

TAFT CONFERS ON TARIFF

Attitude of United States and Canada Friendly

MAY REACH AGREEMENT

Governor General Gray of Canada Was the Guest of the President—The Latter Issues Golf Challenge for Next Summer.

Albany, N. Y., March 24.—At the conclusion of a conference, which, with two or three interims, covered practically the entire day, President Taft last night seemed hopeful that a tariff war with Canada may yet be averted.

Meanwhile relations between the government and the Irish party again are becoming strained, owing to the declaration by Asquith, that he intends to pass the budget irrespective of whether the lords accept the veto resolution or not.

As the Irish are in control of the situation in the house of commons, it follows that unless Asquith agrees to their demand or finds other means of securing their co-operation, the government will be beaten on the budget and the general election precipitated in four weeks' time.

As the Irish are in control of the situation in the house of commons, it follows that unless Asquith agrees to their demand or finds other means of securing their co-operation, the government will be beaten on the budget and the general election precipitated in four weeks' time.

Eleven days remain for "friendly negotiation" before the maximum rates of the Payne-Aldrich tariff law automatically go into effect against those countries which are regarded by the president as "unduly discriminatory" against the United States.

The president received yesterday by special messenger from the state department a draft of the proclamation granting the minimum tariff rates to France and signed it as of Saturday.

It was reported last night that Minister Fielding may be in Washington the latter part of this month.

GUEST OF PRESIDENT TAFT

Governor General of Canada Challenged to Play Golf.

Albany, N. Y., March 24.—After being for a day and a half the guest of Governor Hughes, President Taft retired on board his private car last night, and at three o'clock this morning left for New York, en route to New Haven, where he will to-day attend a meeting of the Yale corporation.

Earl Grey, governor general of Canada, accompanies the president to New York as his personal guest. The two heads of government set up late last night in the observation parlor of the car Olympia, conversing with the frank cordiality and evident pleasure that both have felt since their first meeting on American soil Saturday afternoon.

The engineer will probably die from his injury. It is believed that he was struck by a projection of the Westminster street bridge, near Olneyville. His home is in New Haven.

COWBOY IDENTIFIES FIANCE

Haines (N. D.) Man Weds Girl He Has Never Seen Before.

New York, March 24.—John Dimer, a cowboy of Haines, N. D., visited Ellis Island Saturday and identified his fiance, whom he had never seen before, by a photograph which Dimer's mother had taken in Hamburg. The girl, Rosa Henke, of Hamburg, and the cowboy were married Saturday afternoon and started for their home Saturday night.

MIDDLES LOSE ALL LIBERTY

This for Giving "the Silence" to an Officer.

Annapolis, Md., March 24.—For having given an officer of the department the discipline which is known as "the silence" at supper formation Friday night, Captain John M. Bowyer, superintendent of the academy, Saturday issued orders suspending all general and special liberty for the whole brigade. Until further orders no midshipman will be allowed to leave the academy limits for any purpose whatever. Permission to hold hops during April and May has been revoked.

PILES CURED IN 6 TO 14 DAYS

PAZO OINTMENT is guaranteed to cure any case of itching, blind, bleeding or protruding piles in 6 to 14 days or money refunded. 50c.

Constipation

Hood's Pills

CRISIS NEAR IN BRITISH CONSTITUTIONAL FIGHT

Defeat of the Anti-Peers Forces Is Considered Likely Unless Conditions Soon Change.

London, March 24.—The constitutional crisis is rapidly developing. After four days' debate the house of lords unanimously agreed to go into committee in order to consider Lord Rosebery's reform proposals. But it is abundantly clear they have no intention of consenting to such alterations in the constitution of their chamber as will satisfy the Liberals.

John Redmond adheres to his refusal to be a party to passing the budget unless abolition of the veto is secured, believing it essential that the house of commons should not ease the increasing difficult financial situation until the lords are overborne.

The advanced section of the Liberals support the Irish view and show an amount of interest in Asquith's attitude, which the latter's appeal for patience at Oxford Friday night has done little to quiet.

The advanced section of the Liberals support the Irish view and show an amount of interest in Asquith's attitude, which the latter's appeal for patience at Oxford Friday night has done little to quiet.

MOTHER EARTH'S AGE

400,000,000 YEARS?

Geologists Say the Way It Was Found

Out Was to Figure on Salt Rivers Give Ocean.

Chicago, March 24.—The jealously guarded secret of Mother Earth's age as at last been revealed, and it was the ocean that gave the answer.

According to the Journal of Geology, issued Saturday, the earth is 400,000,000 years old. The approximate age of the earth, it has been discovered, may be determined by dividing the amount of salt in the sea by the amount brought down each year by the rivers that empty into it, a simple problem in arithmetic.

DYING MAN AT ENGINE LEVER

Fireman Averts Wreck of New York Express.

Providence, R. I., March 24.—Struck by a bridge beam as he leaped out of his cab, George E. Weatherman, engineer of the Boston-bound New York express due here at 11:45 Saturday, lay unconscious at the engine throttle for several minutes, while the train thundered on.

CANNON REPLIES TO FOES

"We Always Have Cranks with Us," He Says.

Washington, March 24.—With eyes glowing defiance and voice thundering at his enemies, with all the day's pent-up bitterness, Speaker Cannon made a virile and a voice of defiance, and that four gentlemen who had voted against him then had voted for him Saturday.

Not a "Cure-all"

Separate Remedies, Each Devised for the Treatment of a Particular Ailment.

There is no "cure-all" among the Rexall remedies. There are different and certain human ailments or a class of ailments clearly defined. For instance, Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets are recommended for the positive relief of stomach irritation, indigestion, flatulence and dyspepsia.

SHORN OF HIS POWER

Speaker Cannon Loses in House Fight

OFF THE RULES COMMITTEE

But He Stays in the Chair as Speaker by a Deciding Vote of 191 to 155.

Washington, March 24.—Mr. Cannon is still speaker, but no longer a czar. The battle was fought to a finish Saturday. In the struggle, that lasted 2 1/2 hours, a series of crushing defeats were administered to the speaker and to the regulars by the united Democrats and insurgents, but in the end the House voted confidence in the speaker, refusing to depose him from the speakership.

SHORN OF HIS POWER

Speaker Cannon Loses in House Fight

OFF THE RULES COMMITTEE

But He Stays in the Chair as Speaker by a Deciding Vote of 191 to 155.

Washington, March 24.—Mr. Cannon is still speaker, but no longer a czar. The battle was fought to a finish Saturday. In the struggle, that lasted 2 1/2 hours, a series of crushing defeats were administered to the speaker and to the regulars by the united Democrats and insurgents, but in the end the House voted confidence in the speaker, refusing to depose him from the speakership.

Washington, March 24.—Mr. Cannon is still speaker, but no longer a czar. The battle was fought to a finish Saturday. In the struggle, that lasted 2 1/2 hours, a series of crushing defeats were administered to the speaker and to the regulars by the united Democrats and insurgents, but in the end the House voted confidence in the speaker, refusing to depose him from the speakership.

Washington, March 24.—Mr. Cannon is still speaker, but no longer a czar. The battle was fought to a finish Saturday. In the struggle, that lasted 2 1/2 hours, a series of crushing defeats were administered to the speaker and to the regulars by the united Democrats and insurgents, but in the end the House voted confidence in the speaker, refusing to depose him from the speakership.

Washington, March 24.—Mr. Cannon is still speaker, but no longer a czar. The battle was fought to a finish Saturday. In the struggle, that lasted 2 1/2 hours, a series of crushing defeats were administered to the speaker and to the regulars by the united Democrats and insurgents, but in the end the House voted confidence in the speaker, refusing to depose him from the speakership.

Washington, March 24.—Mr. Cannon is still speaker, but no longer a czar. The battle was fought to a finish Saturday. In the struggle, that lasted 2 1/2 hours, a series of crushing defeats were administered to the speaker and to the regulars by the united Democrats and insurgents, but in the end the House voted confidence in the speaker, refusing to depose him from the speakership.

Washington, March 24.—Mr. Cannon is still speaker, but no longer a czar. The battle was fought to a finish Saturday. In the struggle, that lasted 2 1/2 hours, a series of crushing defeats were administered to the speaker and to the regulars by the united Democrats and insurgents, but in the end the House voted confidence in the speaker, refusing to depose him from the speakership.

Washington, March 24.—Mr. Cannon is still speaker, but no longer a czar. The battle was fought to a finish Saturday. In the struggle, that lasted 2 1/2 hours, a series of crushing defeats were administered to the speaker and to the regulars by the united Democrats and insurgents, but in the end the House voted confidence in the speaker, refusing to depose him from the speakership.

Washington, March 24.—Mr. Cannon is still speaker, but no longer a czar. The battle was fought to a finish Saturday. In the struggle, that lasted 2 1/2 hours, a series of crushing defeats were administered to the speaker and to the regulars by the united Democrats and insurgents, but in the end the House voted confidence in the speaker, refusing to depose him from the speakership.

Washington, March 24.—Mr. Cannon is still speaker, but no longer a czar. The battle was fought to a finish Saturday. In the struggle, that lasted 2 1/2 hours, a series of crushing defeats were administered to the speaker and to the regulars by the united Democrats and insurgents, but in the end the House voted confidence in the speaker, refusing to depose him from the speakership.

Washington, March 24.—Mr. Cannon is still speaker, but no longer a czar. The battle was fought to a finish Saturday. In the struggle, that lasted 2 1/2 hours, a series of crushing defeats were administered to the speaker and to the regulars by the united Democrats and insurgents, but in the end the House voted confidence in the speaker, refusing to depose him from the speakership.

Washington, March 24.—Mr. Cannon is still speaker, but no longer a czar. The battle was fought to a finish Saturday. In the struggle, that lasted 2 1/2 hours, a series of crushing defeats were administered to the speaker and to the regulars by the united Democrats and insurgents, but in the end the House voted confidence in the speaker, refusing to depose him from the speakership.

Washington, March 24.—Mr. Cannon is still speaker, but no longer a czar. The battle was fought to a finish Saturday. In the struggle, that lasted 2 1/2 hours, a series of crushing defeats were administered to the speaker and to the regulars by the united Democrats and insurgents, but in the end the House voted confidence in the speaker, refusing to depose him from the speakership.

Washington, March 24.—Mr. Cannon is still speaker, but no longer a czar. The battle was fought to a finish Saturday. In the struggle, that lasted 2 1/2 hours, a series of crushing defeats were administered to the speaker and to the regulars by the united Democrats and insurgents, but in the end the House voted confidence in the speaker, refusing to depose him from the speakership.

Washington, March 24.—Mr. Cannon is still speaker, but no longer a czar. The battle was fought to a finish Saturday. In the struggle, that lasted 2 1/2 hours, a series of crushing defeats were administered to the speaker and to the regulars by the united Democrats and insurgents, but in the end the House voted confidence in the speaker, refusing to depose him from the speakership.

Washington, March 24.—Mr. Cannon is still speaker, but no longer a czar. The battle was fought to a finish Saturday. In the struggle, that lasted 2 1/2 hours, a series of crushing defeats were administered to the speaker and to the regulars by the united Democrats and insurgents, but in the end the House voted confidence in the speaker, refusing to depose him from the speakership.

Washington, March 24.—Mr. Cannon is still speaker, but no longer a czar. The battle was fought to a finish Saturday. In the struggle, that lasted 2 1/2 hours, a series of crushing defeats were administered to the speaker and to the regulars by the united Democrats and insurgents, but in the end the House voted confidence in the speaker, refusing to depose him from the speakership.

Washington, March 24.—Mr. Cannon is still speaker, but no longer a czar. The battle was fought to a finish Saturday. In the struggle, that lasted 2 1/2 hours, a series of crushing defeats were administered to the speaker and to the regulars by the united Democrats and insurgents, but in the end the House voted confidence in the speaker, refusing to depose him from the speakership.

Washington, March 24.—Mr. Cannon is still speaker, but no longer a czar. The battle was fought to a finish Saturday. In the struggle, that lasted 2 1/2 hours, a series of crushing defeats were administered to the speaker and to the regulars by the united Democrats and insurgents, but in the end the House voted confidence in the speaker, refusing to depose him from the speakership.

Washington, March 24.—Mr. Cannon is still speaker, but no longer a czar. The battle was fought to a finish Saturday. In the struggle, that lasted 2 1/2 hours, a series of crushing defeats were administered to the speaker and to the regulars by the united Democrats and insurgents, but in the end the House voted confidence in the speaker, refusing to depose him from the speakership.

Washington, March 24.—Mr. Cannon is still speaker, but no longer a czar. The battle was fought to a finish Saturday. In the struggle, that lasted 2 1/2 hours, a series of crushing defeats were administered to the speaker and to the regulars by the united Democrats and insurgents, but in the end the House voted confidence in the speaker, refusing to depose him from the speakership.

Washington, March 24.—Mr. Cannon is still speaker, but no longer a czar. The battle was fought to a finish Saturday. In the struggle, that lasted 2 1/2 hours, a series of crushing defeats were administered to the speaker and to the regulars by the united Democrats and insurgents, but in the end the House voted confidence in the speaker, refusing to depose him from the speakership.

Washington, March 24.—Mr. Cannon is still speaker, but no longer a czar. The battle was fought to a finish Saturday. In the struggle, that lasted 2 1/2 hours, a series of crushing defeats were administered to the speaker and to the regulars by the united Democrats and insurgents, but in the end the House voted confidence in the speaker, refusing to depose him from the speakership.

Washington, March 24.—Mr. Cannon is still speaker, but no longer a czar. The battle was fought to a finish Saturday. In the struggle, that lasted 2 1/2 hours, a series of crushing defeats were administered to the speaker and to the regulars by the united Democrats and insurgents, but in the end the House voted confidence in the speaker, refusing to depose him from the speakership.

Washington, March 24.—Mr. Cannon is still speaker, but no longer a czar. The battle was fought to a finish Saturday. In the struggle, that lasted 2 1/2 hours, a series of crushing defeats were administered to the speaker and to the regulars by the united Democrats and insurgents, but in the end the House voted confidence in the speaker, refusing to depose him from the speakership.

Washington, March 24.—Mr. Cannon is still speaker, but no longer a czar. The battle was fought to a finish Saturday. In the struggle, that lasted 2 1/2 hours, a series of crushing defeats were administered to the speaker and to the regulars by the united Democrats and insurgents, but in the end the House voted confidence in the speaker, refusing to depose him from the speakership.

Washington, March 24.—Mr. Cannon is still speaker, but no longer a czar. The battle was fought to a finish Saturday. In the struggle, that lasted 2 1/2 hours, a series of crushing defeats were administered to the speaker and to the regulars by the united Democrats and insurgents, but in the end the House voted confidence in the speaker, refusing to depose him from the speakership.

Washington, March 24.—Mr. Cannon is still speaker, but no longer a czar. The battle was fought to a finish Saturday. In the struggle, that lasted 2 1/2 hours, a series of crushing defeats were administered to the speaker and to the regulars by the united Democrats and insurgents, but in the end the House voted confidence in the speaker, refusing to depose him from the speakership.

Washington, March 24.—Mr. Cannon is still speaker, but no longer a czar. The battle was fought to a finish Saturday. In the struggle, that lasted 2 1/2 hours, a series of crushing defeats were administered to the speaker and to the regulars by the united Democrats and insurgents, but in the end the House voted confidence in the speaker, refusing to depose him from the speakership.

Washington, March 24.—Mr. Cannon is still speaker, but no longer a czar. The battle was fought to a finish Saturday. In the struggle, that lasted 2 1/2 hours, a series of crushing defeats were administered to the speaker and to the regulars by the united Democrats and insurgents, but in the end the House voted confidence in the speaker, refusing to depose him from the speakership.

Washington, March 24.—Mr. Cannon is still speaker, but no longer a czar. The battle was fought to a finish Saturday. In the struggle, that lasted 2 1/2 hours, a series of crushing defeats were administered to the speaker and to the regulars by the united Democrats and insurgents, but in the end the House voted confidence in the speaker, refusing to depose him from the speakership.

Washington, March 24.—Mr. Cannon is still speaker, but no longer a czar. The battle was fought to a finish Saturday. In the struggle, that lasted 2 1/2 hours, a series of crushing defeats were administered to the speaker and to the regulars by the united Democrats and insurgents, but in the end the House voted confidence in the speaker, refusing to depose him from the speakership.

Washington, March 24.—Mr. Cannon is still speaker, but no longer a czar. The battle was fought to a finish Saturday. In the struggle, that lasted 2 1/2 hours, a series of crushing defeats were administered to the speaker and to the regulars by the united Democrats and insurgents, but in the end the House voted confidence in the speaker, refusing to depose him from the speakership.

Washington, March 24.—Mr. Cannon is still speaker, but no longer a czar. The battle was fought to a finish Saturday. In the struggle, that lasted 2 1/2 hours, a series of crushing defeats were administered to the speaker and to the regulars by the united Democrats and insurgents, but in the end the House voted confidence in the speaker, refusing to depose him from the speakership.

Washington, March 24.—Mr. Cannon is still speaker, but no longer a czar. The battle was fought to a finish Saturday. In the struggle, that lasted 2 1/2 hours, a series of crushing defeats were administered to the speaker and to the regulars by the united Democrats and insurgents, but in the end the House voted confidence in the speaker, refusing to depose him from the speakership.

Washington, March 24.—Mr. Cannon is still speaker, but no longer a czar. The battle was fought to a finish Saturday. In the struggle, that lasted 2 1/2 hours, a series of crushing defeats were administered to the speaker and to the regulars by the united Democrats and insurgents, but in the end the House voted confidence in the speaker, refusing to depose him from the speakership.

INSURANCE SCANDAL GROWS

Large Sums Spent for Legislation in New York

SENSATION AT HEARING

The Evidence Given of Legislative Bribes—Assemblyman Aldridge Is Said to Have Received $1,000.

New York, March 24.—Merrill's lurid question after question at reluctant witnesses and reading to them in rapid succession letters and telegrams that told in unmistakable terms of the activity of fire insurance companies in influencing legislation at Albany, William H. Hotchkiss, state superintendent of insurance, and his attorney, Alfred Hurrell, forced startling revelations at Saturday's session of the fire insurance inquiry.

It was shown that large sums of money had been raised to procure or thwart legislation between 1901 and 1906. These payments, the majority of which were to law firms, ranged from $700 to $17,500. The three largest payments were of $17,500 to the law firm of Sherman & Sterling in 1905 for work at Albany in connection with legislation then pending of $10,000 in 1906 for the same purpose, and of $5,211 to Elijah H. Kennedy, member of the insurance firm of Wood & Kennedy. It was this latter payment that came out when Mr. Kennedy's bill to the New York board of underwriters for $13,311 was produced.

The witnesses examined yesterday were Mr. Kennedy, Charles L. Case, former chairman of the committee on laws and legislation of the board of underwriters, and William N. Kremer of the German-American Fire Insurance company, who was vice-chairman of the committee on laws and legislation of the board from 1900 to 1907, and chairman in 1907 and 1908.

One interesting statement made by Mr. Kennedy was that he has given a "present" of $1,000 to George W. Aldridge of Rochester, Republican leader of Monroe county.

This item was part of the $5,000 officially disallowed by the underwriters, but later reimbursed to Kennedy by assessments levied on the insurance companies individually. Kennedy said Friday that Aldridge got $500, but Saturday corrected his testimony.

Every effort to force Kennedy to tell who received the remainder of the $5,000 was futile.

CONFESSES BRIBERY IN COUNCIL

Convicted Politician Accuses 60 Former Colleagues.

Pittsburg, March 24.—Almost on the very threshold of the state prison, which he was to enter to-day to serve a six years' sentence for bribery, former Councilman John F. Klein is reported to have made a complete confession of the bribery conspiracy of 1908, in which he implicates 60 or more present and former councilmen. The confession is said to have been brought about by the failure of Klein's friends, whom he is alleged to have protected by his reticence, to come to the rescue of his family, when he would leave penniless in entering prison.

Klein was to have gone to prison a week ago, but was granted a respite by the district attorney in the hope of securing further information in the graft cases. The confession was also said last night to have been the cause of reading the grand jury, which was to have been dismissed Saturday, for an extraordinary session to-day. A drug net has been out all day for 60 councilmen, according to the report, and the councilmen are being brought before the district attorney as fast as they are found.

It is known that Klein had been kept practically a prisoner by Detective Williams at a hotel all day Saturday. Klein is said to have given William a memorandum containing not only the names of the 60 councilmen, but also the amounts of graft money given them. Some of the councilmen, it is asserted, sold themselves for as little as $100, if the figures on the memorandum are correct.

Not a "Cure-all"

Separate Remedies, Each Devised for the Treatment of a Particular Ailment.

There is no "cure-all" among the Rexall remedies. There are different and certain human ailments or a class of ailments clearly defined. For instance, Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets are recommended for the positive relief of stomach irritation, indigestion, flatulence and dyspepsia.

They are rich in their anti-acid, pepsin and carminatives. They are prepared by special processes, which perfect and enhance the great remedial value of these well-known medicinal agents. This remedy sells for 25 cents, 50 cents, and $1.00 per package. Every one suffering from stomach disorder should try Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets, inasmuch as they cost nothing if they do not satisfy.

Remember, Bart H. Wells' store is the only store in Burdette where these remedies may be obtained, and everyone in need of medicine is urged to investigate and take advantage of the frank and generous manner in which they are sold.

INSURANCE SCANDAL GROWS

Large Sums Spent for Legislation in New York

SENSATION AT HEARING

The Evidence Given of Legislative Bribes—Assemblyman Aldridge Is Said to Have Received $1,000.

New York, March 24.—Merrill's lurid question after question at reluctant witnesses and reading to them in rapid succession letters and telegrams that told in unmistakable terms of the activity of fire insurance companies in influencing legislation at Albany, William H. Hotchkiss, state superintendent of insurance, and his attorney, Alfred Hurrell, forced startling revelations at Saturday's session of the fire insurance inquiry.

It was shown that large sums of money had been raised to procure or thwart legislation between 1901 and 1906. These payments, the majority of which were to law firms, ranged from $700 to $17,500. The three largest payments were of $17,500 to the law firm of Sherman & Sterling in 1905 for work at Albany in connection with legislation then pending of $10,000 in 1906 for the same purpose, and of $5,211 to Elijah H. Kennedy, member of the insurance firm of Wood & Kennedy. It was this latter payment that came out when Mr. Kennedy's bill to the New York board of underwriters for $13,311 was produced.

The witnesses examined yesterday were Mr. Kennedy, Charles L. Case, former chairman of the committee on laws and legislation of the board of underwriters, and William N. Kremer of the German-American Fire Insurance company, who was vice-chairman of the committee on laws and legislation of the board from 1900 to 1907, and chairman in 1907 and 1908.

INSURANCE SCANDAL GROWS

Large Sums Spent for Legislation in New York

SENSATION AT HEARING

The Evidence Given of Legislative Bribes—Assemblyman Aldridge Is Said to Have Received $1,000.

New York, March 24.—Merrill's lurid question after question at reluctant witnesses and reading to them in rapid succession letters and telegrams that told in unmistakable terms of the activity of fire insurance companies in influencing legislation at Albany, William H. Hotchkiss, state superintendent of insurance, and his attorney, Alfred Hurrell, forced startling revelations at Saturday's session of the fire insurance inquiry.

It was shown that large sums of money had been raised to procure or thwart legislation between 1901 and 1906. These payments, the majority of which were to law firms, ranged from $700 to $17,500. The three largest payments were of $17,500 to the law firm of Sherman & Sterling in 1905 for work at Albany in connection with legislation then pending of $10,000 in 1906 for the same purpose, and of $5,211 to Elijah H. Kennedy, member of the insurance firm of Wood & Kennedy. It was this latter payment that came out when Mr. Kennedy's bill to the New York board of underwriters for $13,311 was produced.

The witnesses examined yesterday were Mr. Kennedy, Charles L. Case, former chairman of the committee on laws and legislation of the board of underwriters, and William N. Kremer of the German-American Fire Insurance company, who was vice-chairman of the committee on laws and legislation of the board from 1900 to 1907, and chairman in 1907 and 1908.

One interesting statement made by Mr. Kennedy was that he has given a "present" of $1,000 to George W. Aldridge of Rochester, Republican leader of Monroe county.

This item was part of the $5,000 officially disallowed by the underwriters, but later reimbursed to Kennedy by assessments levied on the insurance companies individually. Kennedy said Friday that Aldridge got $500, but Saturday corrected his testimony.

Every effort to force Kennedy to tell who received the remainder of the $5,000 was futile.

CONFESSES BRIBERY IN COUNCIL

Convicted Politician Accuses 60 Former Colleagues.

Pittsburg, March 24.—Almost on the very threshold of the state prison, which he was to enter to-day to serve a six years' sentence for bribery, former Councilman John F. Klein is reported to have made a complete confession of the bribery conspiracy of 1908, in which he implicates 60 or more present and former councilmen. The confession is said to have been brought about by the failure of Klein's friends, whom he is alleged to have protected by his reticence, to come to the rescue of his family, when he would leave penniless in entering prison.

Klein was to have gone to prison a week ago, but was granted a respite by the district attorney in the hope of securing further information in the graft cases. The confession was also said last night to have been the cause of reading the grand jury, which was to have been dismissed Saturday, for an extraordinary session to-day. A drug net has been out all day for 60 councilmen, according to the report, and the councilmen are being brought before the district attorney as fast as they are found.

It is known that Klein had been kept practically a prisoner by Detective Williams at a hotel all day Saturday. Klein is said to have given William a memorandum containing not only the names of the 60 councilmen, but also the amounts of graft money given them. Some of the councilmen, it is asserted, sold themselves for as little as $100, if the figures on the memorandum are correct.

Not a "Cure-all"

Separate Remedies, Each Devised for the Treatment of a Particular Ailment.

There is no "cure-all" among the Rexall remedies. There are different and certain human ailments or a class of ailments clearly defined. For instance, Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets are recommended for the positive relief of stomach irritation, indigestion, flatulence and dyspepsia.

They are rich in their anti-acid, pepsin and carminatives. They are prepared by special processes, which perfect and enhance the great remedial value of these well-known medicinal agents. This remedy sells for 25 cents, 50 cents, and $1.00 per package. Every one suffering from stomach disorder should try Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets, inasmuch as they cost nothing if they do not satisfy.

Remember, Bart H. Wells' store is the only store in Burdette where these remedies may be obtained, and everyone in need of medicine is urged to investigate and take advantage of the frank and generous manner in which they are sold.

GAS, HEARTBURN AND DYSPEPSIA VANISH

A Little Diapiesin Now Will Settle Your Out-of-order Stomach and End All Indigestion Five Minutes Later.

You can eat anything your stomach craves without fear of indigestion or dyspepsia, or that your food will ferment or sour on your stomach, if you will take a little Diapiesin occasionally.

Your meals will taste good, and anything you eat will be digested; nothing will ferment or turn into acid, poison or stomach gas, which causes belching, flatulence, a feeling of fullness after eating, nausea, indigestion (like a lump of lead in stomach), hiccoughs, heartburn, water brash, pain in stomach and intestines or other symptoms.

Headaches from the stomach are absolutely unknown where this effective remedy is used. Diapiesin really does all the work of a healthy stomach. It digests your meals when your stomach can't. A single dose will digest all the food you eat and leave nothing to ferment or sour and upset the stomach.

Get a large 50-cent case of Papa's Diapiesin from your druggist and start taking now, and in a little while you will actually brag about your healthy, strong stomach, for you then can eat anything and everything you want without the slightest discomfort or misery, and every particle of impurity and gas that is in your stomach and intestines is going to be carried away without the use of laxatives or any other assistance.

Should you at this moment be suffering from indigestion or any stomach disorder, you can get relief within five minutes.