

CAMERON A WINNER

Amherst, Nova Scotia Runner, Finishes First

IN THE BOSTON MARATHON

A Great Race from the Start—Clarence H. Demar of North Dorchester, Mass., Second Across the Line.

Boston, April 20.—Setting his own pace almost from the start, Fred L. Cameron of Amherst, N. S., captured the 14th 25-mile Marathon run of the Boston Athletic Association yesterday in the fast, but not record, time of 2:28:30.3.

Clarence H. Demar of the North Dorchester, Mass., Athletic Association was exactly a minute behind, although his sprint in the last 1/4 mile carried him from fifth to second place.

James J. Corkery of Taunton, who was Cameron's most dangerous rival from the start until four miles from the finish, was third. His time was 2:34:25.

The race was run under superb conditions, the roads being hard and dry, the air fairly cool with a light wind, which followed the runners until four miles from the finish, when they were refreshed by an easterly breeze from the sea.

Nearly 180 runners started at noon from Ashland, each with an attendant on a bicycle. Corkery made the pace for the first two miles, and then Cameron rushed to the front and was never headed.

A freight train at South Framingham, four miles from the start, halted across the road after 27 runners had passed and practically cut off the chances of those in the rear. Cameron was pressed by Corkery for the first fifteen miles, but at the Chestnut Hill reservoir, 19 1/2 miles from the start, the Nova Scotia runner was more than a quarter of a mile ahead.

Corkery showed signs of distress and Demar, who had crawled up on 13th position at Natick, took second place on Beacon street in Brookline and was cutting down Cameron's lead rapidly when the finish line was reached. Both Cameron and Demar were in fine shape, but Corkery, who was third, nearly collapsed.

The times at the finish were as follows:—
F. L. Cameron, Amherst, N. S., 2:28:30.3.
C. H. Demar, North Dorchester A. A., 2:29:32.3.
James J. Corkery, Taunton, 2:34:25.
John R. Roe, Toronto, 2:38:00.
M. J. Ryan, New York, 2:38:42.
John J. Reynolds, Jersey City, 2:40:09.3.
R. E. McCormack, Toronto, 2:46:20.
Edwin H. White, New York, 2:49:50.
F. R. Devlin, New York, 2:41:34.
James Chazy, Cherry Valley, 2:44:58.

The nine most lightly dressed runners dashed off from just outside Ashland at the stroke of noon. More than two hundred thousand people lined the well-worn road, over which famous runners have snatched to fame and victory since the event was established in 1896.

The conditions were ideal from a spectator's standpoint, and while the warm sun and southerly air had partially dried the road, it was a trifle warm for violent exercise, and the following breeze was far from refreshing.

The big squad, the largest that has ever started, lined up in long rows across the road, about a mile outside the center of Ashland, a few minutes before noon, with an equal number of attendants on bicycles and a small army of automobiles. All hands had their pictures taken and with the ringing of the church bells came the crack of the starter's pistol.

There was the usual struggle for places in the first mile, and bumping matches were in order, but gradually the squad began to string out, and by the time Ashland square was reached the human thread was several hundred yards long, although well bunched.

The conditions were the wettest and muddiest experienced since 1896, and the going was of the heaviest kind.

declared that he has a real respect for the routine training formalities and that he will not prepare in the haphazard fashion that bids fair to characterize Camp Jeffries at Rowardennan.

Johnson is a stickler for doing one thing at a certain hour each day. On the other hand, Jeffries, while working hard and faithfully, follows a plan that allows him to do practically what he feels like. The wisdom of the daily sameness of Johnson's plan or the wide range in Jeffries' work will not be known until Independence day.

According to Johnson, he has engaged his training staff and will start work at Ocean Beach near San Francisco about May 1. The program provides for a daily rising time of 6 o'clock. He will don spike shoes and run or walk ten miles over the roads as a starter, accompanied by two trainers. Then will come the rubbers, who will work over the negro while the morning meal is being prepared. At 7:30 o'clock, breakfast will be served.

Having enjoyed his 'possum and beverage, which incidentally will not be served in a bucket, Johnson will test the county's automobile speed laws. A spin around San Francisco in a motorcar is calculated to aid the digestion of the day's first meal. A visit to the gymnasium is billed for 10 o'clock. Here the usual bag punching, shadow boxing, medicine ball drill and other stunts will be enacted. A rest will follow, and then Johnson will assault the midday efforts of his cocks.

Another rest will be taken after dinner, followed by the real work of the day. At 3 o'clock Johnson will begin boxing. It is the negro's intention to box twelve rounds daily. These bouts will be the real article, without the posing of the vaudeville stage. Rough work will be encouraged. Another spin in the ever-ready automobile, supper and an orchestral entertainment by the camp's talent will complete the routine. At 10 o'clock Johnson will be tucked in his little crib.

TWO FOR BOSTON.
Pulled Second Game Out by Fire in Ninth Inning.

Boston, April 20.—The Boston Red Sox took two games from Washington yesterday, the first in the morning by a score of 3 to 1 and the second in the afternoon, 5 to 4, pulling the game out in the ninth, when three hits followed a base on balls. The largest crowd ever on a local baseball field saw the afternoon game, the attendance being 37,000.

The score of the morning game:
Innings . . . 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9—r h e

PLAYED 12 INNINGS.
Cleveland Defeated Chicago White Sox, 2 to 1.

Chicago, April 20.—Cleveland defeated Chicago 2 to 1, after a hard 12 inning game yesterday. Both teams scored their first run in the 11th. Singles by Turner and Jajoie and an infield out by Lord scored the winning run. Bradley was put out of the game in the first inning for disputing a decision by Perrine.

CHANCE TIRED OF IT.
Chicago Manager Expresses His Opinion of the Kling Incident.

St. Louis, Mo., April 20.—"John Kling's alleged statement that he would start playing as soon as he joined the Cubs is all rubbish," said Manager Frank Chance of the Chicago Cubs Monday night.

"Of course, we will give Kling a uniform and a chance to play ball if he does pay his fine and comes back to us, but it is a matter of indifference to me. If he wants to stay in Kansas City, it is his own lookout. You may be sure the Cubs will not beg him to get back into the game. I am sick and tired of the whole Kling business, but tickled to death that we have enough catchers, and good ones, too, to get along without him."

"Kling has a motive in not reporting to us," continued the Cubs leader, "and his motive is a regular stick-up game. He seems to think we are clamoring for his return. He knew his old salary was $4,500, and he was out to get a raise. As a member of the Chicago club, Kling picked up the sum of $7,500 in baseball during the season of 1908."

Dartmouth Takes Game.
Springfield, Mass., April 20.—A combination of errors in the fourth inning allowed Dartmouth to score three runs and shut out the Springfield (Connecticut league) nine, 3 to 0, here yesterday morning. The score by innings:

Innings . . . 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9—r h e

A DEMOCRATIC LANDSLIDE

Boss Aldrich Defeated for Congress

IN NEW YORK DISTRICT

James S. Havens, Democrat, Elected to Succeed Congressman Perkins in Republican Stronghold.

Rochester, N. Y., April 20.—Between 10,000 and 15,000 voters of Monroe county changed from the Republican to the Democratic column yesterday and elected the first Democratic congressman that has represented the 32nd district in 20 years. James S. Havens, a Democrat running on a tariff reform platform, defeated George W. Aldrich, for a score of years the ruler of the county Republican organizations by 6,900 votes.

Monroe county, which comprises the 32nd congressional district, is normally Republican by about 6000. James Brock Perkins, whose death in the middle of his third congressional term, necessitated a special election yesterday, carried the district in 1908 by 10,167 votes. Havens had arrayed against him one of the strongest political organizations in the state. Yet in a campaign lasting but 17 days and with hastily constructed machinery he accomplished one of the most remarkable overturns in political history.

The result of yesterday's election takes its place beside the Democratic victory in the 14th Massachusetts district, where Eugene N. Foss was sent to Congress from a district supposed to be as rock ribbed Republican as this one.

Rochester is a city of both homes and factories. Monroe county is one of the state's garden spots, crowded with highly productive farms. Rochester has a reputation as a manufacturer of men's clothing, shoes, photographic supplies, buttons and various small wares that require skilled labor.

Havens rode to victory on a platform advocating tariff reform in the interests of the consumer, a revision of the duties on wool and woolen goods, a removal of the tax on tides and lumber in the interests of cheaper houses, and for the preservation of forests, a removal of the tariff on iron ore, an income tax, and finally advocating independence of all political bosses of any party.

Mr. Aldrich, his opponent, contented himself with general proclamations in favor of the policies of the Republican administration. On the tariff proposition he was regarded as a "stand-patter."

Both candidates declared for reciprocity with Canada an employer's compensation act, a parcels post and a postal savings bank, although Aldrich's position in these matters was less clearly defined than his opponent's.

The Democrats acknowledged, however, that one of the main factors in yesterday's reversal of political sentiment was a personal issue raised by Aldrich's record as party boss and evidence presented at the recent insurance investigation conducted by State Superintendent of Insurance Hotchkiss.

Mr. Aldrich acknowledged that he received a $1,000 check from Elijah Kennedy, an agent of the first insurance companies, but denied that he benefited personally by the transfer. He declared that he turned the money into the treasury of the Republican organization. This so-called "moral issue" was taken up by the churches, and no less than 20 clergymen announced themselves in Hawen's favor.

Mr. Aldrich's defense was that his record stood for itself. He summoned to his aid several thousand of Monroe county voters, who were under obligations to him for political favors and yesterday the polling places were thronged with workers wearing his dark blue badges.

Outside of the district he received little if any assistance. Mr. Havens on the other hand, was helped by the Democratic national committee, which sent here as speaker Charles Hamilton of Massachusetts, former assistant secretary of the treasury, under President Cleveland, and Eugene N. Foss, the newly elected congressman from the same state.

Mr. Mack's Statement.
Buffalo, N. Y., April 20.—When informed of the result of the election at Rochester, Norman E. Mack, chairman of the Democratic national committee, said:

"The election of Mr. Havens is an unmistakable repudiation of the tariff policy of the Republican party. It is a more impressive expression of public sentiment than even the victory of Mr. Dickinson in Missouri or Mr. Foss in Massachusetts, for it was against the most perfect political machine that modern political activity has produced. Mr. Havens made his light on the tariff issue and in his success the Democracy gains not only a very able man in Congress but the voters have shown that they are tired of accepting promises from the Republican party which are never redeemed. I believe it foretells for the state of New York a Democratic state administration, and nationally, a very substantial majority in the next House of Representatives."

TOO LATE TO RECOVER $997,000.
Receipts Passed Put Over to Case, Says Hotchkiss.

Albany, N. Y., April 20.—Superintendent of Insurance Hotchkiss, when asked yesterday regarding the report that the insurance department was considering the advisability of ordering the Mutual Life Insurance company to bring suit for restitution against those officers and trustees of the company who were responsible for the payment of $997,000 to the McCurdy, said that receipts passed between the company and the McCurdy, and he was of the opinion that such being the case it probably precluded any action by the department.

Superintendent Hotchkiss said that other phases of the report would be taken up later.

For Your Hair

Here Are Facts We Want You to Prove at Our Risk.

Miraculous as it may seem, Rexall "93" Hair Tonic has grown hair on heads that were once bald. Of course, it is understood that in none of these cases were the hair roots dead nor had the scalp taken on a glazed, shiny appearance.

When the roots of the hair are entirely dead, we do not believe that anything can restore hair growth.

When Rexall "93" Hair Tonic will do as above stated, it is not strange that we have such great faith in it and that we claim it will prevent baldness when used in time. It acts scientifically, destroying the germs which are usually responsible for baldness. It penetrates to the roots of the hair, stimulating and nourishing them. It is a most pleasant tonic, is delicately perfumed and will not gum nor permanently stain the hair.

We want you to get a bottle of Rexall "93" Hair Tonic and use it as directed. If it does not relieve scalp irritation, remove dandruff, prevent the hair from falling out and promote an increased growth of hair and in every way give entire satisfaction, simply come back and tell us and without question or formality we will hand back to you every penny you paid us for it.

We lend our endorsement to Rexall "93" Hair Tonic and sell it on this guarantee, because we believe it is the best hair tonic ever discovered. It comes in two sizes, prices 50 cents and $1.00. Remember, you can obtain it only at our store—The Rexall Store, The Red Cross Pharmacy, Burr J. Wells, proprietor.

MASACHUSETTS CELEBRATES.
Patriots' Day Observed with Varied and Interesting Program.

Boston, April 20.—The heavy rains of Monday night and early yesterday lent a dampening effect to the 138th anniversary of the battle of Lexington, observed yesterday, but nevertheless did not prevent an elaborate celebration in the eastern part of the state.

Lexington and Concord, as usual, were the centers of attraction to many thousands of people, and on the main roads leading to those places were continued processions of automobiles, carriages and other vehicles.

At sunrise, a salute of 13 guns was given in Lexington and the national salute was fired in Concord. Later in the forenoon, Governor Eben S. Draper and Lieutenant Governor Louis A. Frothingham reviewed a parade that followed the streets of Lexington. Numerous social and athletic gatherings were held in both towns.

The Massachusetts society, Sons of the American Revolution, holds its annual meeting, and many other societies and fraternal organizations met during the day.

Another feature of the celebration was a competitive match from Boston to Lowell, 20 miles, of 31 eight-man teams, comprised of members of the Massachusetts militia.

JOHNSON AIDS AUTO VICTIMS.
Calls Firemen and Helps Rescue Men and Women from Wrecked Machine.

Chicago, April 20.—Jack Johnson, the negro champion heavyweight pugilist, early yesterday assisted firemen in rescuing two men and a woman who were buried under the wreckage of an automobile, which turned turtle with four passengers while speeding through Jackson park. One woman was thrown out, uninjured.

The two men and the other woman occupant were buried under the overturned car. Johnson with his trainer was passing in his car and went to the rescue. Johnson attempted to lift the overturned car, but failed. He sent his trainer, H. J. Furey, to call a hook and ladder company.

A dozen firemen, assisted by Johnson, lifted the wrecked car. The injured persons were then put in Johnson's car and rushed to a hospital. At the hospital it was said that Miss Grace Dury, 20 years old, was the only one injured.

MONEY'S ATTACK.
Senator Says the Fourteenth Amendment is Invalid.

Washington, April 20.—There was an attack on the fourteenth amendment to the constitution in the Senate yesterday by Senator Money of Mississippi, who urged the adoption of a resolution, which he said would be referred to the committee on the judiciary, directing the attorney-general of the United States to submit to the supreme court of the United States all information bearing on the validity of the fourteenth amendment.

Senator Money had prepared his speech, but by reason of his difficulty in reading, Senator Owen of Oklahoma read it for him. The Mississippi senator is of the opinion that the fourteenth amendment was not properly adopted and ratified. He asserts that the journals of the two houses of Congress fail to show a two-thirds vote in favor of the amendment, and he contends that there was not a three-fourths vote of the states in ratification.

Catarh Can Quickly Be Cured
A bottle of Hyomei, a hard rubber pocket inhaler, that will last a lifetime, and simple instructions for curing catarh make a Hyomei outfit.

Into the inhaler you pour a few drops of magdal Hyomei (pronounce it High-ome).

It is absorbed by the antiseptic gases within, and now you are ready to breathe it over the germ-infested membrane, where it will speedily begin its work of killing catarh germs. Hyomei is made of Australian eucalyptol combined with other antiseptics and is very pleasant to breathe.

IN BOSTON MARKETS.
No Change from Last Week's Conditions. Prices Moderate.

Boston, April 20.—The week opens in the local market for dairy products without special change from the conditions of last week. The demand for butter is still rather slack, and although the receipts are rather moderate, a material increase is expected any day and there is considerable pressure to sell the stock on hand.

The cheese market is quiet, but fine full goods are well sold up and remaining supplies are firmly held. The market, however, favors the buyer on winter and late-made cheese. Eggs are still abundant and easy.

Wholesale Quotations:
Butter—Fancy and northern creamery, tubs 33@34c, boxes and prints 34@35c; western tubs 32@33c, fancy factory creamery 33@34c, fair to good creamery 29@31c, dairy 28@30c.

CORN CLEANUP.
Chicago Market Flooded and Bear Leader Profits Heavily.

Chicago, April 20.—With the Chicago market flooded with corn, 11,000,000 bushels of the cereal being stored in local elevators, shorts are covering and the leader of the bear faction, Adolph J. Lichstein, is reported to have bought in corn enough to show a profit on the right side of the ledger running over the half million mark.

Lichstein was also short 10,000,000 bushels of May wheat, and his purchases of that cereal have brought him in an enormous profit. Covering of his short corn has been going on quietly in corn enough to show a profit on the right side of the ledger running over the half million mark.

Michael and John Cudahy, the speculators, are said to have cleaned up several millions in the past few weeks by shifting the operations with the market and staying on the right side in each instance. Their operations have been confined chiefly to provisions. They caught the market at a low level and went out at top-notch prices and then took the short side. With the recent slump they have covered at enormous profits.

As usual, the country speculators have been the lambs, and farmers, who believe that the scarcity of hogs would bring about a continued rise in pork quotations, both for fresh and cured products, throughout the summer, have played the role of lamb to the tune of millions. Other big packers are said to have been on the right side of the market on the down turn.

James A. Patten continues short of corn. At the present he is said to be on the short side of the corn market nearly 4,000,000 bushels. Followers of the big cotton plunger are short 6,000,000 bushels additional. Both Patten and his company are said to be slowly buying in, and profits already have mounted up to a figure which will offset recent speculative losses sustained in cotton and wheat campaigns, which resulted disastrously for both Patten and his followers.

NEIGHBORS.
Halley's Comet Only 118,000,000 Miles Away Yesterday.

Chicago, April 20.—Halley's comet was estimated to be 118,000,000 miles from the earth yesterday. It passed perihelion this morning. Even if the comet were as close it probably will be invisible for several days, owing to its nearness to the sun, according to Prof. E. E. Barnard of Yerkes observatory.

"When seen again," said Prof. Barnard, "its tail should show, stretching away from the horizon and inclined very much to the south. The moon in the morning sky will interfere with the brightness of the comet until after April 23."

PREMIER RESIGNS.
Alfred Deakin Quits Australian Post After Defeat.

Melbourne, Australia, April 20.—Alfred Deakin, the prime minister of Australia, has resigned. In the general elections about a week ago, there was a great labor upsurge and the Deakin government was defeated. Mr. Deakin in himself had a narrow escape from defeat at the hands of a Laborite. Deakin government was a free trade, protectionist and anti-Socialist coalition, which overthrew the labor ministry about a year ago.

HE STUDIED TOO HARD
By HARRIET L. GEDDES
Copyright, 1909, by American Press Association.

After the death of Professor Koopman, one of the most remarkable scientists of Germany, the following manuscript was found among his papers:

I pondered long on how I might photograph my wife, provided she was accustomed to frequent pieces she had been used to frequenting in life. There is a window of her bedroom at which she used to sit and look over a view of rolling ground on which were scattered several of the college buildings. It occurred to me to keep a plate constantly exposed bearing on the chair she had used in this window in the hope that she would come there.

A week's exposure failed to show any impression on the plate. Possibly, I thought, ordinary light is not strong enough for the purpose. I determined to use the strongest light available. The room faced south, the sun being on it in summer from 8 o'clock in the morning till about 5 in the evening. I rigged a lens—on the principle of the common sunlamp—outside the window, throwing a light on the chair composed of the converging rays of the sun.

My lens was arranged to turn by clockwork so that the light thrown on the chair would continue irrespective of the sun's apparent motion.

I exposed my plate all one very clear day, but found nothing on it when developed. For five successive days the sun shone brightly. I continued the exposure. After the fifth exposure a faint figure appeared on the plate. A print showed a woman sitting in the chair.

The figure was not distinct enough for me to tell whether or no it was that of my wife. I mourned the imperfection of my materials and sighed that I had none more delicate. I caught the figure at the window several times, but the impression was always blurred. How I longed to produce a picture that would give the features of the face! Doubtless I would then see my wife looking at me as she had often done while sitting in that chair.

Soon after this I changed the basis of my investigations. I laid out a series of experiments at taking pictures with the light of radium. I worked and thought so incessantly that at last my friends interfered, thinking I would break down. They interrupted me, however, just as I had succeeded. I have made a number of photographs of my wife holding out her arms to me and wearing that smile.

(On the day this last paragraph was written Professor Koopman was taken to a sanatorium, where he died.)
