TALK OF THE TOWN.

Fifty-cent Tussah silk, 25c, at Abbott's. Ask anyone about the pictures at the Comique. Dog collars at 20 per cent. discount at the N. D. Phelps Co. Don't miss those 15c towels, or 2 for 25c, at Vesle & Knight's. Auction sale at the City Auction Rooms Friday and Saturday evenings. If it's a spring cap, the new things are from the Frank McWhorter company. The assessors wish to warn the business firms, who received legal warning to file their inventories on April 1, that if the same are not returned within a reasonable time more drastic measures will be taken. Read the heading on the inventory you received. Among the arrivals at the City Hotel last night and to-day were 16 members of the "A Night Out" company; John Malinosh, Manchester, N. H.; J. A. Calmer, Keeseville, N. Y.; H. H. Buler, Camber, Boston; C. F. Butterick, Boston; H. C. Brown, New York.

RANDOLPH

Sherman Spooner Had One Foot Amputated Thursday. Sherman Spooner has been suffering severely for several days and on Thursday his foot was amputated, the local physicians all being present. Dr. A. G. Bailey, the one who attended him, having the matter in charge. For several hours he was under the influence of ether and upon regaining consciousness was very weak; but it is hoped no serious results will follow. J. B. Wells returned Friday from a two days' trip to South Royalton and Chelsea. H. W. Whiting of New York City was here the first of the week on maple sugar business. H. M. Gaylord, who is one of the listers, has been assigned the village corporation and the adjoining territory. H. W. Lewis was called to Norwich, N. Y., last week by the illness of his mother, and his return is expected the last of the week. The Randolph Woman's Literary club has just presented the Kimball public library with 23 volumes, which have made the rounds of the club's roll of members. Mrs. George Wood and son of Brandon and Mrs. William Wood of Woodstock, who have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wood this week, left here Friday for Woodstock. A son was born Wednesday morning to Mr. and Mrs. Rolla Dwyer of Norwich, Conn. The child is a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Selva Thayer and Mr. and Mrs. Clara Rogers. Mrs. Clara Prince gave her little granddaughter, Marguerite Thomas, a party Monday, to which were invited several of the little girl's friends, in honor of her ninth birthday. At a special meeting of the order of Eastern Star held Thursday evening in Masonic hall, two candidates received the degrees of the order and Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Hayward, members of British chapter by affiliation, having been members of the South Royalton chapter formerly. Miss Janet Metzger will continue as head nurse of the sanitarium for the next two months, unless a more favorable opportunity for her presents itself. W. H. Messer bought a farm in Braintree of Mrs. Lillie Belle Flint and deeded it Monday to Edward R. Davis. Mrs. Flint has purchased the brick house on Central street, owned by Louis Fillion, for $1,000. News has been received here of the recent death of E. J. McWain, a former lawyer of this town, who will be remembered by many of our former people. Mr. McWain was in company with the late Judge Perrin, with an office in the old DalBois & Gay block. While here, he married Mahel Rowell of Randolph Center, who survives him, with four sons and one daughter. He was a member of Phoenix lodge, F. and A. M. About 23 years ago he went to reside in Kansas City, where he continued the practice of law. A directors' meeting of the Home Telephone company was held in Rutland recently for the purpose of discussing the advisability of extending its line to Randolph. The president, G. A. Clough of Randolph, H. H. Hubbard of Granville, J. S. Davis of Gaysville, G. B. Fish of Stockbridge, F. H. Morrill of Pittsfield, E. C. Ripley of Poultony and A. C. Plimley of Sherburne were present. The meeting was private and no information was received in regard to the proceedings. M. C. Rowell has purchased 30 acres of land and 15 of this he has deeded to put into building lots. The nearest public highway to this is by the way of School street, near the Hoyt crossing. The selectmen have ordered a highway starting from the lot purchased by Mr. Rowell, and of the expense of this he bears all, except the erection of a steel bridge, which is necessary in the building of the highway. This is to be known as "Rowell's addition," and upon it Mr. Rowell proposes to erect one or more houses this present summer.

NORTHFIELD

J. C. Columbo was in Montpelier yesterday. Roderick Rabinou is confined to the house by illness. Alvin Smith has finished work in F. R. Hutchins' market. Mrs. F. P. Houston is sick with an attack of appendicitis. John McCormick, who has been confined to the house by illness for the past week, is able to be out. Miss Emma Giffin left yesterday for North Andover, Mass., being called there by the illness of her niece, Miss Ruth Lord. The Italian club held a dance in armory hall last night. About twenty-five couples were in attendance. Messrs. Connell and Carroll furnished music. J. K. Morris and W. E. Washburn are to open a bowling alley in the basement of F. J. Houston's block, formerly occupied by Mr. McIntosh. The basement is being overhauled and will be put in first-class shape. A cement floor is being laid and an addition built on the back side to give the required number of feet for a regular alley. This should prove a very popular place of amusement.

For Wash Suits

Spring starting in so early has turned the ladies' attention to Wash Goods for better dresses that can be worn either in suits or as thinner costumes. Here is a special that you will appreciate as being all right, and the price is but half of what it was yesterday. A fortunate purchase has made these prices possible, and the quantity is but limited. Would have bought ten times as much, but this was the whole lot. Five hundred yards of the genuine Tussah Silks, that have never been sold by us for less than 80c. In fact, all former prices were 80c. Now, as real bargains at half price, or 25c per yard. See them in our window. We have a Shantora Silk in all colors, A Silk that will not pull and a beauty, now at 50c per yard.
