phoebe Thompson, who has been with Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Holman for two months, has returned to her home in Waterbury and was accompanied there by Mrs. Holman, who remained with her two days.

Rev. and Mrs. A. C. Gilmore were in Hancock last week, where Mr. Gilmore delivered his lecture on "Ben Hur." The following day was passed in Rochester as the guests of Miss Jessie Morgan and Mrs. Susie Gabrielle.

James Mullaly has finished off a basement tenement in his house north of the covered bridge and has rented the same to Mrs. Harry Brooks, whose husband went to Central America in the early part of the season to take charge of a fruit train.

The work of repairs in the store of Bell Bros. has been completed, and the second floor is greatly improved by new steel ceiling and fresh paint and paper. Already new goods are on exhibition, which makes the whole interior very attractive.

Randolph merchants, in making preparations for the Christmas trade, have in stock a large number of Red Cross stamps as a decoration, as well as to call attention to the work of the Red Cross society against tuberculosis. A substantial fund is expected to be realized by their sale.

The son of Mrs. Ada Spaulding, a former housekeeper at the sanatorium, is now ill at Montpelier sanitarium with a light attack of scarlet fever. Mrs. Spaulding, never having had the disease, could not get to her son, Harold, and he has been under the care of a nurse, while making rapid recovery from the illness, and no further spread of the disease is anticipated.

Christmas at the churches will be elaborately observed this year, with cantatas and oratorios, beside the regular anthems.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. E. Smith and daughter, Charlotte, leave to-day for Pasadena, Cal., where Mr. Smith is to be cashier at the Raymond.

Harry Jordan, employed in the candy department of C. H. Cross & Son's bakery, burned one hand yesterday and will be unable to work for a few days.

The state auditor's office has been a busy place this week, as the state officers receive their pay for the quarter, December 1. Auditor H. F. Graham, who has been here a few days this week, returned to Craftsbury to-day.

J. W. Sault of Ludlow, who was here to attend the meeting of the Vermont Press association yesterday, was found last evening in the parlors of the Pavilion, where he had fainted. He came from the West to attend the meeting and had traveled all night. It is thought that this was the cause of his fainting.

Rich Men's Gifts Are Poor beside this: "I want to go on record as saying that I regard Electric Bitters as one of the greatest gifts that God has made to woman," writes Mrs. O. Rhine-vault of Vestal Center, N. Y. "I can never forget what it has done for me." This glorious medicine gives a woman buoyant spirits, vigor of body and jubilant health. It quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting and dizzy spells; soon builds up the weak, sallow and sickly. Try it. 50c at the Red Cross Pharmacy.

A Justifiable Protest. "What's that?" cried the convicted incendiary. "Five years? Well, if you people ain't the worst I ever ran up against! Here I goes out in the evenin' an' sets fire to the tallest buildin' in town—sets fire to it so that in less'n a minute the thing's a shootin' blaze a hundred feet up into the sky. The whole poppylation is there quicker'n scat, all of you tickled to death at the sight! For four an' five hours you stood there watchin' the three-hours of solid enjoyment, too—an' it not costin' you a cent! Why, a circus or the theater or a scandal trial wouldn't have given you half as much fun, an' you know it! An' yet you sit there an' bring in a verdict givin' me five years in the penitentiary—me that's shown you all a good time—an' ought to be considered as a benefactor if there was any gratitude in the human boozum!"—Exchange.

See that all the hours of the day are so full of interesting and healthful occupations that there is no chance for worry to stick its nose in.—Luther H. Gulick.

See that all the hours of the day are so full of interesting and healthful occupations that there is no chance for worry to stick its nose in.—Luther H. Gulick.

See that all the hours of the day are so full of interesting and healthful occupations that there is no chance for worry to stick its nose in.—Luther H. Gulick.

See that all the hours of the day are so full of interesting and healthful occupations that there is no chance for worry to stick its nose in.—Luther H. Gulick.

See that all the hours of the day are so full of interesting and healthful occupations that there is no chance for worry to stick its nose in.—Luther H. Gulick.

See that all the hours of the day are so full of interesting and healthful occupations that there is no chance for worry to stick its nose in.—Luther H. Gulick.

See that all the hours of the day are so full of interesting and healthful occupations that there is no chance for worry to stick its nose in.—Luther H. Gulick.

See that all the hours of the day are so full of interesting and healthful occupations that there is no chance for worry to stick its nose in.—Luther H. Gulick.

See that all the hours of the day are so full of interesting and healthful occupations that there is no chance for worry to stick its nose in.—Luther H. Gulick.

See that all the hours of the day are so full of interesting and healthful occupations that there is no chance for worry to stick its nose in.—Luther H. Gulick.

See that all the hours of the day are so full of interesting and healthful occupations that there is no chance for worry to stick its nose in.—Luther H. Gulick.

See that all the hours of the day are so full of interesting and healthful occupations that there is no chance for worry to stick its nose in.—Luther H. Gulick.

See that all the hours of the day are so full of interesting and healthful occupations that there is no chance for worry to stick its nose in.—Luther H. Gulick.

See that all the hours of the day are so full of interesting and healthful occupations that there is no chance for worry to stick its nose in.—Luther H. Gulick.

See that all the hours of the day are so full of interesting and healthful occupations that there is no chance for worry to stick its nose in.—Luther H. Gulick.

See that all the hours of the day are so full of interesting and healthful occupations that there is no chance for worry to stick its nose in.—Luther H. Gulick.

See that all the hours of the day are so full of interesting and healthful occupations that there is no chance for worry to stick its nose in.—Luther H. Gulick.

See that all the hours of the day are so full of interesting and healthful occupations that there is no chance for worry to stick its nose in.—Luther H. Gulick.

See that all the hours of the day are so full of interesting and healthful occupations that there is no chance for worry to stick its nose in.—Luther H. Gulick.

See that all the hours of the day are so full of interesting and healthful occupations that there is no chance for worry to stick its nose in.—Luther H. Gulick.

See that all the hours of the day are so full of interesting and healthful occupations that there is no chance for worry to stick its nose in.—Luther H. Gulick.

BETHEL

W. L. Fish has returned from a several weeks' visit in Boston. A daughter, Ruth Allis, was born November 29 to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kling. Miss Margaret Graham of Peabody, Mass., passed Sunday in town with friends.

B. C. Rogers is again acting as clerk in the store of Yett Brothers, who are selling out their stock.

Clinton Clafin has received a telegram from Kansas City, announcing the death of his cousin, Charles Clafin.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lawless have returned, after a two months' absence in Connecticut and Massachusetts.

C. L. Densmore of Chelsea is now employed in the jewelry store of L. E. Terry and does the work at the bench.

Harry Laraway, who bought the Brigham farm on the stage road to Barnard, is reported seriously ill with pneumonia.

Dr. and Mrs. O. D. Greene passed Thanksgiving and several days following with their daughter, Mrs. Ransom Greene, in Lowell, Mass.

Mrs. S. J. Jebb of Peabody, Mass., was in town last week and looked a house over, with the idea of purchasing and returning here to live.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Spooner, Miss Carrie Spooner, was married Tuesday evening, November 30, to Gustavus Gunderson by the Rev. J. Wesley Miller, and a reception followed the ceremony.

Mrs. James Wheeler was in town last week, attending to business connected with the settlement of her husband's estate, but will return this week to Keene, N. H., where she is attending a business college.

Nelson Pray has finished his work as night watchman, which he has continued for a year. Since the establishment of the new fire pump, it has not been thought necessary by the selectmen to maintain a watchman.

The house of Mrs. Josephine Lane narrowly escaped destruction by fire early Tuesday morning. The chimney had burned out the day before, but no danger was anticipated when the family retired. About 2 a. m., it was discovered that there was fire in the second story. By the assistance of the neighbors, who were summoned, the fire was soon extinguished by chopping the floor.

The barn of El. Gibson was discovered to be on fire about 7 o'clock Friday morning by Warren Preston, who was passing on his way to his work. The fire originated in the cellar and is supposed to have been caused by spontaneous combustion. By the assistance of help, which was at hand, the fire was extinguished before it did any serious damage.

Christmas at the churches will be elaborately observed this year, with cantatas and oratorios, beside the regular anthems.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. E. Smith and daughter, Charlotte, leave to-day for Pasadena, Cal., where Mr. Smith is to be cashier at the Raymond.

Harry Jordan, employed in the candy department of C. H. Cross & Son's bakery, burned one hand yesterday and will be unable to work for a few days.

The state auditor's office has been a busy place this week, as the state officers receive their pay for the quarter, December 1. Auditor H. F. Graham, who has been here a few days this week, returned to Craftsbury to-day.

J. W. Sault of Ludlow, who was here to attend the meeting of the Vermont Press association yesterday, was found last evening in the parlors of the Pavilion, where he had fainted. He came from the West to attend the meeting and had traveled all night. It is thought that this was the cause of his fainting.

Rich Men's Gifts Are Poor beside this: "I want to go on record as saying that I regard Electric Bitters as one of the greatest gifts that God has made to woman," writes Mrs. O. Rhine-vault of Vestal Center, N. Y. "I can never forget what it has done for me." This glorious medicine gives a woman buoyant spirits, vigor of body and jubilant health. It quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting and dizzy spells; soon builds up the weak, sallow and sickly. Try it. 50c at the Red Cross Pharmacy.

A Justifiable Protest. "What's that?" cried the convicted incendiary. "Five years? Well, if you people ain't the worst I ever ran up against! Here I goes out in the evenin' an' sets fire to the tallest buildin' in town—sets fire to it so that in less'n a minute the thing's a shootin' blaze a hundred feet up into the sky. The whole poppylation is there quicker'n scat, all of you tickled to death at the sight! For four an' five hours you stood there watchin' the three-hours of solid enjoyment, too—an' it not costin' you a cent! Why, a circus or the theater or a scandal trial wouldn't have given you half as much fun, an' you know it! An' yet you sit there an' bring in a verdict givin' me five years in the penitentiary—me that's shown you all a good time—an' ought to be considered as a benefactor if there was any gratitude in the human boozum!"—Exchange.

See that all the hours of the day are so full of interesting and healthful occupations that there is no chance for worry to stick its nose in.—Luther H. Gulick.

See that all the hours of the day are so full of interesting and healthful occupations that there is no chance for worry to stick its nose in.—Luther H. Gulick.

See that all the hours of the day are so full of interesting and healthful occupations that there is no chance for worry to stick its nose in.—Luther H. Gulick.

See that all the hours of the day are so full of interesting and healthful occupations that there is no chance for worry to stick its nose in.—Luther H. Gulick.

See that all the hours of the day are so full of interesting and healthful occupations that there is no chance for worry to stick its nose in.—Luther H. Gulick.

See that all the hours of the day are so full of interesting and healthful occupations that there is no chance for worry to stick its nose in.—Luther H. Gulick.

See that all the hours of the day are so full of interesting and healthful occupations that there is no chance for worry to stick its nose in.—Luther H. Gulick.

See that all the hours of the day are so full of interesting and healthful occupations that there is no chance for worry to stick its nose in.—Luther H. Gulick.

See that all the hours of the day are so full of interesting and healthful occupations that there is no chance for worry to stick its nose in.—Luther H. Gulick.

See that all the hours of the day are so full of interesting and healthful occupations that there is no chance for worry to stick its nose in.—Luther H. Gulick.

See that all the hours of the day are so full of interesting and healthful occupations that there is no chance for worry to stick its nose in.—Luther H. Gulick.

See that all the hours of the day are so full of interesting and healthful occupations that there is no chance for worry to stick its nose in.—Luther H. Gulick.

See that all the hours of the day are so full of interesting and healthful occupations that there is no chance for worry to stick its nose in.—Luther H. Gulick.

See that all the hours of the day are so full of interesting and healthful occupations that there is no chance for worry to stick its nose in.—Luther H. Gulick.

See that all the hours of the day are so full of interesting and healthful occupations that there is no chance for worry to stick its nose in.—Luther H. Gulick.

See that all the hours of the day are so full of interesting and healthful occupations that there is no chance for worry to stick its nose in.—Luther H. Gulick.

See that all the hours of the day are so full of interesting and healthful occupations that there is no chance for worry to stick its nose in.—Luther H. Gulick.

See that all the hours of the day are so full of interesting and healthful occupations that there is no chance for worry to stick its nose in.—Luther H. Gulick.

See that all the hours of the day are so full of interesting and healthful occupations that there is no chance for worry to stick its nose in.—Luther H. Gulick.

See that all the hours of the day are so full of interesting and healthful occupations that there is no chance for