A car of the celebrated Clover and Rose brand oranges was shipped from Redlands, California, direct, to L. C. Fisher & Co., Barre, Vt. Order a box of your dealer at once.

The Boston papers have unanimously proclaimed "Bully, the Boy Artist," a success. The Globe says: "It is a go," while The Journal voices the sentiments of every other paper when it says: "The large audiences are enthusiastic." The rate in Barre is Monday, April 4.

The president of the Barre class of the Congregational church desires a very large attendance at its meeting tomorrow. It is expected that Dr. Barnett will be present and speak a few words to the class. Come and let us have the best meeting in the history of the class.

Green Mountain council, No. 786, Royal Arcanum, was much in evidence last evening, when at its regular meeting twelve new members were initiated and a number of applications read for the next meeting. Riley Burgess was elected and installed as chaplain by Grand Guide Clark.

Leon, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Ducharme, who reside on the Aldrich farm on the Montpelier road, was shot through the hand by the accidental discharge of a revolver which he was cleaning and loading, Tuesday. He was putting some cartridges into the cylinder, when one of them stuck, and in trying to pry it out it exploded and the bullet, which was of 22-calibre, passed through the fleshy part of the middle finger of his left hand. The bullet was found on the floor nearby, after it had gone through the finger. Dr. L. L. Leonard was called to dress the wound, which is not considered serious.

Mrs. C. C. Page, who has conducted a nurses' home and boarding place at 37 Jefferson street for several years, has rented the house to Mrs. Fanny Rowell of Montpelier, who will continue to register nurses there and take boarders. Mrs. Rowell has had good experience in conducting a boarding-house, having been engaged in the work in St. Johnsbury for some time, and she will endeavor to keep the house up to the same reputation it has had in the past. Mrs. Page expects to spend the summer in White River Junction, but will retain her room at the house.

A. P. ABBOTT & CO.

NOW IS THE TIME

to select your Spring Suit and Regal Shoes. Our assortment is just now at its best. Our sizes in shoes are all here. Ladies' Suits that you can get now will in a short time be sold and no duplicates, in fact many cloths now being used in suits will soon be closed out. You know what this means, a disappointment on some Suit that you would like. Don't let us hurry you, just consider for yourself.

REGAL SHOES

We have a new Regal Shoe for old ladies or tender feet. It is a Vicil Kid Shoe, with a flexible sole and will be a find for those that want a comfortable shoe or a house shoe.

Two-eye Suede Oxfords are the young ladies' fad.

The new shoe is the 4-button King Oalf Oxford for a very new dressy shoe for street wear. The style is very swell, so considered.

All of our new Tan Oxfords are here, and where you see them from a Regal last you will think that you must just have them.

MISSSES' COATS and SUITS

Our line of Young Ladies' Suits and Coats is made like the older sizes, with lots of care as to the latest style and good cloths are used to make them serviceable and pretty.

Children's Summer Suits come in percales, ginghams and muslin. Larger sizes come the same as ladies' Tailored Suits of wool cloth; best grades in styles the same as ladies'.

Young Ladies' Coats come in very new, pretty designs, and the larger sizes are ladies' sizes. We have Coats and Suits in junior sizes. These are for small ladies.

LADIES' SUITS

There is about the new Spring Suits a something in the smartness of the style that is certainly very attractive and one good thing come up, and that is that you don't have to spend a fortune to get that new style. That is, if you buy your Suit here.

Our Ladies' Suits at $15.00 are our leaders. We show them with a great deal of confidence, feeling that we are really selling an unusual Suit at the price.

$25.00 and $27.50 Suits look to us as pretty good, and while most goods show an advance we believe these to be at the price the best that we have ever shown.

Mrs. W. L. Huntington is in town, moving from her old home on Washington street to the Mrs. Cutts tenement on Highland avenue. She will return to Randolph to stay until the first of May.

Mrs. Bond, assisted by Mrs. Parry, will again have of the domestic book at the hand fair this evening. Business was so good last evening they were practically sold out, but will be ready for you again to-night. Come early, if you wish for plain raised doughnuts.

Dreamland has not had a western drama for some time, and the new one in to-night's program will come as a treat to patrons of this popular theatre. "The Cowboy and the Squaw" is an Essanay film. It is a startling story of the old days in the West, when night was right. Rough and uncouth as the people in it are, human interest never flags from the start. Two other pictures and a song complete the entertainment.

The Bijou theatre has a picture to-night with a most sensational feature. "Love and Treason" is a splendid war drama. At one of the climaxes a fight between two sailors occurs deep down in the ocean. It is no fake. It really happens under water. Roy Welch will begin an engagement Monday at this theatre, opening with the popular new song, "Come After Breakfast." The rest of the pictures for to-night are all good, especially the comedy-gram.

Among the arrivals at the Hotel Otis yesterday were Harry C. Moseley, Northfield; C. B. Johnson, Boston; L. E. Hood, Providence, R. I.; Charles D. Reed, Portland, Me.; F. V. O'Neil, Boston; C. H. Daniels, Bridgewater; L. D. Vansell, Saltsburg, Pa.; E. J. Livermore, Boston; A. M. Tibbitts, Burlington; Albert G. Sterns, St. Johnsbury; A. C. Brown, Albany, N. Y.; Henry C. Walton, Newport; R. E. Duernsey, Burlington; W. S. Saylor, Boston.

Card of Thanks.
Mrs. A. R. Thurston and daughters wish to extend their thanks to the kind friends and neighbors for the sympathy and kind words extended to them in the death and burial of their dear husband and father.

Mrs. A. R. Thurston, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Snow, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Mentzer, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Blanchard.
