TALK OF THE TOWN

To-night the management of the Pavilion gives 50 per cent. of the gross receipts to aid the Lumpers, Boozers and Drunkenmen's union. The program, as given last night, was very good, especially the very funny act presented by Lovey and Nise, which will be repeated again to-night. Miss Elmer Clifton's share of the program, while very well received, appeared to be a little too classical for the audience last night. To-night Miss Clifton will sing one selection in Italian for the benefit of the Italians who attend.

GRANVILLE

Rob Ashley returned to his work Saturday.

P. H. Hayes and family were guests at H. C. Powers' Sunday.

Q. M. Ford is in Boston, called there by the illness of his wife and daughter.

Henry Jackson, to which every member of the federation is invited.

The basket ball game scheduled to be played at the Church street gymnasium last evening between Goddard seminary and the Norwich university 1913 team was cancelled by the latter, who telephoned that they were unable to come. That was at eight o'clock after the Goddard team was on the floor practicing. Goddard's next scheduled game is with Vermont academy of Saxtons River on Monday evening, January 24, though they will try to arrange a game for this week with some team.

Miss Eva Jackson, a teacher in the commercial department of Spaulding high school, has contracted scarlet fever, and Miss Estee, a teacher of the ninth grade, has been quarantined with her. Miss Drusilla Bailey is taking Miss Pearl Estee's place for the present. The resignation of Miss Gertrude Edson from the ninth grade work to go to her home in Randolph, because of her father's illness, still further disrupted the teaching schedule there, but her place has been filled by the appointment of Miss Lucy Bean of Newport, a graduate of the university of Vermont, who arrived to-day.

The Card-Board Baby

Modern fairy story for children and grown-ups as well. One of the really nice little picture-dramas of the season. Fine photography.

Forced into Marriage

The atmosphere of the West permeates this picture of cowboys, bad men, mustangs and Indians. It is truly a vivid portrait of life on the frontier. The love story is likable.

The Three Neighbors

Comedy. How an undesirable suitor wins out with his sweetheart's father by restoring his stolen watch, which the young man finds when in the act of hanging himself.

SONG

Roy Welsh Sings "If I Could Gain the World by Wishing."
